LESSON IX .- NOV. 28, 1909.

Paul on Self-Cenial (World's Tanserance Lesson,-Rom. :4: 10-21.

Commentary .- I. Our duty to others (vs. 10-15).—Difficult problems were confronting the early church. The questions of meats and drinks and the oby servance of days were nearly fending the church. In the first part of the chapter Paul exhorts them to have Christian charity one for the other. The only true solution must spring from the law of love. 10. Why dost thou judge-Why dost thou, Christian Jew, observing the Mosaic rites, "judge or condemn thy Gentile brother who does not observe them; or why dost thou, Christian Gentile, "set at nought," or despise, thy Jewish brother? Shall all stand, etc.-God and not man is our judge; we are accountable to him for our conduct. 11. It is written-In Isaiah

Every one of us—The high, as s the low, the rich as well as the poor, the learned as well as the ignorthe Jew as well as the Gentile. Shall give account-Of his own spiritual life and not of the weaknesses and failares of others. In view of this, why all this contradicting censuring, clashing, contending and criticizing among Christians? We must give an account of how we spend our time, talents and opportunities. 13. Let us not judge-Judgment belongeth unto the Lord. Do not usurp His prerogative by passing judgment these non-essentials. Let us allow to our brethren the same liberty we demand for ourselves. Judge this rather-Instead of censuring our brethren let us turn the judgment upon ourselves, search our own hearts and be careful about our own conduct and influence. A stumblingblock-Any cause of stumbling, or anything that will lead a brother to fall into sin. We should avoid those things that would have a tendency to discourage, hinder, mislead or prejudice any Christian (Matt. 18. 7: Luke 17. 1; 1 Cor. 10. 32).

14. I know-By the light of his own understanding. Persuaded by the Lord Jesus-Assured by a particular revelation from him.—Benson. Nothing un-clean of itself.—No kind of meat is essentially wrong or unlawful under the gospel dispensation. To him that esteemth-Who in his conscience looks upon it as wrong. To him it is unclean-He may be mistaken in his conception of duty, but it is wrong for him to violate his own sense of duty. The conscience is the arbiter of personal and individual duty. If a man goes against his own conscience, he is doing wrong; for to do what one thinks to be wrong has the same effect as though it were wrong, since he yields in heart to consent to do evil. 15. Brother be grieved-Thy weak fellow-Christian be injured or hurt, so as to stumble in his conduct. Thou walkest no longer in love (R. V.)-The law of love forbids the doing of snything that would injure myself or others. Intemperance leads to the exact opposite of this. It causes men to break every commandment, and to work of every kind to his neighbor. Desyour rash and uncharitable conduct, the occasion of your brother's sin and condemnation. II. Our duty to God (vs. 16-18). 16. Let not then your good-Your Christian liberty and independence in Christ. Be evil spoken of-Be misunderstood, so that you will be blamed if your fellow-Christians be led astray by your lack of love for them. 17. Kingdom of God -True, pure and undefiled religion; siled the kingdom of God, in distinction earthly empires and confederations also the legal dispensation of Moses. Not meat and drink-It does not consist in the observance of certain outward rites and religious ceremonies. But righteousness-Pardon of sin, and holiness of heart and life; uprightness, integrity. Peace—Both with God and man. Joy—That which is unspeakable and full of glory-part of the fruit of or misery in it. 18. In these things-The Jew and the Gentile who have these principles of the kingdom in them. Serveth Christ-Lives in obedience to Christ's commands, and takes such a course as is well-pleasing to him. Acceptable to God-Our first and highest duty is to please God. Approved of men-Of all wise, honest and good men.

the Spirit. The kingdom of God consists of the enthronement of these pure principles in the heart. It has no sin, strife tentions about non-essentials, and insist on the essentials of Christianity. This, however, often involves what many call the "little things." Edify another— vant? To his own master he standeth Encourage and aid those things which build up Christian character. Intemperance does the exact opposite of this. It destroys good morals, social standing, the home, happiness, character, the soul, The law of love forbids the use of intoxicating liquor, forbids its sale to others, and will not permit us to assist those fersons who sell liquor to others. either by leading them money, by renting our buildings to them, or in any way giving them our support and showing them favor. 20. For meat-A small and trifling matter. Destroy not the work-The work of faith in the hearts of men is God's work (Eph. 2: 10). All about which they disagreed are lawful, sels of the hearts" (1 Cor. 4. 5). Forbut "the man who either eats contrary to his own conscience, or so as to grieve and hinder another, does an evil act." 21. It is good-Honorable, noble, worthy. Self-denial for the good of others is one of the noblest of virtues. Whereby thy brother stumbleth-Nothing should be done that would cause another to fall. Temperance Instruction.-The salcon is the greatest curse of modern civilization. Like a huge octopus it stretches forth its tentacles in al Idirection, entwining, corrupting and destroying every institution it encounters. It respects neither the high nor the low, the rich nor the poor. It seeks the homes as its prey. It delights to tear the parents from the children and the husband from the wife, filling the divorce courts | and turning what should be a most sac-red and delightful institution into a lit-

