Rabies Developed

Stratford, Ont., June 29.—A remarkable and somewhat alarming story comes from Downie township in connection with a number of animals owned by William Peake, husband of the late Mrs. Mary Peake the victim of Frank Roughmond who yesterday paid the penalty with his life in the county jail yard. The details of the strange story are vouched for by neighbors, and there can be no doubt of their authenticity. About the end of April or the first of May last the Peake farm dog, in common with a number of other canines, was bitten by a mad dog of the neighborhood. The Peake dog soon developed all the symptoms of madness or rabies and died in agony about a month later. Some ten days ago one of the cows went violently mad on the same farm and died on Saturday, June 17. After a week of immunity from further outbreaks, a steer suddenly went mad yesterday. It is understood that Mr. Peake was knocked down and trampled on by the maddened brute before steps could be taken to end its life. Young George Peake, the son, was bitten by the dog prior to its death, but as yet has experienced no ill effects, although he has been advised to go to the Pasteur Institute by the local physicians. The neighborhood is naturally much alarmed at the remarkable series of outbreaks and steps will be taken by the authorities to prevent any further developments.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott.

July 11th, 1909.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey—The Philippian Jailer. Acts xvi: 16-40.

Golden Text—Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. Acts xvi:31.

Verses 16 21—In what class do you place those who profit by the sins of fallen women?

This young woman was possessed with a very clever spirit of evil, an all round spirit of deception, including fortune telling: now wherein did her sin consist, and that of her owners?

Which are the more to be blamed in these days, fortune tellers or their willing dupes?

When bad men are losing the gains of their evil occupation, are they apt to be careful of the truth, when they are after the good men who have destroyed their business? For example the liquor dealers.

Verse 22—What made the multitude so angry at Paul and Silas, and is any reliance ever placed upon the excited attitude of a large crowd?

Do religious differences still make the people hate one another?

Does worldly gain, today play any part in religious intolerance?

Verse 23—Why did God permit such cruelty to his faithful servants?

Why is it that godly people often have to go through very exquisite suffering?

Verse 24—Say why is it possible for any good man in prison, lying upon a raw back, with his feet fast in the stocks, to be as happy as a man in health and at liberty?

Does a man's influence cease when he is imprisoned and his limbs are fettered?

In looking back over the results of his imprisonment, would Paul and Silas be apt to regret this painful incident?

Verse 25—Is there any circumstance so painful, or disastrous that prayer and praise cannot turn it into joy and victory?

If we prayed and sang more in our private lives, and in our families, would we have more joy and gladness?

Verse 26—Was this earthquake the result of the prayer of Paul and Silas, or was it a natural event?

Does God today work out for his people, practically the same results as here recorded?

Verses 27, 28—Why did the jailer decide upon suicide, and is such a course ever justifiable?

Verses 29, 30—Was it natural fear or religious conviction, that now operated in the jailer?

What did the jailer desire to be saved from?

Verse 31—What precisely did they mean by believing on the Lord Jesus?

May a father or mother believe in Jesus, so as to assure the salvation of their children? (This question is to be answered in writing by members of the club.

Verse 32—What is "the word of the Lord" and may a person know that word, first hand, who is not personally acquainted with the Lord?

Verses 33, 34—Can the grace of God suddenly turn a cruel and brutal man, into a tender-hearted Christian?

Verses 35 40—May we be confident that there will always be a happy ending to all our trials?

Camp Niagara Stirs Canada's Military Spirit

(Too late for last week.)

Rustic and beautiful Niagara had abandoned her tranquility for pomp and display of the military. With four thousand of the militia of eastern Ontario within her bounds, the historic old town presents the aspect of an embattled frontier city. For the first three days, the citizen soldiers were coming by train and overland and Thursday night, June 17, found almost the entire strength of the camp in the tented city.

This year's was not as pretentious a camp as some that have pitched at Niagara, but in splendor and enthusiasm it bid fair to maintain the highest standard of excellence so long established on the Niagara training grounds.

During the last few years strenuous efforts have been made to deprive Niagara of her annual camp for some other part of the country. The militia authorities believed the camping grounds on the bank of the Niagara river to be inadequate, but the advocates of the site have fought for its retention; and while they lost some advantages, they have at least the pleasure and assurance that Niagara is not to be abandoned entirely.

Members of the militia from all parts of Ontario were in camp at Niagara last year, a total strength of six thousand men. To be sure, there was no waste space with this body in the field. As to the effects of this apparent lack of room, opinion has been divided—some holding that there was no cramping, while others contended that the need of greater field space was imperative.

The Herculean task of preparing the camp was at last completed and there was by then scarcely a semblance of disorder, and no apprehension about the health of the camp.

Stringent regulations were adopted regarding the liquor traffic, and orders were sent forth that the importation of intoxicants was forbidden. Even the bringing of a "flask" was met with severe punishment. On account of the orders barring intoxicants, a number of temperance workers in town concluded that ice cream was on call and many places stocked up with that delicacy.

Gen. Cotton, who was in command at Niagara camp, looked for fine results from this year's camp and I guess he got it.

The soldiers anticipated their trip to the American side. Hundreds invaded Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y., and also the fort and barracks at Fort George and Youngstown.

This year's trip to camp at Niagara will be long remembered by the boys of the 37th Haldimand Rifles. Our motto, "Remember the 37th," and don't disgrace it because we won the glory. H

Peter Isaac, a full-blooded Indian, did a very remarkable Longboat stunt at a sporting main held by the Woodstock Amateur Athletic Association last Wednesday evening. Isaac worked all day digging a ditch for the farmer by whom he is employed at Golspie, and at six o'clock he quit work, put his running suit in a parcel, walked more than five miles to Woodstock, went into the five mile race and won it from a field of five competitors, in twenty-eight minutes. He lead all the way, taking things easy. Then he walked home again with his prize, a gold ring. He said after his performance that he was not in the least tired. Many are of the opinion that much might be made of Isaac as a runner if he were put in proper hands for training.

Newsy Miscellany

The 22nd Oxford regiment spent Dominion day at Port Dover.

The amount of revenue received by the provincial government from fisheries inspectors on Lake Erie and the Grand river during the year 1908 was $25,602.20.

The opening ceremonies in connection with the new band stand at Port Dover took place Tuesday night of last week. The evening's entertainment was somewhat marred by the disorderliness of some of the local youths.

The first shipment of Ontario strawberries from St. Catharines arrived in Winnipeg Friday in good condition, and were readily sold. The quality deteriorated rapidly after the car was opened. The thermograph which had been installed by the Dominion government did not work.

By a vote of 303 to 9 the ratepayers approved of the provincial gas company's franchise for the town of Welland. The company must not exceed the following prices:—First five years, 30 cents per 1000 feet; second five years 40 cents; next ten years, 50 cents. The provincial company is negotiating for the purchase of the Mutual's plant.

Wednesday afternoon while walking westward on the C.P.R. tracks, Samuel Sipes, of Galt, saw a meteor fall to the ground about half a mile away. He describes it as being a red ball of fire with a long tail of the same color. Thursday evening two balloons passed over the centre of the town, the first one at 8.10 and the second at 9 o'clock. The latter was lighted and could be seen very plainly. Both balloons were travelling in a south easterly direction.

George Stenabaugh, Winona, 16 years of age, appeared before the police magistrate at Hamilton on a charge of stealing 17 quail eggs from a nest. He and three other lads stole the eggs and blew them, and Game Inspector Kerr recovered four of the shells. The lad was allowed to go with a warning, the magistrate recognising that robbing birds' nest is a strong temptation to the average boy. But the next offender will be severely dealt with.
