JARVIS WELCOMES

KNISLEY AND LONG HOME FROM SOUTH AFRICA

It Was a Grand Reception—Over 500 People Meet the Returning Heroes at the Station

A Monster Procession in Which Over 150 Men on Horseback Participate—Cheapside, Nanticoke and Selkirk Well Represented—It Was a Great Day and One Long to be Remembered in Jarvis.

On the arrival of the 11.15 a.m. train from Hamilton on Monday a large crowd, if not the largest ever gathered at the Jarvis station, assembled to meet Privates Knisley of Selkirk and Long of Cheapside on their coming home from South Africa. Long before the arrival of the train the station platforms were filled with a jam of people and the yard was filled with rigs and mounted men. At 11.15 sharp the train pulled in and the boys were taken and put in a sleigh drawn by a number of the 37th Regt. amid the hurrahs of the several hundred voices. The procession was then formed as follows:—First was the deputation from Cheapside, some fifty strong, mounted on white horses, then came the Selkirk Band, followed by No 5 Company pulling the sleigh in which Knisley and Long were placed and over which floated a large Union Jack; next came a sleigh with members of the reception committee and resident ministers; next came about 100 more on horseback, followed by private rigs. In this way the procession proceeded up Main street to Talbot down Talbot to Walpole, up Walpole to Main again, and thence to the corner of Main and Talbot where a stand had been erected for the occasion. After the two heroes had mounted the platform, followed by the members of the committee and resident ministers, the chairman, Mr. C. E. Bourne, gave a short address of welcome which was followed by an address read by Mr. D. Duff, Principal of the Jarvis Public School, and Mr. Joseph Ivey on behalf of the citizens of Jarvis presented each with a solid gold locket. The following is the address:—

To PRIVATE FRANK LONG, Canadian Mounted Rifles, AND PRIVATE WILLIAM A. KNISLEY, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons: We, the citizens of Jarvis and vicinity, have watched with feelings of admiration and pride the career of Canada's sons on the battlefields of South Africa. It has been a trying campaign and only the strongest and bravest of men have come off victorious. You who have honored us with your presence to-day have been in the thickest of the fight and have nobly done your duty. You have done more, you have gone out of your way to perform special deeds of valor which have called forth the highest praise not only from your commanding officers but from the nation at large. These feats stamp you as men of the larger and finer mould, a type of men whom Canadians delight to honor. We would not forget the great services which you and your comrades have performed for Canada and the Empire to which we are so proud to belong. By your devotion to duty and your sterling soldier-like qualities you have drawn closer those cords which binds us to the motherland, and not only this but you have made Canada a nation confident in herself and respected throughout the length and breadth of the world. Wherever you may cast your lot, wherever the future may lead you, you will be honoured and respected by all true Canadians. The soldier looks not for rewards when the battle is over, but we would ask you to accept these slight tokens of our appreciation of your services to Queen and country. Signed on behalf of citizens, Jarvis, Jan. 14, 1901.

D. Duff, Chairman of Committee, R. G. Howell, M.D., W. Jaques, M.D., Chas. E. Bourne, Jos. Ivey, G. A. MacLennan, B.A., Jas. Noble, Jno. Lambert, Albert Littler, Andrew Rodgers, J.P., William Chambers, R. A. Walters, Thos. Lewis, Wm. Simpson, A. E. Hayward, J. C. Mills, Thos. Ivey, Wm. Parkinson

Privates Long and Knisley made a brief reply, after which short addresses were delivered by Revs. Spencer, MacLennan, Scanlan, Douglas, Dr. Hutt of Ingersoll, and Dr. Sherk of Cheapside. At the conclusion the chairman invited all those on the platform and the band to lunch served in Chambers' Hall. He also extended an invitation to all the visitors.

The hall was tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and the tables were kept full until the waits of over 500 had been supplied, after which the Cheapside and Nanticoke deputations started with Troopers Long and Knisley for Cheapside where they were given another hearty welcome and Long was presented with a gold watch by the citizens of Cheapside and surrounding country.

NOTES
Jarvis had on her holiday attire, being gaily decorated with flags, bunting and streamers.

The Committee are to be congratulated on the efficient manner in which the celebration was carried out.

A traveller in town on Monday was heard to remark that he had seen a number of celebrations to returned soldiers but Jarvis takes the cake.

Who would have thought that there were so many saddles in the country.

