The Eckardt Family, Bell ringers and musical artists, who delighted their audience here a short time ago will appear again in the Methodist Church to-night, and will no doubt be greeted with a full house.

Jos Owen returned home last Friday safe and sound from his trip across the briny ocean, although he reports having had a very rough trip coming home. He leaves again on another trip with horses next Friday.

The last Canada Gazette announces the promotion of Major Thompson, M.P., to the command of the 37th Battalion, to succeed Lieut. Col. Nelles, who is now on the reserve list of officers.

Mr. Walter Williams removed his household goods to Woodstock last Thursday. The family left on Saturday to become residents of Oxford's County town. The Record wishes Mr. and Mrs. Williams success in their new home.

Easter falls this year on April 6th, Ascension day, May 6th. Whit Sunday, May 26th, Queen's birthday, falls on a Friday. Dominion day on a Monday, 12th of July on a Friday, and Christmas on a Wednesday. March, June, September and December are the five-Sunday months in 1901.

The Woodstock Sentinel Review Says:—The Presbyterian Congregations of Norwich and Bookton have decided to extend a call to Rev. G. A. MacLennan, of Jarvis. These were the congregations formerly ministered to by Rev. J. M. Miller, who left to take up work in British Columbia.

Our former townsman Mr. C. W. Anderson, of the firm of C. W. Anderson & Co., dry goods merchants St. Catharines, was in town a couple of days this week. Car. reports a very prosperous business in St. Catharines and his many friends here are pleased to hear he is doing well.

Mr. Geo. H. Swing, of Walpole, met with an unfortunate accident on Saturday last while going to Springvale for a load of lumber. He was sitting on the hind bob of his sleigh when the sleigh dropped into a pitch-hole, throwing him suddenly forward in front of the bob. He was dragged a considerable distance before the horses stopped and three of his ribs were broken.

T. Esid & Son shipped a car load of horses to Vancouver, B. C., yesterday. The horses were all purchased in this neighborhood and are pronounced one of the finest lots that has ever been shipped from this station. The load consisted of a grand lot of heavy and high-class road horses. Ed Esid accompanied them, and his father will follow in a couple of weeks with another load.

Notice.—Our special sale prices will end on the 20th. Now is your chance. Pedlow & Co.
