The Busy Store

English Prints At 5 Cents A Yard

Saturday's Bargains, Feb. 26th, 1910.

SATURDAY ONLY

Prints under regular price. Up, Up, Up, that is the tendency of the market in PRINTS, and yet bargains. Frequently there are mishaps in some wholesale business affairs, a cog slipped somewhere. Too much stock, too little money, too many notes to meet, too short a time for delay. So a ready check got several very good lots. Bargains gravitate naturally to M. M. & Co.'s. To-day's savings are because we bought those particular lots ahead of the advance values stated are based to-day below wholesale.

Remember—600 yards of English Prints in White and Black, Lilace Blue and Pink in Stripe and Floral Designs at 5c a yard.

Saturday Only

Prints can be seen in the Window Thursday and Friday.

CARD OF THANKS—The family of the late Mr. John Evans wishes to thank their neighbors and friends for their kindness during their sad bereavement.—F. and M. Evans.

Nanticoke.

Mr. and Miss Hoover of Aylmer are guests of Mrs. Fred Fratten.

Joseph Walker of Buffalo is renewing old acquaintances around town.

Miss Lily Ward visited friends in Port Dover last week.

Miss Lizzie McCready is the guest of Mrs. George Wood.

The Anniversary service and tea-meeting held in the Methodist church Sunday and Monday were both a decided success. The services on Sunday were conducted by Rev. Mr. Cook of Port Dover. On Monday evening an old fashioned tea-meeting was held. People came from Port Dover and all the surrounding country in old fashioned sleigh loads. A bountiful supper was served and a social was held on Tuesday evening to dispose of the over supply. Although the church was packed good order was maintained and all enjoyed the excellent program. Miss Spencer of Toronto entertained the audience with a number of recitations. Mr. W. Harris excelled himself with his breezy and laughable selections.

The Sextette club of Port Dover sang in their usual style and after once being heard are always greeted with enthusiasm. Songs were also given by Miss Ida Henning and Mrs. Lindsay and Mr. Hare which were enjoyed by all. Short humorous addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Cook of Port Dover and Rev. Mr. Leake of Nanticoke.

Master Morley Kitchen is quite ill at the time of writing.

Mrs. Whiting has returned from Hagersville where she has been spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mason.

Mrs. S. Vrooman is attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Shaw of Virgil, Ont.

Daniel Secord of Walpole has purchased the Edward Bothwell's farm and is moving on it.

Frank Schuyler has engaged with J. N. Schilz to assist in the store.

John Mitchell is having a sale on 28th and is leaving for British Columbia in a few weeks.

Messrs. Carver and Whaley of Caledonia spent Sunday and Monday at Mr. Challand's.

Thomas Thompson has disposed of his farm and intends leaving for the North West in the near future.

George and Harry Hobbs attended the party at Mr. Slaters on Monday night.

Marburg

It looks as if we might have a run of sleighing yet before spring.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Gundry had a dinner for their friends on Tuesday.

John A. McBride is going to British Columbia this week on business.

Dancing parties are all the rage around here there being one at McBride's on Friday evening, also one at Ansel Dambert's on Wednesday all report a good time.

Levi Mitchell, Edith Challand and Gertie Evers took in the Workman's supper at Jarvis last week.

Willis Porter has gone to the West again.

We think the old bear must have taken a good look at his shadow this year by the weather we have.

Rev. Mr. Pincher started to hold meetings in the church here but gave it up on account of the roads and weather for the time being.

Hagersville.

The banquet given by the Shredded Wheat Co. in aid of the Baptist church last Thursday evening was a decided success. Tea was served to over three hundred after which a splendid program was given by a number of the congregation.

Some more of the beautiful fell on Friday which caused a perpetual motion of snow shovels the following morning.

A very sad accident occurred here on Saturday morning when the second son of Edward Cole met his death by being run over with a snow plough. The little fellow was coming up the track intending to help Wm. Walker ship stock, and the plough must have been very close upon him before he had time to get out of its way, nor did the train hands know of it until they backed down again and parts of the body were disclosed. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon. The grief stricken parents have the sympathy of the whole community.

The Home Circle Society had their Annual Banquet in Hager's Hall on Tuesday evening and as usual had a high old time.

You would be surprised to see what a jolly crowd assembles each Saturday at 2.30 p.m. at Hager's when the clock is unveiled. Each trader during the past month has received a coupon for each purchase of one dollar's worth of goods. Each coupon has a different time stamped on it. The ones having the card bearing the time nearest to that at which the clock stops receives $2 and $1 respectively each Saturday. Get in the game.

Roy Winger is having the inside of his shop re-painted this week which adds greatly to the appearance.

Mr. Andrew Douglas Smith, son of Mrs. John Smith of Walpole township died on Monday after a lengthy illness. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. The burial took place on Wednesday at the Hagersville cemetery.

Low Griffith of Buffalo, N. Y. is visiting his father, Capt. E. A. Griffith.
