VICTORIA, THE WORLD MOURNS FOR THREE.

Our gracious Queen has passed away. To be mourned by a nation for many a day; A Queen whose fame was more than world-wide.

Now lies by her beloved Consort's side.

Oh Queen, who ruled for many a year A nation, whose tributes show on thy bier; Their thoughts were ever of thee, oh Queen, The best, the truest, the world has seen.

Oh Queen, with so many mercies blest, At last thy soul is laid to rest; The prayers of a nation, thy help shall be, To guide thee through Eternity.

Our Queen, not dead, but gone before, To ascend to heaven as our Lord did of yore; To be ever in the presence of her spiritual Lord.

Gone to receive her well earned reward.

Oh Lord take possession of her departed soul, That on the day, when our bodies are all made whole; She shall find everlasting rest with thee, Blessed in the sweet realms of Eternity.

And now oh Lord, that thou hast left This nation, as of a mother bereft, Give grace and wisdom to our King That he may rule as our late Queen.

—D. A. Cruickshank, Jarvis.
