Although the Fire Insurance Companies have increased their tariff on all business, Mr. J. Y. Murdoch can still write your risk at the old rates. All farm risks are written at a very low rate and residential properties in the village can be insured by Mr. Murdoch from 45c. per hundred up according to exposure.

In consequence of the connection of Messrs Wells & Innes, Barristers, Simcoe, with the Crown office for a number of years they have been unable to practice in the Criminal Courts, on behalf of the Defence. That connection having now ceased, they have resumed the practice of this branch of the Profession. The firm of Wells & Innes succeed the firm of Ansley, Wells & Innes, and will continue business at their former office in the Ansley Block in the Town of Simcoe.

We clip the following from the Bridgeburg Review. The principals being former residents of Jarvis:—Dr. Mencke—"Here, Knaggs, you must be vaccinated." Knaggs—"Go ahead, Doc." (holding out his arm) "you can vaccinate me to your heart's content, it won't affect me any. I have been vaccinated a dozen times and it never took." Dr. Mencke vaccinated. Knaggs' left arm is considerably swollen and very sore. In fact, Knaggs doesn't feel. He has, however, one arm in a state of perfection. Next!

Thos. Eaid shipped another carload of horses from Jarvis to Vancouver, B. C., on Saturday in charge of Chas. Jackson. Among the lot was a matched pair bred and raised by Mr. Arthur Slater, the Ontario farmer. Mr. Eaid has shipped a large number of horses from here during the past few years and a large amount of money has been distributed among the farmers in this section. The farmers are very fortunate in having a buyer like Mr. Eaid in their midst and no doubt they appreciate the importance of having one.

House cleaning time will soon be here.

The Easter holidays for the schools will soon be here.

We clip the following from the Canadian-Mute, Belleville, written by its Toronto correspondent:—Mr. Herbert Roberts has left for his parental home at Jarvis, Ont., much to our regret, for during his stay here he was very popular especially in social circles. He has been in the city all winter as the guest of the Toronto Deaf-Mute Association, of which he was its gifted secretary. He was also a member of the Toronto Silent Male quartette, and a regular attendant at our bible training school. We trust he will come to our midst again.

An effort is being made to organize a brass band in the village and there appears to be plenty of boys who are willing to become members. If the boys decide to start up a band they should be encouraged by the citizens. It would not only be a pleasant and profitable way for the boys to spend one or two evenings a week, but would be one means of adding to the life of the village. There is no doubt a good band could be raised in Jarvis if it is taken hold of in earnest and the citizens give them a little financial assistance. We understand that a meeting is to be held to discuss the question. It is requested that persons having instruments belonging to the old band will please leave the same at Jas. Hewson's hardware store.

TALKING IT UP

That's not hard to do with our wall papers this season. In the first place, it really speaks for itself, in the second place, it is such good wall paper, has all the points of excellence the decorator and buyer like, and so is easy to become enthusiastic over. We would advise all who need to repaper to do it, for the paper offered is fine and the price is not high.
