A word about clocks

We haven't spoken about Clocks for a long time—and all the while we have one of the rarest assortments we have ever asked the people to look at.

There are a great number of sorts of Clocks, and we think we must have just about all of them.

One of the sort that won't let you overleep in the morning costs $1.25.
Will last for years, too.

Those pretty little gold affairs are especially suitable for presents. We have a lot of dainty designs in them.

They cost $2 up.

Kitchen Clocks—five or ten years accurate running in them, for $2.50 or more.

Marble Clocks and Regulators cost more money, of course, and are worth it. If you've a Clock need, see us.

been completed by J. C. Sanderson.

MARRIED—At the parsonage on Thursday, Sept. 9th, by Rev. H. J.
Harnwell, Mr. Charles Exelby, to Miss Allie M. Warner, both of Var-eney. After the ceremony the happy couple took the train for London where they intend to spend a few days.

Chas. Walter arrived home last sence.

FOR SALE—Hundred acre farm, Lot 3, con. 9, Walpole township, good buildings, one mile from Jarvis. Terms easy. Wm. Howell, Jarvis, P.O.

Last Sunday night about 10.30 o'clock fire was discovered in the home of Geo. Dalgleish, at the five points, about two miles south of the village. The fire had gained such headway before being discovered that there was no chance to save the contents, two or three pieces of furniture, were all that was taken out, and the house was soon consumed to ashes. The loss will be a very serious one to Mr.
Dalgleish and family, there being a very small insurance, if any, on the house or contents.

The Walpole Fair this year promises to be far ahead of any Fair held here for years. A large number of farmers and others are daily becoming members, and entries are coming in fast although the Fair is not held until Oct. 5th and 6th.
The attractions are numerous and the prizes that are given are large and valuable.

trician, of Brantford; solos and duets by Mrs. Charles Wilson and Miss Myrtle Norris of Cainsville, instrumental music by Mr. Stanley Smith, Brantford, and also by the Westerby family, Sandusk, and others; addresses by resident ministers. Choice music will be rendered while tea is served from 6 to 8. Admission, adults 25c; children 15c. Miss S. Smith, Brantford, accompanied. Everybody welcome.

Consecration of St. Paul's Church and Harvest Services.

The church, being now free of debt, will be duly consecrated on Friday evening, 24th inst., at 8 o'clock by the Bishop of Niagara.
The service will be very interesting and imposing character, beside the Bishop and Rector all the clergy of this county will be present, the Deanery meeting being held the same day. Past rectors of the parish, who are still living, are also invited to be present.

The Annual Harvest services will be held on Sunday, 26th inst., when the Rev. S. Daw, rector of St. John the Evangelist church, Hamilton, will preach at the 11 and 7 o'clock services. A full list of all the above services will appear next week and the public generally are cordially invited to attend.

Formal Millinery Opening.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week we show for the first time in its completeness the most beautiful collection of autumn and winter millinery ever assembled in this store, or in any place within fifty miles of Simcoe—so we firmly believe. We most cordially solicit your inspection.

A Happy Event.

Wingham Advance.—On Wednesday of this week, a happy event enlivened the home of Mr. and Mrs.
McCool of Hullett, when their daughter, Miss Lillian, became the bride of Mr. J. Lloyd Awde. The groom is an exemplary young business man of our town, and the bride is well known here, having been one of the staff of Wingham Business College for some time.
The marriage took place at the home of the bride, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Jas. Awde of Hamilton, assisted by Rev. H. E.
Curry, under an arch of evergreens, banked with palms. The bride was dressed in cream silk elegantly trimmed with lace and ribbon, and wore a beautiful wedding veil with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of roses. Her travelling dress was of navy blue cloth with hat to match. Guests were present from Wingham, Clinton, Toronto and Hamilton. The presents were many and valuable. After their wedding tour to eastern cities, Mr. and Mrs. Awde will take up their residence in Wingham.

Mr. Awde is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
Richard Awde, formerly of this town, and The Record joins with their many friends in wishing them much future happiness.

Diamond Wedding.

Many friends in Western Ontario will extend to Rev. R. C. and Mrs.
Parsons of St. Thomas, heartiest congratulations on the celebration on Monday of the diamond anniversary of their wedding. Rev. Mr.
Parsons was stationed in Hamilton about 30 years ago, and at that time was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church which is now owned and occupied by the A. M. E. congregation. Rev. Mr. Parsons was afterwards presiding elder for the Hamilton district and continued to reside in Hamilton for two years.
Mrs. Parsons is the eldest daughter of the late Solomon Griffin, of Wat-erdown, and was born in that neighborhood. Both Mr. and Mrs. Parsons are still in the enjoyment of good health and are active workers in Central Methodist church, St.
Thomas, and Monday the diamond anniversary of their wedding was celebrated by a gathering of relatives and friends, at their home.

Nanticoke and Cheapside Harvest Services.

Rev. D. Russel Smith, the successful rector of Port Colborne, will conduct harvest services in Christ church, Nanticoke, and St. John's church, Cheapside, on Sunday, Sept. 19th. The collections are taken up for Missions. We have heard a great deal of the Layman's Missionary Movement in this township this year. Strong committees have been appointed composed of Messrs. R. J. Winyard, R. J. Jen-son and Thos. Westerby for Cheapside, and Messrs. S. A. Thompson, Wm. Snowden, Wm. Wicker, Frank Smith, Hugh Ross, W. J. Ward and Warren Jackson, for Nanticoke.
The members of the English church will surely respond to this appeal not only as a special offering of thanksgiving for harvest, but in grateful obedience to the command to go make disciples of all nations.
The efforts of the Laymen's Missionary Movement is to tribute our former offerings as a real sacrifice, rather than a formal offering. The church at Nanticoke has been in the hands of Walker Evans for the last three weeks, so that after painting, renovating and decorating, the service on the 19th will also be of the nature of a re-opening.
The day's exercises will be full of interest and good congregations are assured.

What is the Big Out-of- Doors Sale?

It is simply a sale under canvas of $9,000 worth of "Progress Brand" and "Northways" hand tailored clothes, (the best kinds) for men and boys, also $2,000 worth of overalls, smocks and jumpers for men and boys at prices that equal merchandise was never sold for before.
The sale opens each morning at 9 o'clock and continues for 12 days.
Plenty of room—plenty of light—plenty of fresh air.

A Splendid Showing of New Winter Coats

A glance at the new coat models reveal a charm and attraction in store for those wanting a new coat.
The models already projected show the semititting back, normal shoulder, semi-fitting front, either single or double breasted. The waistline is a little lengthened, fuller hip effect and almost full length.
The sleeves favor the mannish cut with a slight fullness at the top, a particular nice effect, and a new one is the Neapolian or standing collar, buttoning up close to the neck, with wide reverses, prices range from $5 to $25.
