J. J. PARSONS,
Reeve of Walpole.

Norfolk's Industrial Home

Editor Jarvis Record:

Sir,—A deputation consisting of Reeve Robinson of Hagersville, Reeve Cline of Cayuga, Deputy-Reeve Roulston of Walpole, and Reeve Walton of North Cayuga, was appointed at the last meeting of the County Council of Haldimand to visit the Industrial Home of the County of Norfolk, situated about a mile and a half from the Town of Simcoe. They did so on the 11th inst. Their object was to get information as to the internal management and any other information which would be of use in connection with a home.

The writer was one of the deputation. I think that some of my observations which I made, and information which I obtained, may be of interest to your readers in this county. If you are of the same opinion you are at liberty to publish this letter.

The institution is known in Norfolk County as the Industrial Farm and Home, and corresponds to the House of Refuge which is in the course of erection in this county. The management is under the direct control of R. Spencer, who is officially known as The Master. He is assisted by his wife who is called the matron, and his two daughters, who are called the assistants. A physician is appointed by the year. The salaries are:—Master, $400 per year; Matron, $200; assistants, $8.00 per month each, and the physician $175 per year. The Master is also allowed $150 per year to spend in hired help when most needed.

At the time of our visit there were 54 inmates. The average for 1909 was 56, and the cost per inmate per week was $1.49 each. The majority of the inmates are very old people—all of them practically helpless. I was very forcibly reminded of the truth of that part of the 10th verse of the 90th Psalm which says "And if by reason of strength they be four score years, yet is there strength, labor and sorrow."

My observations which impressed me most, were the cleanliness of the inmates, the evident good management, the contentment and comfort of the inmates, and the high esteem in which I heard the master spoken of by the outside people whom I met.

I am sure the County of Norfolk is fortunate in getting such a good manager, and the inmates lucky in having such kind and self-sacrificing attention which is given by the matron and her most excellent daughters. Yours truly,

VISITOR.

Death of Mrs. Bates.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Bates, Shoal Lake, Man. One of the early residents of Shoal Lake village, passed away on Thursday last in the person of Mrs. Wm. Bates, at the advanced age of 72 years, after an illness lasting some five or six weeks. Previous to Christmas she had been in fairly good health, and able to attend to her household duties, but since she was taken ill, had been gradually growing weaker, the end came shortly after 12 o'clock on Thursday the 3rd. For some hours previous to her death she had been unconscious, and passed quietly away without recognizing those about her. The late Mrs. Bates was born in 1838, at the village of York, County of Haldimand, Ont., where she lived with her parents until her marriage, when she removed to Nanticoke, The country at this time was an almost unbroken wilderness. Here she resided until 1885, when she removed west, going direct to Shoal Lake, Man. The year following Mr. Bates built the Lakeview House where they made their home. The first Sunday School in Shoal Lake had its beginning in this building, and prominent among the workers was Mrs. Bates. She was a pioneer in Ontario and Manitoba, and could relate many an interesting story of the early days—stories filled with adventure and hardship, that only the settler in a new land knows anything about. With her decease a long and useful life came to a close. She leave a husband and one son, Mr. Albert Evans of Simcoe, to mourn her loss, to whom the sympathy of all will be extended at this time. Mrs. A. S. Arnold and Mrs. R. Medcalf of Shoal Lake are step daughters of deceased. The funeral took place on Saturday, Feb. 5th, and was largely attended, service being held at St. Paul's church and also at the grave.—Con.
