Heroes of Faith. Hob. xi: 1-40. Golden Text.-Faith is the subtance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Heb. x1:

Verses 1-3-In what respects are faith and hope similar?

If a desirable thing is possessed similar, satisfaction, as the possession of the thing itself!

What is the ground of our faith, hat "the worlds were framed by the word of God"?

Why do we admire the men of faith of past years?

Verses 4, 5—Abel had a truly reigious nature; now was this nature the result of his faith, or was his faith the result of his nature?

Does this record mean that Enoch's translation was directly saused by a specie act of faith, or that his general life of faith made him such a good man that God translated him without death?

Verse 6 - Faith is sometimes another occasion. esed upon outward evidence: sometimes upon personal revelation: sometimes upon intuition, and sometimes upon composite grounds; what moral or spiritual qualties, therefore, are necessary for becoming a man of faith? This question must be answered in writing by members or the club.

Why is faith necessary in order to please God?

Verse 7. - What was Noah's faith based upon, and wherein was his faith meritorious!

Verses 8-10-What was the difference, if any, between Abraham's faith and that of the Pilgrim fathers, when they left the old country for the American land of pro-

Mr. Thomas Wylie (Box 334), Calt. says:-"It was the luckiest day of my life. when I struck PSYCHINE, for I truly believe I shouldn't be alive now but for that "A neglected cold was the beginning of my trouble, and what se med to be a simple ailment, soon developed into a seridus and danger ous condition. I got so low that it was scarcely possible for me to walk around, and I lost so much flesh that I looked like a skeleton. I was just about ready to 'hand in my checks,' although only 20 years of age. The medicine the doctor gave me made me worse and I got disgusted. Then I struck PSYCHINE."
"PSYCHINE did maracles for me. The first bottle gave me new life and cour ge, and in less than no time I began to put on fleshrapidly, and I felt I was on the high road to recovery. My appetite returned, and I te like a hunter," as the saying goes My friends were surprised, and hardly inew me. In three months I was as strong and well as ever, and returned to work in the mill. I have not had a day's illness since. Nobody could wish for bester health than I enjoy, and it is all owing to PSY-CHINE. It should be in everybody's performed by young Roy Dennis at Cheapside on the evening of May 26. About 9 o'clock, the villagers were suddenly alarmed by the clamorous ringing of the town bell. It was discovered that a sky rocket had descended and begun a work of destruction on the roof of Dr. Sherk's barn. In a short time about fifty gathered, forming a bucket brigade, and the fire was soon extinguished. Fortunately the accident happened early and very little damage was done. Had it not been for the timely arrival of by faith, does that give as much, or Roy Dennis, however, the barn would have been burned to the ground. The lad, who was one of the first to arrive on the scene, hastily climbed a nearby tree, and made use of an overhanging branch to swing himself out some 20 feet on the burning building. He received burns about the hands when tearing loose the burning shingles, but managed to get possession of the lighted rocket, thus removing the fire's origin. In the pouring on of water the roof became slippery,
