The Jarvis Record

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 4, 1909.

Note and Comment

Jarvis has officers and associations for nearly everything but the prevention of cruelty to animals, and from events of the past week an officer of that kind is badly needed.
Comment is not necessary on the case which figured in the police court, but on Saturday night people who happened to be at the station saw a horse get some very cruel usage at the hands of a driver apparently under the influence of liquor, but at any rate sober enough to realize what he was doing.
The way that horse was lashed with a whip was enough to make one feel like doing the same to the driver, and that he should have been arrested was the opinion of all who witnessed his actions. Such things should not be tolerated in a community of this kind, and we feel that it will not be, where most men who have anything to do with horses are noted for their kindness to the noble beast.

The Tussock moth has made its appearance on the shade trees in Hamilton and it will be just as well to keep an eye open for him even here in Jarvis. The Hamilton parks superintendent has handed out some advice to help in getting rid of the pest. He says the moths are very easy to get rid of if proper methods are adopted. The female has no wings, and comes out of her cocoon during August, and lays a mass of eggs on the cocoon, which she covers with a white, frothylooking substance, and then drops to the ground and dies. These egg masses are quite conspicuous, and can be removed from the trees any time during the winter. This may be done by means of a small wire brush on the end of a long pole, which will reach up among the large branches of the tree.

"Tis strange how co-incidents do occur. In our issue of July 21 we made note of a fact as follows:

"A man came in the other day and ordered some butter paper. He had obtained his last in a nearby place and was not satisfied with it.
It had been very poorly printed, and he had heard so much of The Record's butter paper he wanted to have the best. Little incidents like that go to prove the wisdom of supplying satisfactory goods."

During the following week a paper published in Caledonia had a similar experience which it reported as follows on July 23:

"A man came in the other day and
place and was not satisfied with it.
It had been very poorly printed,
plying satisfactory goods."

Such experiences do not take place often but when they do one is led to believe that wireless telegraphy or teletypewriter of some kind is responsible, and that the society devoted to physical research would do well to become acquainted with the conditions under which such phenomena happen.

Serd the Blind to School

Principal Gardner asks the assistance of The Record in impressing upon the parents and friends of children with defective sight the impossibility of sending such children to the Ontario Institution for the Blind to be educated. The Institution, located at Brantford, and maintained by the Government of Ontario free of charge for board and tuition, is a school for the education of children and youths of both sexes, under the age of twenty one. It is not a hospital, nor an asylum, nor a home, but a school where children, who cannot see well enough to attend Public Schools, are given an English education (including music) and taught to do such useful work as the blind are capable of doing. Such education and training must promote the comfort, happiness and independence of those who are deprived of the blessing of sight, therefore The Record recommends those interested to correspond with H. F. Gardiner, Principal O. I. B. Brantford, in time to complete arrangements before the opening of the next session at the last session of the Legislature.

Rev. Mr. Harwell Writes From Old London

Dear Editor.—Our passage on Empress of Ireland had a few days of fog and sea, a few of sunshine, but all of perfect delight. Our ship skirted the south coast of Ireland giving for a time a splendid view of Erin's green isle and Fastnet lighthouse, and after passing the scene beauty of the north of Wales and Holyhead lighthouse, our pilot sailed us up between eight miles of lighted ships and crowded docks to the great port of Liverpool. Next morning, Saturday, our baggage was rapidly passed through customs and in a short time we were "flying" through the picturesque Derbyshire Peak district, and, pausing a day at Birmingham, took a run out to the interesting scenes of Stratford-on-Avon, through the Bedford Bunyan's and Cowper's country, and some of the most charming scenery in England.

At London, ideal coaching tours are made and the sight-seer can visit at little expense, and to good advantage, the many historic sights of the great metropolis—the Abbey, Houses of Parliament, British and Kensington museums, art galleries, London and Tower bridges, Trafalgar square, St. Paul's cathedral (where an imposing confirmation service was conducted by the Bishop of London the morning we visited it), Royal Exchange, etc., etc.

