The Cook's
Delight

With a sack of SUN-
BREAD you will be able to do your own baking and how much better things will you get.

Sunshine bakes more good loaves to flour per sack than any other. Bakes bread that stays moist and sweet, bakes biscuits that mother in her palmiest days could not equal.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Notice to Creditors Of Alexander Edsall, Deceased.

Pursuant to Chapter 129, R. S. O. 1897 and amending Acts, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of Alexander Edsall, who died in the Township of Walpole in the County of Haldimand, on or about the twenty-first day of August, 1908, in testate, are, on or before the 6th Day of November, 1909, to deliver or send by post, prepaid, to J. V. Murdoch, Jarvis, Ont., acting for the Administratrix of the said deceased, particulars of their claims and statements of their accounts duly verified, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them. That after the said mentioned date the Administratrix will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to claims of which she then will have notice, and she will not be liable for the assets or any part thereof, to any person or persons of whose claim she shall not have notice at the time of such distribution.

ISABEL SILVERTHORN, Administratrix.
By J. V. MURDOCH.
Dated at Jarvis this 13th day of October, 1909.

Notice to Creditors

IN THE MATTER of the Estate of John Stadler late of the Township of Walpole in the County of Haldimand, Gentleman, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Ontario 1897, Chapter 129, Section 28 and Amending Acts that all persons having claims against the Estate of the said John Stadler who died on or about the 19th day of September, A. D. 1909, are required to send by post, prepaid or to deliver to Lee & Farmer, Solicitors for the Executors, on or before the Twentieth day of November, 1909, their names, addresses and descriptions and a full statement of particulars of their claims and the nature of securities (if any) held by them duly certified, and that after the said day the executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have notice.

LEE & FARMER, Solicitors for the Executors of said John Stadler, deceased, Canada Life Building, Hamilton, Ont.

Marburg

This must be Indian Summer. Hope it continues a while. Our Sunday school closed on the thirty-first for this year. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hewson visited at Garnet on Sunday. Roger Gundry has bought a dandy new horse.

Everyone seems to be on the move. John R. Butler has gone to his new home near Simcoe.

Will Watson has gone on Butler's place and R. Dooger on Watson's place.

C. W. Challand is moving to Ren-ton also.

The young people have started singing school again under the leadership of Mr. Jacques. They have about forty members.

Willis Porter is home from the West.

Sidney McBride has built a new blacksmith shop.

Mrs. S. McBride visited relatives in Hagersville Sunday.

George Cruise's new house is about completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Awford spent Wednesday in Hagersville.

George Awford and Will Smith killed another beef on Saturday. Marburg is a great place for business.

We understand Will does not go across the fields any more. Perhaps he got afraid of the dog.

The tax gatherer has been around these parts looking up the money.

Our cheese factory stopped making cheese the last of the month. Will make butter the rest of the season.

Frank Lemon is building a new house.

Cheapside.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Beck spent Sunday at Wm. Brown's.

Miss Pearl Macdonald spent Sunday at Eli Murphy's.

Mrs. Joe Wesner and son Jesse have returned to their home in Ind. after spending the summer here.

Mrs. F. Battenham and daughter, Mrs. W. Adams of Hamilton, spent a few days at the former's brother's, D. MacDonald.

The Selkirk Rifle Association held their first annual prize meeting on the range at Peacock Point on Thursday, Oct. 28th, but owing to the high east wind the scores were not up to the average.

Joe Cronk was successful in capturing first prize at a score of 77, D. MacDonald, second at a score of 76 and M. Deal third at a score of 75.

W. O. Hamilton was to have been appointed to attend target A but arrived too late.

Hagersville.

Chas. Brown, who has been in the employ of Henning and Dixon for the past five years, purchased the grocery business of them and took full possession last week. We wish him every success in his new enterprise.

Miss Jessie Henderson of Nanticoke is forming a violin class in Hagersville and will be in town on Wednesday of each week.

The pranks of the small boy was quite visible on Sunday morning as napkins of all descriptions made quite a display on the Main Streets.

Messrs. W. E. Elmore Co. will hold a public meeting in the Opera House on Wednesday, eve, Nov. 3rd when addresses will be given on Barle, Cuba, by a number of prominent speakers.

Mrs. McCarter after spending the past few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Evans, returned to her home on Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. Robt. Miller, nee Margaret Gilbertson, were greatly shocked to learn of her death, which took place at her father's residence on Saturday afternoon. She apparently seemed to enjoy better health the last year or so, but was taken suddenly with a bad spell on Wednesday evening from which she never recovered. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon to the Hagersville cemetery, followed by a large concourse of friends, who have the sympathy of the whole community.

Sandusk.

Miss Maud Evans of Hagersville spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Mrs. T. Westerby spent a few days in Nanticoke last week.

John Evans had the misfortune to fall out of an apple tree on Friday and got very badly bruised.

Francis Evans of Port Ryerse spent Saturday in this burg.

The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Jas. Bush on Nov. 5th. The Cheapside Institute is expected to attend.

Misses Maud and Annie Westerby spent Monday the guests of Miss Florence Keen.

Mrs. J. H. Pretty spent Sunday with her parents at Port Rowan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Hicks returned to their home in Niagara Falls after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Athl-son.
