Every One Alike

Like two peas in one pod so is the sack of flour sold here. It's exactly like the one you bought before.

Buy three sacks of

Flour at Xmas time

and use one after the other and you'll say each one is the best. There's "goodness" and "freshness" and we guarantee

Flour Sold Here Always Runs High.

R. W. SMITH

Hagersville.

Xmas Fair was one to be long remembered. The town was thronged with people from morning till night. Although the exhibits were good, the display of fowl was not as large as of former years. Turkeys were in great demand at 21c to 25c per lb. It required over fifteen rigs to convey the produce to Hamilton, for which amount nearly $10,000 was paid.

At a special meeting of the Public School Board on Tuesday night of last week the resignation of C. R. Eaid was accepted. Although very sorry to lose Mr. Eaid we are pleased to learn that he has obtained a much better position, and are fully aware that our loss will be another's gain.

Miss Flo. Cline spent the holidays with friends in Tillsonburg.

Some sneak thieves entered the store of J. H. Hager sometime Sunday night, and raided the store and post office. They made away with little cash and two overcoats, one a coon skin and the other a fur lined. As yet no arrests have been made but we feel assured that it was someone who has known our constable was in jail.

In Wishing My Customers A

Happy & Prosperous Year

I MAY JUST SAY—That having been put to a great deal of inconvenience and worry over long credit accounts, I had intended to commence business in the New Year on a strictly cash system, but for the convenience of good customers who are sometimes a little short of cash but always punctual in paying I have relented. Having marked goods as low as possible for cash or short credit. I may just add that those letting accounts run past time will be charged interest on same, as it is altogether unfair to charge the same to those paying cash as others who let accounts run a year or more.

Trusting this may be satisfactory,
Yours in good faith,

T. W. BEAMISH
