Successful anniversary services were held in the Garnet Methodist church on Sunday last. The preaching of Rev. H. G. Livingston of Hamilton, though he was suffering from a severe cold, was an inspiration to the large number in attendance. The choir of the church also rendered excellent service. The Thankoffering was a generous one.

Dr. McCullough, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, says that unless the order requiring that all dogs be muzzled be more strictly enforced for some time to come than it has been of late, it may be made permanent. The laboratory authorities state that in the early days of the muzzling the condition was getting under control. When it became less well enforced the infection increased.

spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

few days with his brother Albert and wife in the village, returned to their home on Tuesday.

Gas Explosion.

On Saturday, Oct. 8th, at about noon, a gas well owned by the Holmes Gas Co. and situated on Elmas Melker's farm on the lake shore near Sellirk, blew seven links of casing out of the gas well straight up through the top of the derrick, over the tops of the trees in the bush, and the casing was landed about 75 yards from the well. The casing must have gone up in the air two or three hundred feet as it about 14 feet long and the derrick is about 65 feet high. There must have been a big rush of gas as the weight of the well is about 1500.

Sunday School Conven- tion.

The 44th annual Convention of the Haldimand Sunday School Association was held on Tuesday last, the Presbyterian church, Jarvis, and was well attended.

The morning session opened at 10 a.m. by singing "What a Friend we have in Jesus, followed by a portion of scripture being read by Rev.
D. M. Buchanan and prayer. Minutes of last meeting was read and adopted.

Mr. Andrew Rodges, President of the Association, gave an interesting address, complimenting the attendance from a distance and urged on the Association the advantage they had and to take advantage of the Sunday school.

The following committee were appointed viz: Nominating—Rev. D.
Buchanan, Mrs. W. H. Evans, and Rev. W. Garbham. Resolution—Rev. Mr. Smith, Rev. D. G. Mac-Phail and Mrs. Walker.

Rev. W. H. Garbham, of Cayuga, spoke on "The benefits of the Sunday School Convention." He said the importance of S.S. Conventions affords us an opportunity of reviewing Cradle Roll, Primary Department, Adult Class and organized Bible Class. He also urged the conservation of officers and teachers and also to make the very best of ourselves so as to be an inspiration to our fellow creatures.

Rev. E. W. Halpenny, Provincial Sec'y was the next speaker. He spoke along the line of organization in not having organizations in townships or districts, there being 450 of such as without any organization.
He said you would not employ any unskilled artisan to do work of any kind, but you put it in the hands of any one to teach a class, and that there are many superintendents who have never been in a Sunday School outside their own. At the conclusion of his instructive remarks he said what kind of a farmer would he be who never was outside his own farmer.

The afternoon session opened at 2:00 o'clock with devotional exercises conducted by Canon Bell, followed by a hymn. Report of the Nominating Committee on Social and Moral Reform. Five resolutions were taken up and carried.

Following is the Nominating Committee: President, Rev. D. G. Mac-Phail; Vice Pres., Mr. McGregor; Sec'y, Alex. Mitchell; Treas., J. W.
McClung; Elementary Grade, Mrs.
Wille; Teachers' Training, Mrs. A.
Meehan; Home Dept., W. H. Evans Temperance, Fred Hager; Missionary, Rev. A. C. Eddy. It was decided to hold the next Convention at Caledonia.

At the conclusion of a hymn Rev.
MacPhail referred briefly to his subject which was "The Sunday School the birthplace of the preacher." His text was "Of Zion it was said, this man and that man was born in her." If Canada is to become a great nation it must produce great men and the minister has a great work to perform as an inspiration force. The supply was not equal to the demand, all the different denominations are taxed to the utmost to meet the demands.
Now the Sunday School should be a producer to supply this need, and we believe it is. In olden times when there were no Sunday Schools children were taught to reverence God in the home, where the Bible was read and prayers said twice a day, but in this century, he regretted to say, the family altar was sadly neglected and the children were dumped on the Sunday School to be out of the way.

Mrs. R. V. Mills of Canfield gave an interesting, timely and suggestive paper on "Primary Round Table Conference." Teachers should study the child's nature and the different methods of teaching and should thoroughly prepare the lesson before the Sabbath. Several questions were asked from a primary leaflet which were discussed and satisfactorily answered.

Mr. Halpenny dwelt at some length on the Elementary Grades with illustration on the blackboard, of which subject he concluded in the evening.

At 4 o'clock Rev. A. C. Eddy took charge of the Question Drawer.
The matter of County Organization, the proportion of our population attending Sunday School, Missionary work and Review Sunday were discussed. A number took part in the discussion. It was agreed that the ideal should be to have everyone, without exception, on the cradle roll or home department or in actual attendance at the Sunday School. The missionary interest, it was hoped, would be increased in all the schools in the country.

After music rendered most ac-ceptably by the union choir, Rev.
W. J. Brandon of Caledonia, ably discussed the topic, "Why Save the Boy." He opened his remarks with "How often would I have gathered you as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings." Shall a woman save her chicken and not her boy.
Save the boy at as early an age as possible as there are dangers on every hand; dangers we sometimes see not, for instance the saloon and the cigarette habit, which is on the increase. He claims the young lady is largely responsible for the latter evil, by her allowing a young man to smoke in her presence. Save the boy in his youth as it is the easiest time and save a penitentiary. Save your boy he may the means of converting thousands. Some boys have slipped out of the home while fathers are becoming spiritual pleasure and thus seeking spiritually frozen.

The choir favored the audience with another beautiful anthem when Rev. N. D. MacKinnon of Caledonia delighted his hearers by giving a most interesting address on "The relation of parents to the Sunday School." The reverend gentleman gave a number of striking illustrations in the development of his subject, viz: Sunday School was looked upon as shifting the responsibility of the religious training from the parents' shoulders. No such risks would be taken in secular matters; the parents should see that the child should be fully equipped; the teacher is compelled to use means to make the child attend; parents should see that the child has the lesson prepared and lastly that the Sabbath Schools was never intended to take the place of home religious instructions.

The last speaker of the evening was Rev. Halpenny. His address on "The Call of the Child" will be long remembered as a thoughtful and earnest appeal to the older ones of the home and church on behalf of child life. The importance of the Sunday School and day school teachers position was emphasized, the importance of a sweet, wholesome home spirit to welcome and guard the child life was also aptly referred to. The Provincial Secretary concluded his address by referring to pathetic incidents of neglect in this important matter.

It was moved by Rev. Mr. Eddy and seconded by Rev. Mr. Bachanan that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered those who had given addresses at the Convention, special reference being made to the Provincial Secretary, who was making his first official visit to Haldimand County. The vote was carried unanimously. It was also moved by Mr.
Alex. Mitchell of Cayuga, and seconded by Rev. W. J. Brandon of Caledonia that a similar vote of thanks be given the Jarvis people who had so hospitably entertained the delegates. This vote was also enthusiastically carried. Appropriate reference was also made by Rev.
D. G. McPhail, the new President, to the assistance rendered by the union choir.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institutes in America, under supervision of R.R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., or Philadelphia, Pa.
