The Hot Weather Is Here At Last!

I told you so! may be heard at every turn. Cold weather grumblers may now take advantage of the present weather indications and prepare accordingly because this is an exact tip. Say but it is going to be hot.

We planned months ago to be ready when you were, and now the latest novelties are here.

Laces and Embroideries

If anybody asked what Madam Fashion could least do without we would say Laces and Embroideries. Our regular stock in both were never quite so complete as at this time. Laces in sets with insertions to match. Embroideries in all widths from the narrow edging to flouncing, also an extra nice lot corset embroideries.

Colored Wash Goods

LAWNS—Our line of 10c lawns was never so complete and extra good quality. 40 inches wide at 10 cents.

GINGHAMS—In black and white checks and stripes in pink, blue, tan, oxfords and greens are very much in demand. These are all imported Anderson's Scotch Gingham and guaranteed to wash at 12 1/2 cents.

Boys Wash Suits & Blouses

Every one is new fashionable goods to wash. Among the lot are Russian and Sailor Suits, cotton duck and shambria with dainty little stripe.

CORSETS! CORSETS!

The right corset means happiness in renewed youth and good looks.

In the thirty models of the splendidly built B. & I. and P. C. corsets you may be almost sure of getting a model to suit your figure. We know of no other American corset which so combines quality, fine lines and small prices. Do not forget to ask to see Director Corset designed especially for the Princess Suits at $1 a pair.

Straw Hats

When the mercury tops the 80 mark there will be a rush for straw hats who have thought it too cold to bother about them lately. We have numerous styles and straws for men and boys from 10c to $1.00 each.

Underwear for Men

Balbriggans drop stitch weave, lisle thread and mercerized, all in summer weights. There are several styles including Penman's special at 50c garment.

Men's Suits

Young men are thus learning that suits with all the marks of style can be procured HERE as well as in expensive shops and at a saving of from $3 to $5 each.

Coat Shirts at $1.00

Printed Madras, plains as well, with Bedford stripe, others in a regular over the head styles.

Varency

Have you seen the comet? Seeding is well advanced. "There's no time like the old time" is all right as a song but the spring of '10 convinces us that the writer was laboring under a delusion.

Geo. Manson was renewing acquaintances in this vicinity last week.

S. L. Miller, B.A., of Port Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Gilbertson and Master Gilbertson of Simcoe were guests at "Burnside" on Sunday.

Marburg

Walter Austin spent part of the holidays with his son Wray of Detroit.

Rain is needed very badly in this locality.

Some of the farmers are through with their seeding.

Mrs. Masecar of Tillsonburg is visiting her daughter Mrs. George Cruise.

Glenn Ryerse is suffering from a mild form of smallpox.

Willis Porter has gone to the West again. Three times then out. Jack Maxwell went with him.

Neil Porter spent Easter with his parents here.

Miss Alice and Harry Austin attended a wedding at Bloomsburg on Wednesday.

Mrs. Sidney McBride and family were visiting at Lynn Valley last week.

Walter Austin has sold his farm to William Church and has bought the McCall farm west of here.

Roger Gundry had a bee sawing wood on Monday.

Mrs. Will Watson is suffering from a very lame arm at present.

Miss May Perry and Mrs. John Greenbury visited friends here a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Ryerse of Hamilton has been visiting Mrs. George Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rose of Simcoe visited Hugh Axford's on Sunday.

The fishermen would like a good rain.

R. Gundry has bought another horse he having sold two a while ago.

James Maxwell has bought a house in Simcoe and intends giving up farming in the fall.

The Record to Jan. 1, 1911, for 50 cents.

Rockford.

Sorry to hear Mrs. Arthur Jones had to undergo another operation on Sunday.

Wm. Armstrong and family of Benton have moved into James Priest's vacant house.

Wm. Russell and family of Simcoe have moved back to Rockford and are occupying Mrs. William Lemon's house, recently vacated by Mr. Wilson, he moving back in his own.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson spent Sunday in Waterford the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James.

In loving memory of William Lemon who died April 7, 1908

Our father from us now is gone
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our hearts
Which never can be filled.
Sleep on dear father thy labors are o'er
Thy willing hands shall toil no more,
On earth there's strife, in heaven rest,
We loved you well God loved you best.
Some day some time our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well,
Some day thy hand shall clasp in ours
And never bid farewell.

—Wife and Family.

(Intended for last week.)

The farmers have commenced seeding. A good many years since grain was sown in March. Can you tell us how many?

The school closed on Thursday last for the Easter holidays and will commence again next Monday.

The Rev. Dr. Cook of Port Dover will preach in this church next Sunday evening in the interests of Educational Fund of the church.

James Priest has been supplied with another boy from the Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lemon spent from Saturday until Monday with friends in Brantford.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Somers and daughter Laura spent the Easter holidays with Mrs. Somers' parents near Glanford.

Mrs. James Priest and son Bud spent from Friday until Sunday at her sister's, Mrs. Wilfred Mason of Hagersville.

Mrs. Frank Smith has gone to Parry Sound to visit her sister, Mrs. Kenney.

Mr. and Mrs. Finlay of Clinton, West Huron, is visiting the former's sister, Mrs. William Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Thompson spent Easter at the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. James of Waterford.

The remains of the late George Honey was interred in the cemetery here on Good Friday afternoon. The deceased was a resident of this place for a number of years having lived on the farm now owned by James Priest. The relatives and friends have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Frank Smith has purchased the Harry Pearson farm now occupied by John Fox.
