Wedding At Nanticoke.

SAUNDERS—WEDRICK

A very pretty and popular wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wedrick in the village of Nanticoke on Wednesday afternoon, the 16th inst., when their youngest daughter Miss Nina Gertrude Wedrick was united in marriage to Mr. William James Saunders, only son of Hugh Saunders, Esq., of Walpole. The beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Church of England was performed by the Rev. T. Herbert Cotton, B. A., Rector of Christ's Church, Nanticoke. At 2.30 o'clock as the wedding march was played by Miss Lenora Allen of Jarvis, the groom entered the drawing room supported by his cousin Mr. W. R. Saunders, B. A., of Waterford, followed by the bride on the arm of her father, and was charmingly arrayed in a wedding gown of white silk, with an overdress of Persian Lawn trimmed with valenciennes lace and ribbons and wearing orange blossoms and maiden hair ferns, and carrying a shower bouquet of bridal roses, also wearing the usual bridal veil. The bride was assisted by her sister Miss Effie Mabel Wedrick, who was very neatly and prettily dressed in a costume of pink silk organdie trimmed with ribbons to match, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Saunders received the congratulations from all the guests which numbered about 40. Then they repaired to the dining room with its prettily decorated tables, with flowers and evergreens. The menu was dainty and most tempting and served in a most pleasing manner. After the delicious viands had been thoroughly enjoyed the happy couple left for Jarvis, amid a shower of rice, where they took the train for Buffalo and other Eastern Cities. The bride was clad in a "going away gown," of French broad cloth of castor shade with toque to match. The room where the large number of presents were displayed was the centre of attraction. They were very handsome, costly and beautiful which testified in a pleasing manner the high esteem in which the bride was held. The groom's gift to the bride was a long gold watch chain set in opals and pearls; his gift to the bridesmaid was a gold brooch set in opal and pearls, and his gift to the groomsmen was a gold pin set with pearls. Among the guests were some from Buffalo, Waterford, Pt. Dover, Bealton and Jarvis, and all join heartily in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Saunders a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

"And when the silent batsman's paw Shall touch the shores of time,
When life's transition bids them go To a more perfect clime.

May faith and love be pure and strong
Aye, fairer than of yore
When hand in hand they pledged their troth,
Till time shall be no more."

In a speech at Birmingham Tuesday Lord Rosebery complained of the complacent spathy of the people of Great Britain. He said they needed to be inoculated with the nervous energy of the Americans. "Be thankful," he added, "was a motto that spelled decay. The nation that was satisfied was lost."

Wedding Setts.

On the 8th inst. a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's brother Mr. Charles Harrison, of the Club House Pt. Pelee, when Miss Emma M. Harrison of Selkirk was united in marriage to Mr. J. F. Hare of the firm of Hare, Beam & Hare. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Shields, pastor of the Baptist Church Leamington. Only a few of the immediate friends and relatives were present. As the wedding march was being played by Miss Lillian Babb of Reading, Penn, the bride charmingly attired in white silk organdie and carrying a bouquet of white carnations and ferns entered the drawing room leaning on the arm of her brother. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Malatt, of Leamington was also dressed in white and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Bruce Harrison of Ridgetown, nephew of the bride. The presents were numerous and costly, the groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful Gerard Heintzman piano, to the bridesmaid a crescent pin set with pearls and turquoise. Mr. and Mrs. Hare left on the evening train for Detroit and Sarnia before returning to their home in the East, the bride being attired in a beautifully tailored gown of green cloth and picture hat of black and white.

Grain shippers state that the scarcity of cars for the delivery of grain threatens to seriously incommode Ontario millers. There are now between 200,000 and 300,000 bushels of Manitoba wheat waiting at lake ports for transport to Ontario millers, many of whom have been obliged to close down their mills for lack of wheat.
