Spring Dress Goods.

A most complete display we have ever shown. All new fabrics which have been pouring in from Europe daily. The place is bright with their beauty, but an early visit is necessary to see these in their completeness for already some of the best patterns are going, nearly all in suit lengths so that your neighbor will not be wearing the same dress. Among the new shades @ 50c and 75c are Old Rose, Army Blue, Amethyst, Moss Green, Royal Blue, Cinnamon Brown, also many other shades of brown and green. Do not forget to see our pretty dress goods for childrens' dresses at 25c.

Men's Easter Clothes

The noblest most exclusive clothes for Easter are those sold by M. M. & Co. There is something about them that distinguishes them from other clothing. But the most attractive feature is the price. Remember we make suits to your order from $12 to $25 and our ready-to-wear suits for men at $6, 6.50, 7.50, 9.00, 10.00, 15.00. Drop in and see them, if your own judgment does not prompt you to buy them you will not be urged.

This is a good Clothing Store for Boys

The same care is exercised in the making of our clothing for Boys as in the Men's, quality is the first consideration the services of the clothing will yield and the styles never approach the ordinary, they are exclusive and correct. Prices of boys clothing at $2.50, 2.75, 3.30, 3.50, 4.00, 5.00 according to value and size.

One of Walpole's oldest pioneers in the person of Peter Edsall peacefully away at his home near Selkirk, in his ninety-sixth year. His remains were interred in the English church cemetery, Cheapside.

Hagersville.

The box social held on Thursday evening last in aid of the Park Improvement Society was not as well attended as was expected, nevertheless much amusement was made by those present and as far as we can learn, the gentlemen were highly pleased with the young ladies and the supper provided for them. After the supper was over a splendid program, consisting of music, recitations and songs was given, by which this pleasant event was brought to a close.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Mamie Ulton is much improved since our last writing. Her many friends are anxious for her recovery.

Mrs. James Sheldrick, having spent the past three months with her daughter, Mrs. Grace of Brandon, Man., returned home on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parsons of Jarvis were the guests of Mrs. Rodgers over Sunday.

Miss Leslie Beam of Brantford spent Sunday at her home here.

Miss Annie Lindsay left Monday morning for Toronto where she will be engaged for a few weeks in the workrooms of the wholesale millinery department.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of the Misses Mitchell on Tuesday afternoon, at which Miss Nettie Mitchell became the wife of John Anderson of Wilkie, Sask. They left for Niagara Falls and Hamilton, where they will spend a short honeymoon before leaving for their new home in the North West. We extend to them our heartiest congratulations.

C. P. Campbell, P. O. Inspector of the London, visited the office here on Monday, and expressed himself well pleased with the way our good postmaster has conducted the work and the service he has given the public.

THERE'S Little Sentiment In Business

During all the years we have been in Business, our invariable policy has been to handle everything of the very best, and to this fact we attribute, in a large measure, our signal success.

It is for no sentimental reason that many of our old customers come back to us year after year, but because we have the best stock and best assortment, and give the best values and best service.

Have just received an extensive range of—
