Mrs. C. G. Allen met with a somewhat serious accident on Saturday. As she opened the oven door of the gas range, which was being used for baking at the time, the gas in some way exploded burning her rather severely about the face and head.

Percy E. Armstrong yesterday, June 1, took over the butcher business of his brother, P. W. Armstrong, and will run it in future. Mr. Armstrong has had considerable experience in the business and his patrons are assured of first-class purveying.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Roberts, after spending a fortnight with the former's parents and relatives and friends in this neighborhood, left Tuesday morning for Toronto en route for Purpleville where they will make a week's visit at Mrs. Roberts' parental home before Mr. Roberts resumes his duties at the union station post office, Toronto.

The Adult Bible class concert and social held in the Methodist school room Monday evening, was a decided success. The entertainment was very suitable to the occasion. The "old men's" quartet was a special feature and enjoyed by everyone as were the other selections of the evening. Joseph Ivey, president of the class, was chairman. The church was neatly decorated with the Bible class colors. The proceeds amounted to $18.05.

The Market A Winner

If there was any doubt in the mind of anybody, a visit to the village this morning would have dispelled such an idea completely.

The market is off with a splendid start—in fact, this morning's turnout augurs well for permanent success. There were altogether over fifty rigs in especially to sell on the market. Good prices prevailed and there were plenty of buyers.

Both the business men's association and those in attendance are highly gratified with the initial day's success, and next Wednesday will see a larger attendance still.

Two Sudden Deaths

Mrs. John Lindsay

After an illness lasting for only a couple of days death came very suddenly to Mrs. John Lindsay, of Walpole township, on Sunday last. Mrs. Lindsay, whose maiden name was Caroline Edsall, was in her fortieth year, and besides a sorrowing husband, leaves a family of three children; also three brothers, Charles, Peter and William Edsall, all of Walpole, and four sisters, Mrs. Albert Evans, of Simcoe, Mrs. (Dr.) Shaw, of Port Dover, Mrs. John Johnson, Walpole, and Mrs. Samuel Webb, of Hamilton.

The funeral was held yesterday at two p. m. to the Methodist church, Nanticoke, for service and interment, and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Catchpole, of Seikirk, conducted the services, and the following acted as pallbearers: Charles and Peter Edsall, brothers, and Marshall, Fred, Herbert and J. B. Lindsay, brothers-in-law.

William C. Hanes

Just a little over two weeks ago, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Bessie B. Wass, daughter of Rev. R. Wass, of Ridgeway, a former Methodist pastor here, to Mr. William C. Hanes, of Ottawa, the marriage to take place this month. On Friday last, Mr. Hanes, who was in the drug business in Ottawa, died suddenly. He was 26 years old. The funeral took place on Monday from the family residence, 151 Beverly street, Toronto, to Mount Pleasant cemetery and was in charge of King Solomon Masonic lodge, of Toronto. Deceased was a graduate of the Ontario College of Pharmacy. As a student he was exceptionally brilliant, passing all his examinations with honors. His marriage was to have taken place next Wednesday.