The crowd was the largest the town has had for some years.

Nanticoke and Cheapside had a good representation in the parade, in fact they were the whole show, all except Mayor, Smithson who headed the procession.

B. Millenbacher was out with his kodak and got several snap shot of parade.

There was nothing the matter with Ed. Eaid's turn-out.

Where did you get that hat? The Selkirk Band enlivened the occasion with their excellent music. The boys did well and we congratulate the leader.

Jarvis did it up right and had two able lieutenants in Nanticoke and Cheapside.

Farmers' Institute Meetings.

Very important farmers' meetings will be held at Jarvis Jan. 22rd. The speakers advertised are all practical and successful farmers and stock raisers.

The Farmers' Institutes are doing good work in getting together the most prominent farmers of each neighborhood to discuss among themselves matters pertaining to their own business. To be successful in farming, as in all other lines of industry, it is necessary to have co-operation and the mutual exchange of ideas. Methods of farming have entirely changed within a few years. The active brain must now be associated with the strong arm if genuine success is to be achieved. The farmer of today must read, must apply scientific principles to his work, must keep an account of everything he buys and sells, must weed out the unprofitable animals of his herd, must recognize and destroy the pestilent weeds before they take possession of his fields, must in fact keep wide-awake and on the alert or he will get left in the race. Let every farmer attend the Institute meeting nearest his home, and while there look sharply after every bit of information that might help him in his work.

Mr. Alex. McNeill of Walkerville is well known in this district, in fact Mr. McNeill is one of the best known men in the Province of Ontario, having been connected with the Farmers' Institutes almost ever since their inception, and being also a member of the Director of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association. Mr. McNeill discusses all matters pertaining to the fruit industry and in addition has something to say about the 'Bacon Hog' and 'Poultry'.

Mr. McNeill is accompanied by Mrs. A. Kinney of Grand View. For years Mrs. Kinney produced in her private dairy and sold in Brantford market butter that commanded a higher price than any of her competitors. Mrs. Kinney only used the every-day appliances of the ordinary farm dairy, and she tells how she made such a superior quality of butter.

John Stadder Cased

The ladies of Knox Church, on Tuesday afternoon, presented Mr. John Stadder with a beautiful cane, with sterling silver mountings. It was intended that the presentation be made on Monday evening at the tea-meeting but the delay in receipt of the cane prevented this. Mr. Stadder replied feelingly, referring to their work together, which advancing years now prevented his taking part in as he once had done. The address was as follows:

DEAR MR. STADDER.—We, the ladies of Knox Church, take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your long and faithful services with us in connection with the various summer and winter festivals of the congregation.

We would ask your acceptance of this cane and in its use may you have pleasant recollections of many hours spent with us in the work of this church which we all so much love. With the prayer that the Divine Blessing may be abundantly vouchsafed to Mrs. Stadder and yourself.

On behalf of the ladies—Ellen McNeill, Pres.; Mrs. D. Steel, 1st Vice-Pres.; Mrs. Lewis Miller, 2nd Vice-Pres.; Mrs. D. M. Allen, Sec'y; Mary Allen, Mrs. J. H. Bennett, Treasurers.

Walpole Agricultural Society

Holds Its Annual Meeting and Elects Officers for Ensuing Year.

The annual meeting of the Walpole Agricultural Society was held in Chambers' Hall, Jarvis, on Thursday last and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather was fairly well attended.

The treasurer's report disclosed a very satisfactory state of affairs in regard to the finances of the society. The assets are valued at $543.50, while the liabilities are only $15.40 with plenty of money to pay these when demanded.

The membership of the society is not what it should be, last year the number being 190. This should not be and now that the society is in good financial shape the membership should rapidly increase.

The society paid out in prizes last year over $600.00 and the distribution of this amount must be of advantage to the farmers of Walpole who should support the society more largely.

The election of officers for 1901 resulted as follows:

President—James Hodges.
1st Vice-Pres.—G. Snyder, Jr.
2nd Vice-Pres.—D. Steel.
Treasurer—C. G. Allen.
Secretary—J. Y. Murdoch.
Auditors—J. A. Burwash and C. E. Bourne

Directors—Alf. Underhill, T. W. Ivey, James Williamson, John J. Nelson, Leslie Marr, Arthur Thompson, Nelson Howard, Thos. Priestland, David McBurney and John J. Parsons.

