Ladies' Banquet.

One of the events of the sesson took place on Thursday evening last, when the ladies of the Women's Institute held a banquet at "Spruce Croft," the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williamson. About sixty-five of the fair sex and their husbands and friends were usbered into the large basement of the house (which had been arranged as a dining from) to partake of the bounties which had been provided for the occasion. Oysters being the first and foremost attraction of the tables, were most heartily relished A couple of sleigh loads of young by those present was shown by the people from Hagersville attended quantity which disappeared. A this period the gentlemen were calladdress for next Sunday evening in ed upon to add to the evening's entertainment, Mr. Andrew Rodgers being the first called to give an address, after which Miss Annie Wiliamson gave an instrumental solo. Vocal selections were given by Miss Edith McCarter and duets by Misses viaud and Mabel Parkinson. The recitation given by Mrs. Beamish entitled "Catching the Train" caused great amusement. Mrs. Dunnett of Clanbrassil, delegate to the convention held at Guelph, was present and gave a somewhat summer, ice at the present time lengthy but most interesting account of that convention. Mr. Dunnett, Sec. of the Walpole Farmer's Institute also gave us a short address. An essav given by Mrs. Meehan on Canadian Poets deserve great praise and was much appreciated by all present. The evening was made brighter by the music rendered by Mrs. James Pollock of Nelles Corners, also short addresses by Messrs. R. McCarter, R. Walters and Wm. Fallis of Welwyn, Assa., who expressed his pleasure at meeting so many of his old friends. Vocal solos were also given by Chas. Parkinson, Misses McCarter and > Shirley Rodgers. After the ending of the program a hearty vote of thanks was given to the kind host and hostess and the singing of Auld Lang Syne, the happy company dispersed to their several homes feeling these gatherings were both socially and intellectually a benefit to each one.

Mr. Bruce Hair's violin selection was heartly encored as were many of the other portions of the programme, and was responded to. Mrs. LePan was accompanist to this, while Miss Lewis and Miss Sowter assisted by playing accompaniments in two of the songs. The programme was an excellent one, especially for an impromptu arrangement, and showed what Jarvis can provide by way of talent. At the close prizes were given to those schollars who attended 40 per cent. of the Sundays during the year and all the other pupils in the school received a bag of candies each. Then, with the singing of the National Anthem, a most interesting and enjoyable evening was brought to a close. The proceeds

Jarvis, Jan. 9, 1910. MRS. ALBERT MEEHAN :- .

Dear Friend and Teacher, - As the pages of a volumn or course of study are passed, it is not uncommon to have a brief epitome of the pages turned and in a few telling words review the whole situation.

To those of us who have been associated with you in the work of our Bible class, it needs no sketch of the imagination to remind us that in the pages we have together turned, you have helped us to realize what a grand and important thing life is.

We have often paused for reflection as we have studied the lessons under your tuition, and inquired what the Lord would have us do. You have helped us to see a dignity in life, and to discover that God's paradise, even on earth, have all manner of precious fruit.

That the memories of hours spent with us in our Adult Bible class on Sunday mornings may be both pleasant and enduring, we ask of you to please accept in the spirit in which it is given, a tangible token in the form of an American Stand-Evans, Misses Lillian Allen and ard Bible, (Nelson Series) and a Bible Dictionary, not for the intrinsic value but for the sake of the feeling that prompts them.

We pray that God may help you to use well our brief probationary term and "tho" it doth not yet appear what we shall be, yet we know, that when our season of tutelage is o'er, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

Signed on behalf of the Adult Bible Class.
