Tomorrow is Cayuga's Civic holiday. A grand demonstration will be held including a long list of field and aquatic sports. In the evening a musical fete and promenade will be held in the drill hall. Single fare rates have been arranged with the Grand Trunk railway.

There was an abundance of produce on the market this morning, it being one of the best yet. It is understood that more outside buyers will be in attendance than heretofore which will tend to make the buying even brisker than at present which is saying a good deal. It is just possible the housekeepers of the village are not patronizing the market as well as they might which is to their own disadvantage. The stuff does not go begging by any means, but there is no reason why the housewife should not buy direct giving those who come in what advantage there is in selling retail. Don't be afraid of offending the local storekeepers. Every one of them is anxious to see the market a continued success.