FOR RUN-DOWN PEOPLE Your blood has become thin and weak in upon your system the past few monthshas been very great. You are consequently feeling "all out of sorts" and "run down." Your appetite is bad and you hardly have enough energy left to do your daily duties. You should take PSYCHINE, the greatest of Tonics, with out delay. This will put you on your feet fills our insane asylums, reformatories, and penitentiaries, and then goes abroad seeking new victime.

The poverty and waste left in the trail of the saloon are worse than the destruction of a thousand tornadoes. Careful computation shows that our annual lrink bill, which now exceeds two bilion dollars, would more than buy the five great cereal crops of our entire nation—the corn, wheat, oats, rve and barley crops. And yet this wealth is worse than wasted. The poverty of the slums, as well as most if our police court and prison expenses, are directly due to the liquor traffic. Furthermore, the saloon has so corrupted our body politic, has been so law defying and anarchistic, and has until recently so held the politicians under its lash that few sections of our country have escaped its demoralizing influence on law and order.

And lastly, drink ruins that which is worth more than the wealth of the world the souls of men. It takes a creature made in the image of God and so deprives him of reason, so hardens his conscience, perverts his moral sense and enslaves him with appetites that he loses all power to live a respectable life and sinks to a level lower than the brute.

Often have I seen men in their right minds enter a saloon and after "filling up" for thirty minutes come out half drunk, boisterous, with their reason taken away, obscene and ready for any crime. After looking on such scenes I (3 John 9). We are to judge the words sible that a nation which calls itself civilized, not to say Christian, can give its sanction and protection to such a cesspoll of iniquity? How can we punish men for crime and yet license the institution that makes them criminals?

Happily, the day of saloon domination is ending. Its manifold evils have beword, by example and by the ballot aid Statistics Monthly. in its desrtuction.-B. L. O.

Questions.-By whom and was this epistle written? Where, when, why was it written? By whom was it sent to Rome? What discussion was going on in the church at Rome? In what were they to have charity? What does the law of love forbid? How is God's work sometimes destroyed? How can we "edify another?" Show that intemperance does not exact opposite of this. Who enjoys peace of conscience?

PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS.

Temperance in All Things.

I. Individual esponsibility. "Each to God" (v. 12). Each one of us must dapted for dairying. Then will naturally believe for himself. Each one of us must has not yet appealed to all owners of die by himself. The pronouns of the dairy herds, but is in truth at the Bible are empahtic. "Ye must be born very foundation of profitable dairying. again" (John 3:7). "Work out your Every farmer is interested in cutting own salvation with fear and trembling" out all unprofitable features of his bus-(Matt. 5.48). Consider "thyself lest good milk at the least cost, and to this thou also be tempted" (Gal. 6:1). "Each end dairy records are indespensable. to God." A gentleman used to say to watchful owner to detect those cows that his wife, "Mary, go to church and pray give the most milk and fat in proporfor both." But one night the man dreamed that he and his wife stood at | will respond to a little extra grain? the gate of heaven. A voice said, "Mary, Which cow can I least afford to sell? go in for both." He awoke, and sought Are any in my herd not paying? Will it a personal preparation for heaven.

II. Judgment. "Let us not, therefore, judge one another any more" (v. 13). III. Various admonitions (vs. 19-21).

19. Follow..... peace—Put away contact that judgest another?" (v. 4; Jas. 4: 12). Are you infallible? Is there no possibility that you are mistaken? "Who art thou that judgest another man's seror falleth" (v. 4). Because I judge an act of another's wrong, does not make it wrong. He whom I judge may be "acceptable to God" and worthy of my approval (v. 18). 2. Judging is presumption. "Why dost stand before the judgment seat of Christ's (v. 10). Judging is Christ's work, not ours, We usurp His prerogative when we judge another to be staff in each townshi pin addition to our regular crop correspondents:

