Fort William despatch: first time in the history of Fort William the Riot Act was read by the Mayor and the militia called out. Of the latter there were 120, while thousands of Fort William citizens thronged the streets and heard the Mayor, the Chief of Police and Col. Steele address them, and the reading of the act which proclaimed the district under martial law. It is safe to say that never before were so many people in that district south of the main line of the C. P. R., for from the first crossing off Simpson street to the freight track crossing at the other end the sidewalks and streets were thronged with people so thick that it was hard to elbow a way through them.

Since the trouble at noon comparative quiet obtained-a kind of armed truce, which was not broken by either side— and throughout the afternoon vehicles of all descriptions, from automobiles to delivery rigs, besides hundreds of pedestrians, came to see the seene of the fray. None of them were molested and good order was kept. The number of wounded in this morning's encounter has crept up to over sixteen, which includes two Greeks, George Androuchos, the man who was arrested a few days ago, shot through 'the leg. George was without a weapon, but was one of the spectators. Many are in the hospital and several were attended at their homes by the doctors.

THE MILITARY IN CHARGE. An air of expectancy all the afternoon was evident, as rumors had gone around that the militia had been called out, but it was not until after 8 o'clock that they put in an appearance. They were lined up on Mc-Tavish street from the freight shed crossing, facing both sides of the street, front and rear, and then from a box Mayor Peltier harangued the crowd, explaining that it was owing to them having disregarded his advice and efforts to make a settlement which had made necessary the calling out of the soldiers. He trusted that they would be quiet and orderly, and that there would be no further shooting.

This was interpreted in various languages, the soldiers standing with fixed bayonets, presenting a line of cold steel which looked very formidable.

The Mayor also urged the men to return to work, and all might be satisfactorily settled, and this was translated into the various tongues. The people greeted his remarks with cheers, and then his worship returned to the city hall. The police then cleared the street of all spectators, and the soldiers were left in possession of the field. Groups remained in front of houses.

but by 9.30 p. m. everything was quiet.

BEGINNING OF THE TROUBLE. About 9 o'clock this morning the C. P. R. brought in a large number of special constables, about thirty in all. They were taken first to the C. P. R. station, where they were sworn in. and headed by Mr. Andrews, Chief of the C. P. R. police, started for Colder's. On the C. P. R. bridge were standing about thirty strikers, and they followed the constables down to Hardesty street. At the corner of the C. P. R. sheds an immense crowd gathered, and it was plainly to be seen that they were out for trouble. They stood waiting for half an hour, when finally a bunch of C. P. R. policemen marched out and went across the road to the C. P. R. boarding house, and ther the trouble started. . The men at once declared that they would not let them go back. While the constables were in eating breakfast Ald. Rankin came down and made speech, stating that the C. P. R. were willing to give 20 cents an hour for day work and 25 cents for night work. The strikers would hardly listen at all, and watched the boarding house like hawks. Finally, about 11.30 the constables started to come out, and only two were outside of the door when the shooting started. The first constables to come out were told to go back, and they immediately pulled their revolvers and threatened to One of the strikers in the lead started to raise his stick and threatened to hit him, and the constables at once pulled their revolvers, and then there was a regular fusilade entrance of the freight shed. "Bring rifles' was the cry of the strikers, and about a dozen men sushed into nearby houses and came out same time as the Victorian has not yet Sheltered by the corners been reported.

of the houses they continued the bat-tle and showed no signs of retreating. The men with the rifles were encouraged by their fellow-strikers, and two or three could be seen in a group around a man with a gun, showing him how to shoot. Men were running back and forth in and out of the houses for ammunition, and as fast as it could be brought the shooting continued. The fusilade lasted fifteen minutes, until finally the men stopped shooting and quietness reigned again.

THE CASUALTIES.

The foreign strike leader received a bullet through his arm, while an-other was shot through the groin and is in a serious condition at the hospital. The know wounded are Sergt. Taylor, of the city police, slightly; C. M. Dickenson, of the Times-Journal, slightly; Mr. Ball, of the C. P. R. police, seriously wounded in the abdomen; Carpenter, C. P. R. constable, knee badly smashed; Williamson C. P. R. constable. slightly: two strikers, Greeks, names unknown; John Lane, butcher at the coal docks, forehead grazed by a bullet, only slightly injured. Five of six otners, names unknown.

TROOPS CALLED OUT.

The 96th Regiment was called out for duty, and was on the scene shortly after noon. Mayor Reid read the riot act and martial law reigns in the dis-

When the militia began to appear this afternoon the strikers, or rather the mob, made the threat that if the militia appeared every policeman on the city force would be shot, and further, that if the man who was sent to jail this afternoon was not released every city official would be murdered. It is also reliably reported that a well-known Italian has lately made the threat that when the coal dock section saw fit to take the affairs of the city into its hands the life of the chief of police would not be worth a cent.

