This week the Right House throws open a new Toy Section—a great land of Make-Believe where little tots and their parents, too, will find much pleasure and enjoyment during the next few weeks.

The Right House also Opens This Week the New Confectionery Section

In this will be found the finest and purest of Candies made in Canada.

A very superior stock of Xmas gift Pictures—in many handsome styles of frames—has been installed on the third floor.

The immediate success of the new Toilet Goods Section The new Stationery Section, the new Shoe Shop, the new Furniture Floor and the new China and Crochery Sections is positive evidence that our building and buying efforts of the twelfth month are appreciated.

Jarvis shoppers will find it a great convenience to use a transfer shopping card at The Right House. Remember, please, that the Right House refunds your total railroad fare from your home to Hamilton and back again.

Cost of Criminals

The cost of criminals comes high to Canada. There are jail and penitentiaries, reformatories and industrial schools. There are jury trials and special police officers. There are expensive judges to be paid. There are the North West Mounted Police. There are the city police and village constables. There is the cost of keeping and guarding the prisoners. It is almost impossible to find the cost of the criminal of Canada. But with the development of the capitalist system more persons are forced to lead criminal lives and the cost of keeping the prisoners increases. The total cost of the criminal by product of capitalist exploitation is difficult to arrive at. The judging of criminals is done in many instances by judges who also decide civil cases. It is therefore impossible to find out what the criminal cost. However some items can be given: In British Columbia the Provincial Police cost $90,395 last year. The maintenance of the jails cost $21,297. The summoning and paying of jurors and witnesses cost $20,828. Prosecution and interpreters, $7,822. Keep of prisoners, $32,196. Special constables, $17,493. Transport of constables and prisoners, $31,200. Medical attendance on prisoners, $1,200. Miscellaneous expenses, $6,535. Jails and lockups, $9,392. These make a total of $207,988.

In Saskatchewan, criminal investigations cost $33,457. Jails $21,450. Police and prisoners $103,707. Jails, $17,498. These make a total of $174,112.

In the Province of Quebec the criminal prosecutions, police, jails, etc., cost $525,000. In addition a new jail was built at Montreal at a cost of $412,000.

In Ontario the police criminal prosecutions, etc., cost about $322,000 and the central prison and women's reformatory cost $150,000, making about $472,000 that the Provincial authorities spent for crime.

The penitentiaries cost the Dominion government last year $545,000. The mounted police cost the Dominion $650,000. The cost of criminal judges to the Dominion is at least $200,000. This makes $1,400,000 that the criminal by-product of capitalism cost the Dominion.

This cost worries the capitalist class. They do not like to pay the cost of their own system. They want to live on the labor of others and the brilliant idea has struck them of taking toll of the unpaid labor of prison wage slaves. There were 11,000 prisoners convicted in Canada in 1908. This makes a noble army of men, whose hands can be made profitable.

So Ontario sets her prisoners to work at the Guelph farm. She sends them up to Porcupine to make roads. She puts them to work in central prison where there is a machine shop, a shoe shop, a woollen mill, and a carpenter shop in operation. The goods produced last year in the Central Prison and sold amounted to $55,000. You do not need to go to the United States to find competition of prison labor with wage labor. It is taking place right in Toronto.

The penitentiaries of Canada produced $40,000 worth of goods last year by prison labor. And the system is being extended in Italy the government printing is done by convict labor. Who knows but that the Labor Gazette of Canada will yet be issued from Kingston penitentiary bearing the union label?
