NEWS FROM ALL POINTS.

Rear-Admiral Thomas F. Phelps of Washington died at New York of pneumonia.

The jury in the case of Emery Carisse of Ottawa, charged with manslaughter, disagreed.

The papermakers of Canada held a meeting at Ottawa for the purpose it was said, of fixing prices.

Frank Long, son of James Long, Napanee, was a fireman in Rochester and lost his life in recent fire there.

All the corporation laborers at Kingston struck because work was given to a non-union man named Moon.

The 50th year of Rev. Francis Andrews' pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Keene was celebrated Friday.

Miss Georgie Jamieson, M.A., of Napanee has been appointed assistant tutor in languages in Queen's College, Kingston.

Hugh Guthrie, Liberal member for South Wellington, will move the adoption of the address at the coming session of parliament.

Sir Charles Tupper was at Ottawa Thursday for the first time in a week, after an attack of grip, which is very prevalent in Ottawa just now.

James Sills of Hinchinbrooke was killed while shooting rabbits. His children returning from school found the body of their father lying dead in a field.

The Anchor liner Ethlopa, Capt. McKenzie, which left Glasgow Thursday for New York, via Moville, Ireland, is ashore on Holy Island, in the Firth of Clyde. She is in a bad position.

James Seamon and Louis Matheis were sentenced at Sandwick to six years in penitentiary for passing bills stolen from the Dominion Bank at Napanee, with the signature of the bank officer forged.

At St. John, N. B., it is said that negotiations are in progress looking to reorganization of Park's cotton mills under the financial management of Col. Geo. W. Jones, son of one of the chief creditors.

Frank Calcott, the sixteen-year-old son of William Calcott, merchant Talbotville, while handling a revolver Thursday morning, accidentally shot himself in the stomach. There are no hopes of his recovery.

An earthquake of several seconds' duration occurred Thursday morning in several places on both sides of the Riesen-Gebirge mountains, the range separating Bohemia from Prussian Silesia. In some cases the shock was violent, and did some damage.

Messrs. Haggart, Monk, and Maclean, M. P.'s, were at Ottawa Thursday. A caucus of the opposition will be held on Tuesday February 5, the day before parliament opens, to choose a leader and decide upon the line of policy to be adopted.

A despatch from Copenhagen says the proposal to sell the Danish West Indies to the United States seems to have been definitely abandoned. The ratification of an economic treaty between Denmark and the United States affecting the islands is regarded as imminent.

The police, firemen, and physicians of Ottawa have rescued 470 passengers from five trains which have been snowbound for several days after enduring the greatest sufferings. A force of 4000 workmen is clearing the track to Odessa. Four days' mail has been stalled up.

By a vote of 35 to 15 the United States Senate has delivered a death-blow to the army canteen. This was not accomplished without a determined struggle on the part of advocates of temperance in the army. Party lines were lost, and the roll call showed a much larger majority in favor of striking out the canteen than was expected.

It is reported that at the approaching meeting of the Quebec legislature the question will be raised whether Mr. Delpit, secretary of Lieutenant-Governor Jette, whose attempt to have his marriage set aside has aroused such indignation, is a public functionary paid by the government. If he is, his dismissal will be demanded.

While proceeding to his work on the Ottawa and Gatineau Valley Railway at the Little Farm, Hull, shortly before 7 o'clock Thursday morning, Bernard McGuigan, a laborer, met his death on the railway track. There were no eye-witnesses to the accident, but it is thought that McGuigan fell and was run over by a car which was moved out of the gravel pit.

A very sad accident occurred Thursday at Dundonald, about five miles north-east of Colborne. Robert K. Purdy, eldest son of Henry C. Purdy, was in the woodshed cutting wood, when by some cause unknown he was hit on the left side, bursting a blood vessel, causing death within half an hour. After the accident occurred the young man walked into the house, took off his coat and went upstairs. The family heard groaning upstairs, and going up, found him in great agony and unable to speak. A doctor was immediately sent for, but he passed away before the doctor arrived. Deceased was in his 21st year.

M. Heenan, of St. Thomas, special agent of the C. S. R. division of the M. C. R., has prepared his report for the year 1900. Twenty-one were arrested for indictable offences, of whom 19 pleaded guilty and two years. Twenty-eight paid fines, and forty boys, who jumped on trains, paid for railway tickets. They subscribed in this way $57. Four stations were robbed during the year. Detective Heenan, in his report, thanks police and others for assistance rendered himself and other M. C. R. officers.

Scientists now say that if you want to live long all you have to do is to take plenty of salt. Fresh people should make a note of this.