C. P. R. officials notified the Mayor that they would now fight the strike out to the bitter end. No peace will be considered which provides that the Greeks be given employment of any sort. The C. P. R. is done with Greeks. They were, it is charged, the instigators of the strike; the strikers would not listen to reason; the men who absolutely refused to pay any attention to the police or any city official, and the ringleaders of the rioting which resulted in martial law being proclaimed.

For some time things have been threatening among the foreigners who constitute the freight handlers. It has been freely stated there are 300 Mauser rifles in these lawless hands, and threats were openely made on the appearance of work. the militia that several prominent officials, including the chief of police, would be murdered, this last being attributed to a well known Italian agitator. The temper of these people is well known, as also the fact that they are well armed, to the local police. The police arrested a strike picket two days ago, after a miniature riot, and found, as expected, that he had an automatic Colt pistol. He was released on paying $50. The feature of the arrest was that every man in the crowd was believed to be armed, but no further arrests were ating last. In a pitched battle between police and strikers about the noon hour some ten men were wounded. At first it was thought that many of the wounds were serious, and that some of them would be fatal, while reports were sent around that there had been deaths, but a survey of the situation in the quiet of this evening shows that there have been no deaths, and there are not likely to be, for only one injury at all serious was reported. It is that received by Constable Ball, of the C. P. R. force, who was the central figure in the outbreak of the riot. The constable received a bullet in the abdomen, the first fired in the riot, but it is stated from the hospital this evening that he will survive unless complications set in, and that he is making good progress. CALL FOR THE MILITIA. Immediately following the outbreak of the riot this afternoon, Mayor Pelletier, with Justices of the Peace P. McKellar and G. W. Brown, issued the call for the militia. Then Mayor Peiletier went to the docks and read the riot act. At that time the battle had subsided and there was comparative quiet. Before a chance was given for a renewal the redcoats were on the scene, and order has prevailed ever since. Colonel Steele, district officer commanding, who was in the city for an inspection of the Ninety-Sixth Regiment, took charge, with Colonel Laurie and a complete patrol system is in effect about the docks tonight. Two hundred mounted militiamen are coming from Winnipeg, and are expected to arrive about 3 a. m. They will relieve the local corps, and the strikers will find the property of the company, which they have been threatening all week, well guarded to-morrow

Soldiers Marching Column in Britain Suffers Severely.

London, Aug. 16.-Ninety-eight men of the 10th Battalion were marching along a road at 4.30 o'clock in a rather heavy mist, when a motor van belonging to a London newspaper came along from the rear. Most of the soldiers were singing, and therefore did not hear its approach. The men in the rear ranks. however, heard the warning and parted to right and left to let it pass, while the men in the centre of the column continued to sing.

The car, which was travelling at a high rate of speed, rushed into the midst of their ranks, hurling the men in all directions. When it was half-way through the column it was stopped and seized by the infuriated soldiers. The latest report is that ten men were seriously injured, but that no one was

RECORD FLIGHT.

Beat the Ten Mile Flight Made by Wright Eros.

Minecla, L. I., Aug. 16.—What is said to be a record for cross country distance flight for an aeroplane in this country was made by C. Foster Williard in the Golden Flyer to-day, when he covered 12 miles in 191/2 minutes. This exceeds the ten-mile flight made by the Wright brothers' aeroplane from Fort Myer to Alexandria and back several weeks ago. Much longer flights within a short circle, however, have been made by the Wrights and longer cross country flights have been made abroad.

Mr. Williard, who has been making short flights almost daily in the ma-world's record cross country flight. His route lay around the irregular square having four sides and carried him from Mineola over Garden City, Westbury and Hicksville, and back to Mineola, a distance of fourteen miles. Leaving Minecia, where a number of friends gathered to watch his flight, Williard sent the machine about 150 feet in the air and going off at a fast elip his machine was quickly a speek on the horizon. Soon it disappeared behind the trees, and for nearly ten minutes the What a Delegate Says of the Home watchers waited expectantly for fear of an accident, but hopeful for the aviator's success.

Nearly fifteen minutes had elapsed when the speck again appeared miles away in the direction of Westbury. It was growing larger every minute, and the watchers were preparing to con-gratulate Mr. William when the machine began to giide slowly downward and then landed in a field between Mineola and Westbury, about two miles from Mineola. Jumping into an automobile the watchehs found Williard's machine undamaged by the landing and with the aviator tinkering with the magneto. That part of the mechanism which provides the spark for the ignition of the gas was deranged, but Williard said the aeroplane glided easily to the ground and alighted without a mishap after the power was shut off.

The machine was returned to Mineola. where the trouble with the magneto could be remedied.
