Checker Match
Between Jarvis and the Nanticoke Stars held at R. Walter's on Thursday, Feb. 24, was a very keen contest, but the Stars was just a little too much for the latter. About 11.30 a.m. Mrs. R. Walter gave the contesting parties and invitation to the dining room where the game would be more even. We all know what that means. Under the management of Mrs. Walters a grand oyster supper was there waiting and abundance of everything to tempt the inner man.—Com.

Massey-Harris Delivery.
The eleventh annual delivery of farm machinery by C. S. McCarter on Saturday last, the 26th inst. proved, as in former years to be a booster. The day was fine and although some farmers were unable to be present there were 37 sleighs loaded with seeding, haying and harvesting machinery bearing the old trade mark of trust "Massey-Harris." The largest individual order was that of George Cox, who is soon to take up his residence south of the village, which amounted to $495.00, and in all up to the present date Mr. McCarter has sold M. H. goods alone for the coming season to the value of $3310.00.

Our Schools.
In regard to our schools, parents have duties to perform, which they can ill afford to neglect. They should show to their children that they have an interest in the school. They should examine carefully the reports sent by the teacher, should see that their children are in school every day, and punctual; should assist and encourage the children to do all their school duties faithfully and well; should co-operate with the teacher in securing a prompt return of their children home after school is dismissed; should make a friendly visit to the school, and talk freely with the teacher and principal in regard to same.

Obituary.
MRS. JAMES CROSSEN.
As announced in the Record last week there passed away in this village on Tuesday, the 22nd inst., the beloved wife of Mr. James Crossen, in the 65th year of her age. Deceased was first taken ill about Christmas and though her illness was not at first considered serious her condition gradually grew worse, and although everything was done for her that medical skill and loving hands could do she finally passed away as above stated.

Deceased was the youngest daughter of the late George E. Forster, who came to Canada from England in 1834 and settled on the farm now occupied by Robert B. Brock, west of this village, where he hewed out a home in the wilderness and where he continuously resided up to the time of his demise in 1893. In 1874 she became the wife of Mr. James Crossen and shortly afterwards they took up their residence in Jarvis where they have since resided. She was a good neighbor and her kind and loving disposition endeared her to the hearts of all who knew her, and by whom she will be greatly missed.

Besides a loving husband she leaves to mourn her demise two brothers and two sisters, viz.: Mr. John Forster, Bay City, Mich., Mr. Matthew J. Forster, Hamilton, and Misses Sarah and Charlotte Forster who reside on the old homestead in Townsend.

The beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which she was held by her neighbors, among them being a spray from Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McCarter, another from Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Walker, Miss Dougherty and Mrs. Abraham, also one from the Women's Institute of which she was a member.

The funeral took place on Thursday morning to St. Mary's church, Simcoe, the service being conducted by Rev. Father Forster, principal of Sandwich College, a nephew of the deceased, assisted by another nephew, Rev. Father Forster, of Mount Carmel and Rev. Father Cleary of Caledonia, Rev. Father Martin of Simcoe. Interment took place at the R. C. cemetery, west of Simcoe, where her father and mother and two sisters have been buried.

The pall-bearers were Lewis Miller, Wm. Abraham, C. S. McCarter, John Higgins, James Donovan and Nicholas Montague.

The bereft husband and relatives have the sympathy of the community in their hour of sorrow.

CARD OF THANKS.—Mr. James Crossen wishes to thank his friends and neighbors for their kindness during his sad bereavement.

Better Be Insured Than Sorry

Many people are taking chances through leaving their property insufficiently insured, forgetful that the fire fiend visits where and when least expected.

Be wise! Insure your home and business with a progressive Canadian Company that has never resisted an honest claim.

St. Paul's Church.

Owing to the severe storm and cold last Wednesday it was impossible to hold the cottage service at Mr. Somers. To-night the service will be held at Miss Simons, and next Wednesday, if the roads will permit, at Mr. James Fryatt's.

The morning subject for next Sunday will be "Queen Esther" or "The Power of Prayer" and in the evening "The Prodigal's Good Resolution."

The Young People's Association held its annual meeting last evening at the residence of Mrs. J. Sill Jones. Miss Whitwell, treasurer, presented the financial report which was a very good one. The number of names now on the roll is over 30. The following officers were elected: Chairman, Canon Belt; Hon. Pres., Mrs. Belt; President, Miss Hanning; Vice Pres., Miss Bourne and Mr. D. F. Aiken; Sec. Treas., Miss Whitwell. The meetings are held every Tuesday evening.

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary next Tuesday will be at Mrs. MacFarlane's.

A Simcoe Assignment.

We are sure that the readers of The Record will learn with regret that the firm of Potts-Clark & Co. have found it advisable to assign. This took place on Feb. 18th to Mr. Geo. J. McKie, and was, we are informed, a voluntary act on the part of the firm. The statement is given out that the business at stocktaking last month showed a surplus of nearly ten thousand dollars and the firm's determination to liquidate by an assignment is due more to the continued ill health of Mr. Potts than any other cause.

A Poetical Appreciation.

Note: Edgar Ham, the well-known poet, of Portsmouth, Ohio, does the Pathfinder, the honor to break into song, in renewing his subscription, as follows:—

Dear Editor, I'm filled with fears
For my subscription's in arrears,
And so this bright and lovely day,
I'll try an honest debt to pay.
Please pardon me for my neglect,
For I have worried you I spect.
But if I must, I'll tell it right;
The times have been a little tight.
Still, through the gloom I see a rift,
For pay-day came the twenty-fifth.
Your paper calms my troubled mind;
Enclosed, six months' subscription find
And may the people ever bless
And crown your efforts with success.

One step won't take you very far
—you've got to keep on walking;
one word won't tell folks what you are—you've got to keep on talking;
one inch won't make you very tall
—you've got to keep on growing;
one little "ad" won't do it all—
you've got to keep 'em going.

A woman went into a newspaper office and wished to advertise for her husband who had disappeared. When told that they charged two dollars an inch she went out, saying it would break her up at that rate as her husband was over six feet long.
