WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1910.

The Civil Sabbath and Lord's Day Legislation.

From T. Albert Moore, General Secretary Lord's Day Alliance.

The "Canadian Publishing Association" has issued the first number of "The Dominion Sentinel," while it announces that "it is not published in the interest of any class whatsoever," yet every signed article is the product of a Seventh Day Adventist preacher and leader, and all its 48 pages are devoted to earnest explanations and exposition of the views of that body concerning Lord's Day Legislation. Many times I have obtained the publications of Seventh Day Adventists, and whether books, pamphlets, periodicals, or leaflets, they were without exception declared to be published by some association the name of which would never suggest the society in whose interest the publication was issued. Very clearly this Journal is issued in the interest of the people who are opposed to all legislation in regard to the Lord's Day.

Again and again in its 48 pages the writers declare that Lord's Day Legislation in general, and the Lord's Day Act of Canada, in particular, is religious, legislative. It is said to be an effort to "enforce the ten commandments by law," "a purpose to bring about a strict (religious) observance of the Lord's Day by law," a law "enacted under the plea to benefit man, often used to oppress him," etc. Yet in the whole 48 pages there is not named one section, sub-section, or clause of the Lord's Day Act that proves the charge that it is religious, or that in any way substantiates the sneering charges of these Seventh Day Adventist writers. The fact is that the Lord's Day Act nowhere seeks to enforce religion. Its single purpose is to preserve the civil right of citizens throughout the Dominion to that day as their weekly day of rest. When the Act was before the Canadian Parliament in 1906, for enactment, an effort was made by Seventh Day Adventists, and other Sabbath Keepers, to secure an amendment which was of a purely religious character. In fact the only effort to secure religious character. In fact the only effort to secure religious legislation in connection with the Lord's Day Act was promulgated by the Saturday Keepers.

Much emphasis is given in this "Sentinel" to the right of liberty of conscience, and to worship as each person chooses. On the front page and in several other places Queen's Victoria's well known words are quoted, and enforced; "Firmly relying on the truth of christianity we declare it to be our royal will and pleasure, that none be in any wise favored, none molested, or disquieted by reason of their religious faith or observances." This right and liberty to worship in peace is guaranteed throughout the empire by Act of Parliament. In this Dominion, R. S. C., 1906, Cap. 146, sec. 198 to 201, safeguard the civil right of every citizen to the practice in quietness and without interference of any religious rite or ceremony, according to the conscience of that citizen. This legislation, dealing directly with religion and religious worship, is accepted, acted upon, and by implication, highly commended in every article in this paper.

This writer, however, most frequently insists that the Sabbath is only, always, and singly a religious institution; and that at no time, nor under any circumstances is the Sabbath civil in its character. Yet the Sabbath has always been civil as well as religious. The same command which says, "Remember Sabbath to keep it holy," also commands that the day shall be a day of rest, when neither thou, nor thy wife, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gate, shall do any work. It is truly civil as well as religious. A Sabbath law is a six-day law, kindred to an eight-hour law, the first protecting the weekly rest after six days of labor, and the other protecting the daily rest after eight hours of labor. In both cases, "the liberty of rest for each, demands the law of rest for all."

The civil character of Sunday laws is well stated by the Supreme Court of New York, in a recent case.

"As a civil institution it (the Sabbath) is older than the government. The framers of the first constitution found it in existence; they recognized it in their acts. The stability of government, the welfare of the subject, and the interests of society have made it necessary that the day of rest observed by the people of a nation be uniform, and that its observance should be to some extent compulsory, not by way of enforcing the conscience of those upon whom the law operates, but by way of protecting those who desire and are entitled to the day.

"The Christian Sabbath, as one of the institutions of religion, may be protected from desecration by such laws as the Legislature, in their wisdom, may deem it necessary to secure to the community the privilege of undisturbed worship, and to the day itself that outward respect and observance which may be deemed essential to the peace and good order of society, and to preserve religion and its ordinances from open reviling and contempt, and this not as a duty to God, but as a duty to society and the State."

It is necessary that the purpose of the Lord's Day Act and the aim of the Lord's Day Alliance be clearly understood by the people. Hence the statements of the "Sentinel" should be corrected, and the object of its publication distinctly made known.

Woman's Woes.

Jarvis Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mr. W. E. Wood, of Talbot St., Jarvis, Ont., says,

"I have found more actual relief in Booth's Kidney Pills, which I obtained at Morrow's store, than I had found in any remedy previously tried. I have suffered greatly with rheumatism for the past two years, it being so severe as to prevent me from doing any work. My knees and arms have always been the worst and in all the different baths, prescriptions and everything else I have tried, I have found Booth's Kidney Pills to be of more actual benefit to me. Had I known of Booth's Kidney Pills when I first began treatment, I have every belief they would have entirely cured me of the dread and painful affliction. However I must give them credit for the relief they have given me and the manner in which they have benefitted my general health."