Fall Wheat—663,375 acres violed to the staff of the tive when we judge another to be bigoted, or wrong, or wicked because he differs from us in the non-essentials in which each is commanded to "be fully persuaded in his own mind" (v. 5). We are forbidden to judge the motives sels of the hearts" (1 Cor. 4. 5). Forbidden to judge "according to appearances" (John 7. 24). Forbidden to judge one another for not keeping Jew-ish ordinances (Col. 2. 16). Forbidden to judge others as regards eating or dringing or service (vs.3, 4). We are to judge sinful deeds, as Paul did the fornicators of Corinth (1 Cor. 5. 3), as Peter judged Ananias and Sapphira bush., or 16.6 per acre, as compared (Acts 5. 3), as John judged Diotrephes (3 John 9) .We are to judge the words of professed teachers (1 Cor. 10. 15), to is good" (1 Thess. 5. 21). Above all we are to "judge ourselves" (1 Cor. 11. 31) as to words and deeds and motives.

III. Walk in love. "If because of meat thy brother is grieved ,thou walkest no longer in love" (v. 15). Love not only "thinketh no evil" (1 Cor. 13. 5), but love worketh no ill" (13. 10). Love is not only quick to discern good, and slow stinence for the sake of others is "good," fair, and beautiful, and moral-ly right because it is according to the law of love. "Destroy not him.... for destroy not the work of God" (v. 20). A Sunday school superintendent went to the theatre. Afterward, learning that a member of his school was ill, he called to see him, and found him hopeless of salvation. "My dear boy," he began,

"Jesus will—" "Hush!" was the wild answer: "don't talk to me about Jesus. Three months ago I saw you go to the theatre, and that caused me to go, and to-day I am a lost soul, and you are the cause of it." That superintendent said he would have been willing to give his life-work if he could have recalled that gives out to-day a statement on the root, seed and fodder crops of Canada for the month of October, together with their values, as reported by the regular correspondents.

The yield of potatoes is 99,087,000 bushels, which is 22,697,000 bushels more than last year. Turnips are reported at 107,724,000 bushels, being 5,476,000 bushels more than last year. The hay and clover crop is 427,000 tons more than last year, its total yeald being 11.877,-000 tons. Fodder corn shows a decrease of 149,000 tons, the crop being 2,780,000 tons.

The average condition of potatoes over Canada is 93.98 per cent.; of turnips and other roots, 91.64 per cent.; of hay and clover, 88.68 per cent., and of fodder corn 90.68 per cent.

The total value of the four crops is $202,473.700, as against $186,505.000 last rear. Prince Edward Island is credited with $5,748,500, or 2.83 per cent. of the total; Nova Scotia with $18,741,300, or 9.25 per cent.; New Brunswick, with $13,497.900, or 6.61 per cent.; Quebec, oith $59,952,000. or 29.69 per cent.; Onmerio, with $97.475.000, or 48.15 per cert., Manitoba, with $2.886.500, or 1.42 per cent.; Saskatchewan, with $1,896,-500, or .93 per cent., and Alberta with $2,276,000, or 1.12 per cent. The value of hay and clover alone is $132,287,000, being $10,403,000 more than last year.

The potatot rot has done much harm in the Maritime Provinces as a consequence of the heavy fall rains; but in Quebec and Ontario the yield and quality rank high. Good reports are also made from the Northwest Provinces, but considerable damage has been done there in places by early frost in September.

In British Columbia all the crops are reported as excellent in quality and vield, but no areas have been procured for that province.

WATER GAUGE BURST.

C. P. R. Fireman Badly Scalded.

C. P. R. ffreman, Geo. H. Duffus, who lives on Robertson street. Fort William, while on his engine near Westford happened & nasty accident. The water gauge of the locomotive burst and scalled the whole of the left side of his face and head terribly.

"It so happened," said Duffus to our reg presentative, "that I had a box of Zam-Buk There were more cattle of a better in my pocket, which I used for a sore on my shock of the accident, I produced the balm. agony, but within a wonderfully short time Exporters.—There were no export Zam-Buk gave me ease. I was able to connecely healing. I don't know anything

There is something different and superior about Zam-Buk. Time and again workers in all branches of trade have proved its vast superiority over the advertised ointments and salves of the day. No doubt the fact that Zam-buk is made entirely from herbal essences and extracts, while ordinary ointments sences and extracts, while ordinary ointments contain, more or less animal fats and oils, goes a long way to explain Zam-Buk's superiority. However this may be, the fact remains that in four continents to which it has been introduced within ten years it has become the leading household baim!

Druogists and stores sell at 50 cents a box taining a supply of the genuine Zam-Buk from their local stores.
