BOYS CLOTHING
 WE WILL DRESS THE BOYS

It is not the money we take in at this counter that pleases us most it is the starting of a new crop of customers. When the mother comes to get garments for the little ones, then the little ones are most likely to come to get clothing for themselves when they grow up. So we cultivate future trade all the time, keeping the price marks on Boys Clothing very close to the cost marks. Come and see for yourself and put us to the test of these statements.