Of course, we have visited the landmarks and relics of Methodism; among these the Charterhouse school, Wesley's house, tomb and chapel, the Bunhill Field's cemetery. A couple of hours also devoted to visit the Old Curiosity Shop, and other places dear to the readers of Dickens, Dr. Johnson, Oliver Goldsmith, etc.

Learning of the absence of the King and court from Windsor, a delightful day was spent visiting the castle and the state chambers which were open to visitors on signing the register, also viewing from the Round tower the beautiful Thames. Then a visit to Eton chapel and college, and a sail up the Thames to see the regatta at Maidenhead—all beautiful as a dream.

The naval review is being held now, and England's war fleet of 45 ships can be viewed with great interest by the visitor, which we expect to do today.

Tomorrow we leave for Paris, Switzerland and possibly Rome.

With best wishes for the readers of your family paper, I remain, sincerely,

H. J. HARNWELL,
London, July 19.

Lots of Local Option.

Among the important municipalities which have decided within the past few days to enter on local option campaigns looking to a vote on a by-law next New Year's are the following Towns—Brampton, Cincton, Dresden, Dundas and Uxbridge Villages—Alta Craig, Blyth, Bradford, Brudenell, Burlington, Dundalk, Elora, Exeter, Fergus, Grand Valley, Port Perry, Shelburne and Tees-water. Townships—Delaware, Dumfries, South, Dunham, Eastnor, Grey, Harwell, Hilton Lobo, London, Nichol, Oxford North, Pilkington, St. Joseph, Stephen, Tossor-tio, Turnberry, Westmeath and Westminster.

These thirty-six places, added to the two cities, twenty towns, five villages and forty-three townships already announced, make a total of one hundred and six municipalities which have entered upon or will enter upon local option campaigns this season.

Grants to Fairs.

Ottawa, July 30.—The judicial committee of the privy council to-day dismissed with costs the appeal of the Dominion Natural Gas Co. v. Perkins.

About three years ago George Perkins was burned to death and J. H. Collins severely burned in an explosion of natural gas in the roundhouse of the T. H. & B. yards at Hamilton. Action was taken against the Dominion Natural Gas Co. and the railway company, and a jury awarded Collins $7000 for his burns and Mrs. Perkins $3000 for the death of her husband.

The warden of Wentworth county gave instructions to the road superintendent to summon any one who attempted to erect poles for the hydro-electric commission on the county roads, but after a consultation with A. F. Lobb, solicitor for the commission, he announced that the matter had been adjusted and there would be no further objection.

St. KATHARINE BURNED.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 31.— Canadian Canners, Limited, No. 19, which, it would be expected, would be in operation shortly, is this morning a mass of ruins. The factory, which was a large one, was located at the corner of Page and Queenston streets, and for some time preliminary work was being done preparing for the opening. At 4 o'clock this morning, however, flames were seen issuing from the receiving building, a frame structure, west of the main factory, and separated from it by a driveway.

A strenuous fight was put up by the firemen, but they were unable to save the building and at 10 o'clock this morning, although the firemen are still working, what was formerly an important industry giving employment to a large number of operators, lies in ruins. Supt.
Danzie states that $45,000 worth of manufactured goods and about the same amount of cans were in the building. The factory and plant it is thought were worth $30,- 000. The amount of insurance carried could not be ascertained.

Western Fair, London, Sept. 10-18.

THE GREAT LIVE STOCK EXHIBITION.
The management of the Western Fair, London, Ont., are putting forth extra efforts this year to make the exhibition more popular than ever in all the different branches, but to none of them are they giving more attention than to the Live Stock Department. A large amount of money has been added to the Prize List. In the horse classes several changes have been made; sections are added in the Rondster class for "farmers only;" other sections in the High Steppers for Laudens and Four-in-hand, while in Speed events several hundred dollars have been added to the purses.

In the Cattle $500 has been added to the Shorthorn class alone and substantial increases to the other classes. Increases have been made in the Sheep classes and one new class added in the Swine. A third prize in cash has been given to the entire Poultry list beside a fine lot of Specials. The Agricultural and Fruit Departments have been carefully revised and added to where it was thought advisable.
The Ladies' work has received special notice and the Prize List arranged up-to-date. Send for prize list, entry forms and all information to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.