Honorary Directors—J. W. Holmes, John Makey, Neil Elliott, Nelson Hall, R. Porteous, James B. Wilson, D. Lindsey, Thos. Jaques, W. Parkinson, R. A. Walters, Isaac Jacques.

The society decided to hold their annual exhibition on September 26 and 27 next and the above Board of Directors will strive to make this exhibition surpass all others.

Nanticoke Notes.

Mr. Wm. Kindree is organizing a singing class in connection with the Methodist church choir.

The people of this place showed their patriotism last Monday by turning out in large numbers to attend and take part in the reception given in honor of the soldier's return from S. Africa. Although the weather could not be called exceptionally fine on that day none seem to regret going.

Our citizens lost a much loved and respected friend and neighbor last Friday in the person of Mr. Wilson Jackson who passed away rather suddenly on that day. Although ailing for some time, none thought that death was so near at hand. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hull in the Church of England on Sunday morning and was very largely attended. Deceased leaves three daughters, Misses N. and E. Jackson of this place and Mrs. Guy Walker formerly of this place and now here on a visit from her home in Manitoba. They have the deepest sympathy of the entire neighborhood in this time of their great loss.

SELKIRK'S RECEPTION

Trooper W. A. Knisley Receives A Hearty Welcome Home From South Africa.

The reception accorded the homecoming of Trooper D. A. Knisley on Saturday was in every particular a huge success.

He was met at Hagersville by his immediate friends and driven home via Nelles Corners, where a large number of Selkirk and Rainham people had gathered to escort him home. The Selkirk band was there and on his arrival greeted him by playing "Soldiers of the Queen" and other patriotic pieces. After dinner a procession was formed and proceeded by way of Indian Line to Fisherville, then west to the Town Line to Selkirk. On arrival at Selkirk the procession had much difficulty in wending its way through, everybody wanting to shake hands with the South Africa hero. After the hand shaking and royal salute he was taken to his home.

In the evening the procession was re-formed, marched to his home and escorted him to the Baptist Church. The crowd being so great it was found to be necessary to use the town hall for an over-flow meeting. The meeting in the church was presided over by J. W. Holmes, M.L.A., and in the town hall by Robt. Miller, Esq.

An address was presented to Trooper Knisley by Mr. R. Rushton, couched in very nice language and laying particular stress upon his courage in rescuing a comrade when in distress and in so doing earning that decoration most highly prized by a soldier of the Queen—the Victoria Cross.

After the address Dr. Harrison was called upon to make the presentation which was in the shape of a beautiful gold watch suitably engraved and inscribed for the purpose. The address by the Dr. was one of the finest we have ever listened to.

Major Thompson was also present and in fine form. His speech, as usual, was a practical one, touching upon the Canadian militia in particular.

Mr. E. E. Thompson's address which I am sure touched the hearts of everyone present.

Miss Marie Holmes gave two very appropriate readings from the pen of Kipling in her usual able manner. The Selkirk orchestra supplied suitable music for the occasion. At 11.30 the successful affair was brought to a close by singing 'God Save the Queen.'

Division Court

The Sixth Division Court held its sittings on Wednesday last in Chambers' Hall, Jarvis, when the following cases were disposed of:

Smith v. Brohman—An action for wrongful conversion of goods and for damages for waste and for payment of one-half year's taxes. The plaintiff claimed $76.00 and the jury awarded her $31.50. S. E. Lindsay for plaintiff, J. Y. Murdoch for defendant.

McDonald v. Pedlow—An action for balance of wages due. The defendant counter-claimed for damages for wrongful quitting of employment and for negligence in taking in a bill of a bank that had collapsed. Verdict for the defendant without costs. S. E. Lindsay for the plaintiff; J. Y. Murdoch for the defendant.

Green v. McKeen—An action for wages. Settled without trial. S. E. Lindsay for plaintiff; J. Y. Murdoch for defendant.

Herries v. Harvey—An action for balance of rent. The defendant counter-claimed for misrepresentation in regard to the land on a point of law. Judgment reserved. S. E. Lindsay for plaintiff; J. Y. Murdoch for defendant.

Williams v. LePan—An action for an account. The defendant counter-claimed for damages for the negligent erection of a wire fence. In this case the evidence was very contradictory and judgment was reserved. J. Y. Murdoch for plaintiff; S. E. Lindsay for defendant.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.
