Winger wet day the township was fairly was again chosen President, A. M. Williamson, Secretary and James Hodges, Treasurer. Township matterg were discussed at length and particularly the road question. The dominant opinion of those present seemed to be, that the obsolete system of statute labor be tabooed and a modern plan be introduced. Many townships having adopted a new plan are now getting permanent roads, and we could have our roads made permanently good if two or the Exchange Hotel, Jarvis, from three up-to-date men were elected
