Extensive arrangements are being made for the celebration here on the 12th. Already over eight hundred Orangemen have promised to be present. A number of bands are to be in attendance and with numerous other attractions this promises to be a gala day for Hagersville.

Miss Stella Harris and Miss Little of Waterford spent Sunday at I. J. Lindsay.

Mr. Goldberg is tearing down his residence this week and intends putting up a much larger one in the same place.

The work on Roy Simons residence is coming along quite rapidly and already presents quite an appearance.

Dr. Morgan Miller of Selkirk has commenced work on his houses. These will be ready for renting in a few months and will fill a long felt want which has been needed for some time.

As the season advances the attendance at market increases. Last week prices remained firm, 19 and 20c being realized for eggs and butter.

Ralph Lindsay and Miss Florence Jones passed through town to-night.

Western Fair, London.

September 10th to 13th

The Management of the Western Fair, London, Ontario, have just issued their 1909 Prize List. It is a very neat and attractive book and contains a number of important changes. A large number of new sections have been added and increases made in several departments. Especially is this the case in the Cattle and Live Stock classes, and there will no doubt be the largest exhibition this year ever held in London. Stockmen who have not previously exhibited at London should send for a Prize List and prepare their stock for this splendid exhibition.

Prize Lists, Entry Forms and all necessary information will be promptly given on application to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.
