Rockford.

The reopening services in the church on Sunday last was well attended. A good raily of Sunday school scholars and worker in the morning at 10 a.m. and at the morning and evening services the church and gallery were filled to its utmost, the ushers being almost unable to seat the crowd. Our pastor Rev. Kitching delivered two very eloquent sermons to which all listened very attentively. A goodly number of visitors from other parts of the circuit attending. The voice of the people seemed to reflect much credit on the ability of Mr. Robins of Hagersville as a painter, who has certainly given us a No. 1 job.

No school on Friday last on account of the storm and none on Tuesday on account of the rain and bad state of the roads. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McMahon of
