Intelligent Dressing.

What is it that makes a man most noticeable on the street? What is it that makes you admire and wonder where he got that elegant suit and what he paid for it? It is nothing more nor less than intelligent dressing. In ninety-nine cases out of every hundred he has one of our original style creations that fit him—fit his build, height, complexion and station in life. Individual characteristic in short distinctive. If you will put yourself in our hands you will soon have the reputation of being "a good dresser" and you'll save money besides.

Our Ready-to-Wear ranges from $2.50 to $15.00
Our Tailor Made Clothing ranges from $12.00 to $35.00

Our ready-to-wear clothing is not that so called READY-MADE, but clothing made to our own liking, with extra sewing, hand made collars and lapels. Put us to the test of these statements. Try the clothing yourself to-day.

SHOES

We consider the individual. It is our aim to accentuate to the personal equation in leather. It is an art that comes by catering to men of many minds.

Hence we dare attempt to attain the superlative in shoes to proceed further in the accomplishment of our ideals to give you at a given price infinitely greater intrinsic worth in leather, fashion and fit than you may expect perhaps.

In our range of shoes will be found the expression of our idea of what is meant by (distinctive shoes) in the broadest sense. We believe that every man, woman and child of taste will be able to discover here just that which he has been seeking without finding. Whether you consider price or whether you do not you will not have done your best if you miss these.

THOMAS C. WATKINS, LIMITED,

King and Hughson Streets, HAMILTON.

Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Johnston of Nanticoke spent Thursday as Levi Cronk's. Mrs. R. Ulman of Buffalo is visiting at C. Cronk's.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Bartlett have returned to their home in Selkirk after spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Levi Cronk.

The Selkirk Rifle Association has been reorganized and intend to have their first practice on Thursday 28th, on the range at Peacock Point.

Joseph Cronk of this city and Miss Annie Lockman of Buffalo, N. Y., were united in marriage on Wednesday of last week. We wish them a long and happy journey through life.

Varency

The appearance of the landscape hereabouts convinces us that, in the matter of climate, this neck of the woods is hard to beat.

Spectacle vendors are hereby advised to shun this burg as Halley's comet has been observed with the naked eye on several occasions during the past fortnight. It is up to star gazers at leading astronomical headquarters to go way back and sit down.

The "Merrimac, Jr." recently constructed at Ward's dry docks has been successfully launched and has proved to be perfectly seaworthy. She will possibly be commissioned for the cucumber trade between here and Nanticoke next season.

Mrs. Ann Catherwood of Hagersville spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Catharine Parkinson.

Walter Oakes, who has recently been engaged repairing a shed on the premises of George Reynolds, had the misfortune to cut his knee seriously with a hatchet he was using while at work on Saturday last.

At the recent examinations at Queen's University Rev. J. L. Nicol, M. A., was a successful candidate in the Ph. D. list. We extend congratulations.

Miss A. E. Nicol is spending a few days in Kingston.

Nanticoke.

Miss Martha Doughty is visiting friends in Hamilton this week.

We understand that Thomas Evans of Port Dover had purchased the residence of Joseph Fields, and Mr. Fields is contemplating the purchase of the Misses Jackson, at present tenanted by William Bartlett.

The fishing season has commenced in the creek by amateurs and at the lake by Mr. Hoover.

Rev. Mr. Gardiner of Port Rowan occupied the Methodist Pulpit Sunday morning.

Preparations are being made for the largest and best celebration on Victoria Day that Nanticoke has ever witnessed. A day chock full of sport finished off with a concert at night in the program. More particulars later and don't forget it.

Marburg

Our much needed rain came at last. Now if it would bring warm weather everything would grow fine.

Miss Lila McBride visited her grandparents over the Sabbath.

We understand Ellis Eyerse has took his departure but don't know where.

Willis Hewson and Milton Cruise speared some fine fish in the creek one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hewson, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McBride and Mrs. R. Mann and Alvin attended the funeral of William Hewson in Jarvis on Wednesday.

A few of the men from around here were at a raising up to A. Pow's at Duans Hollow on Thursday.

There was a shooting match for geese in Dover on Saturday. Sidney McBride captured one of them.

Sandusk.

Miss Amy Jepson visited at David McBurney's last week.

Mrs. R. Pond returned to her home in Jarvis on Friday, after spending some time in this burg.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Atkinson of Port Dover spent Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson.

Miss Lillian Matthews of Port Dover is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Morten Deal.

Miss Miell of Garnet spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. John Pond. George Moffat of Port Rowan is in this burg.

Miss L. McMahon spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Brandy Creek.

Hagersville.

After a lingering illness death relieved Mrs. Peter Ostrosser of her suffering on Friday last. Mrs. Ostrosser had appeared somewhat better in health of late until last Wednesday morning when she had a fall which seemed to hasten the end. A short service was held at her home on Friday evening, conducted by Mr. Stringfellow, at which a number of many friends were present. The body was removed on Saturday morning to the cemetery, and interment made in the old family burying ground. Mrs. Ostrosser was a dear old lady and greatly loved by all who knew her.

A number of the members of the Odd-fellows Lodge attended Divine service in St. Paul's church, Jarvis, on Sunday last.

Mrs. John Woodmark of Sandusky is spending a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. David Lindsay.

Mrs. John Downs has been spending the past week with her daughter Beatrice in Buffalo.

Miss Lillie Beam of Brantford spent Sunday at her home here.

We were pleased to see the smiling countenance of Ralph Lindsay of the Bank of Hamilton, Jarvis, with as over Sunday. A good penny always returns.

Mr. and Mrs. Hieziab Burbridge of Toronto have returned to town, and will occupy a part of their residence, which has been lately vacated by Geo. Deasby.

Craig Evans, of the Bank of Hamilton, Hamilton spent Sunday in Hagersville. We didn't hear where.

The heavy rains of the last few days have apparently improved everything but the roads.
