Charles M. Schwab, the president of the Billion Dollar Steel Trust, has had his salary raised from $800,000 to $1,000,000 a year. Pierpont Morgan, one of the leading spirits in the trust, says Schwab is worth every cent of it, as he will save the trust $5,000,000 a year by consolidating officers and cutting down salaries. It may be remarked that Pierpont Morgan drew his cheque the other day for thirty million dollars. While Schwab is getting over $3,194 for every working day in the year, women are working in New York sweat shops ten hours a day for less than 50 cents.
