The Galt Reformer says—"Total abstinence pays. At least it did in the case of Alex. McLean, just returned from South Africa. As has been said, he was wounded in three places, so seriously that his life was despaired of. He recovered, a miracle, his doctor told him, due entirely to the fact that he had never used either alcohol or tobacco.

Anniversary Services.

The Anniversary Services held in connection with Knox Church, on Sunday were a decided success. Large congregations gathered to hear the Rev. E. R. Hutt, Ph. D. preach able and instructive discourses. Miss Mazie Booth, of Toronto, rendered solos at both services which were well received. On Monday evening an immense gathering partook of the tea provided by the ladies' of the church in the school room of the church and done ample justice to the inner man, after which the immense gathering were entertained in the Auditorium of the church by Miss Mazie Booth and H. Ruthven Macdonald of Toronto, Revs. Drs. Hutt, and Scanlan and Privates Long and Knisley, the returned Soldiers from South Africa who gave a brief sketch of their career in the South African War. Miss Booth's singing was well received and should she ever appear again before a Jarvis audience she may be sure of a welcome. H. Ruthven Macdonald is a whole show in himself and the audience was well pleased with his entertaining. The proceeds amounted to $220.

St. Paul's Church.

Rev. H. Softley of Toronto, has been visiting the parishioners of Rev. P. L. Spencer, for the purpose of introducing among them the literature of the society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge. On Sunday last he preached at both the morning and the evening service in St. Paul's church, his sermons being particularly earnest and forcible.

Mrs. Spencer has been requested by the churchwardens and the members of the choir to act as organist in succession to Miss Blanche Park, who completed her engagement at the close of 1900. Mrs. Spencer well-known abilities as a musician augur well for the high character of the music in future.

Last week Rev. P. L. Spencer spent several days at Trinity College Toronto, attending the annual meeting of the Theological Alumni. He was elected corresponding secretary for the diocese of Niagara.

On Friday evening the first illustrated lecture on Ancient and Modern Egypt will be given in the S. S. building. Mr. Spencer has for some years devoted special attention to this subject. The views are very fine and extremely interesting, there being among them portraits of Rameses II the Pharaoh of Moses' time. This series promises to be highly instructive. A short service will precede the lecture beginning at 7.30. All will be welcome.

The Canadians Did It.

The fact that the forward part taken by the Canadian troops at the battle of Paardeberg was largely instrumental in forcing General Cronje to surrender has now become accepted history. The Weekly Globe is presenting its yearly subscribers with a picture of that memorable scene. Their correspondent, Mr. Frederick Hamilton, and others, who were eye-witnesses of that memorable battle, say it gives a most intelligent idea of their position and that of the Boer camp. A copy of it can be seen at this office.
