The annual anniversary services next Sunday 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. The Rev. J. H. Robinson of Norwich, who dedicated the church, will be preacher for the occasion. A large free-will offering is expected.

Rev. C. L. Poole, of Burgessville, preached eloquent sermons at the Educational services held in the Methodist church last Sunday. He was last junior pastor on the old Jarvis circuit and was warmly greeted by his many friends.

Carter, P. W. Armstrong, H. C.
Falls Co., Potts Clark Co., R. W.
Smith, and the new ads of The Bank of Hamilton, Norfolk County Fair, and Simcoe Canning Co.

Morg Hewson and Gus Weil had their fast horses at the Indian fair on Friday last, but owing to the bad state of the track they did not enter the races. At Tillsonburg the races did not take place on Wednesday on account of the heavy rain on that day.

The Lea livery barn was sold last Saturday to Ivan W. Holmes for $156, and part of the material will be used in the erection of Iry & Co's new elevator. This barn, it is thought, brought what it was worth, and Gus is laughing in his sleeve over the great bargain he got in the Rodgers' barn.

The Ladies Aid of Knox church held a very enjoyable "At home" in the basement of church Tuesday night. Dr. Jacques gave an address on Jerusalem and its environments.
Mr. Harnwell also gave a short address. Solos by Mr. Evans of Hagersville and Miss Currie of Cayuga, in addition to selections local recorders and singers, helped to pass a very pleasant evening.

While Charles Parkinson was driving a colt hitched to a light wagon from the station on Monday morning the colt took fright and made things lively for a short time.
It did considerable kicking and would have run away had not Charley been too much for it, as it was the rig collided with a tree in front of Thomas Lewis, and broke the shafts, dashboard and damaged the harness considerable.

Miss Maud Pedlow was a visitor in town last week.

Miss Soveraen of Simcoe is a guest of Miss Lilian Allen.

Palmer Thompson of Toronto spent a few days with his mother last week.

Miss Blanch Bigger of Erie is spending a week with her friend, Miss Lena Williamson.

Mrs. Clare Deal of Stratfordville is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Jos Peacock of Sandusk.

Mrs. Jacob Park and Mrs. John Lea are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. G. B. LePan.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dundas of Goldsmith were guests of Mrs.
Peterson from Wednesday last until Monday.

Owing to anniversary at Garnet, next Sunday, the services in the Methodist church will be withdrawn.
Sunday school as usual.

Miss Ruby Glanfield has returned home from Toronto where she was engaged in one of the wholesale millinery stores.

Miss J. Multer, and Mr. George Cleary, Mr. Forbes and Mr. West on of Hamilton spent Fair Day at the home of T. G. Priestland.

Mrs. Bruce Jeffries of Lyndoch, (nee Miss Eva Bosfield) spent a few days last week under the parental roof, returning home on Saturday.

A silver cup will be given at the Caledonia Fair on October 8th, by Captain L. Monro, of the Guides of Hamilton, for the best saddle horse, suitable for military purposes. A good turn out of horses is hoped for.

Captain Allerson of West Toronto was in the village on Thursday and Friday on business and shaking hands with his many friends here. The captain is just as jolly and lively as ever and it does his old acquaintance here good to see him.

The Rev. W. E. White, M. A., rector of St. Paul's church, is the author of "Holy Order" (by M. Corall), from King Solomon Lodge of Freemasons, Jarvis, containing the following inscription:—Presented to W. E. White, as a token of appreciation of the eloquent and instructive sermon delivered to King Solomon Lodge of Freemasons, June 27th, A.D. 1909.—A. L. 5909. By September Wedding.

DICK—WHEELER

A very pretty wedding was sol-emized on Wednesday, Sept. 29th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.
Wheeler, of Appleby, when their only daughter, Hannah Mae, was united in marriage to Mr. John J.
Dick of Hamilton, son of Mr. Wm.
L. Dick of Hamilton, by the bride's pastor, Rev. Mr. Smith of Appleby.
At 4.30 o'clock, to the sweet strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Babcock, the parties took their place under an arch of asters and ivy, the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The bride was attended by Miss Ida Hamilton, while Mr. Leslie Dick supported the groom.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white zephyrine, with veil and orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of bridal roses. The bride-maid was also charmingly gowned in pale green mull and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket and chain, to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links.
After congratulations were extended, the guests numbering about seventy-five, adjourned to the dining-room, where a sumptuous repast was enjoyed by all, after which a number of toasts were given.

The presents to the bride were numerous and beautiful showing the high esteem in which she was held.

The bride's travelling costume was of navy blue with hat to match.
The happy couple departed amid showers of rice, confetti, and the good wishes of all, for a short trip in southern places, after which they will be at home to their friends at 154 Rebecca St., Hamilton.

W. M. S. Meeting and Pre- sentation.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church, was delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon with luncheon at the home of Mrs. Isaac Trousdale.

At the close of the usual program, the meeting took the form of a presentation gathering and the following address was read:

Jarvis, Ont., October 5, 1909.

Mrs. Ezra Park, Jarvis.
Dear Sister and Friend, — It is most befitting that we, on the occasion of your removal from our village, should render to you some small expression of the deep and lasting friendships you have formed during the many years of your residence here.

There is such a principal of attraction in friend toward friend that relationships are formed that tie lives together as with threads of gold. Because of these ties you have established during the years, and because of your faithful efforts in endeavoring to have your light shine as a devoted follower of our Master, we desire to extend to you our appreciation. We do not value these services by any value of earth, but that you may often have suggested to you, the good old days, so replete with memories both pleasant and enduring, we ask of you, in behalf of this W. M. S., and other friends, of the Methodist church, Jarvis, to please accept of these two parlor rocking chairs.

Imparting the Divine blessing to rest upon you as you continue to do His service, in earthly temples, till you are called to praise Him in "temples not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Signed in behalf of your many friends.

Mrs. (Rev.) H. J. Harnwell, Pres.
Mrs. A. Rodgers, Sec'y.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Walker

D. Macdonald.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Buckley and Miss Laura Pennis spent Sunday with J. Knisley's near Nellies Corners.

Miss Mary Mackley arrived home from Buffalo on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kohler spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. J. Silverthorn.

The Woman's Institute met at the home of Mrs. J. Schwyer's on Tuesday, Oct. 5th.

Mrs. Merritt Atkinson is slowly recovering from her illness.
Quite a number from around here attended the market at Jarvis on Wednesday.

The drillers have nearly completed the well on the Harrison property. The other day they struck oil but it happened to be in an oil can behind a thorn bush and the oil formerly belonged to the drillers and they are now wondering how it got there.

BUSINESS COLLEGE
A NEW SCHOOL.
A LIVE SCHOOL.
A GOOD SCHOOL.

A school that has grown from infancy to manhood in a season.

Today the number of Students enrolling rivals that of many city schools. Careful attention and individual instruction, together with modern methods, taught by a capable staff of teachers, make our school what it is.

The great cost of living in a city gives our school a great advantage over city schools, while we have equal advantages planning graduates.

Our building is well lighted and heated and our school has every advantage that goes to make up a modern Business College.

Full term opens Sept. 15th. Enter Now!
