Census of Mortality, Disability and Compensation

The date of the next census for Mortality, Disability and Compensation is set June of next year, which is the same as the date for Population. It is a record for one year, and gives the information concerning all persons to whom the schedule relates for the year counting to the hour of midnight of 31st May 1911.

Personal description of every person who has died in the year, or suffered disability by accident or sickness and has received compensation therefor is required in the schedule, and for more complete identification reference is made to his family or household in the first schedule.

The name and sex of each person, and whether single, married, widowed, divorced or legally separated, together with the month of birth, the year of birth, the age at last birthday and the country or place of birth are required under personal description. His or her racial or tribal origin, religion and profession, occupation or trade, will also be recorded under the general heading of personal description, whether the reference is to persons who have died within the year or to persons who have been disabled within the year by accident or sickness, and to persons who sustained loss of time and earnings and to allowance or compensation for loss of life or time.

Under the heading of Mortality records will be entered showing the month of death in the census year, the disease or cause of death as described by the Berillon nomenclature, the place of death if it occurred away from home, and the name and address of the attending physician.

Disability and Compensation relate to accident or sickness, and under these heads records will be entered of the nature of loss or injury caused by accident in the year, cause of the accident, weeks of disability due to sickness or accident, and loss of salary or other earnings caused by sickness or accident.

Allowance or compensation made to employees is recorded under three heads: 1. The voluntary allowance which may be made to employee by employer for lost time through sickness or accident during the year. 2. Compensation in the year by employer under statute for (1) loss of life by accident, and (2) for injury by accident, which is required in some provinces of the Dominion. 3. Compensation by insurance for (1) loss of life and (2) for sickness or injury.

Saw Queen Victoria Crowned.

An old and highly esteemed resident of Norfolk passed away on Tuesday night in the person of Mr. James Cutting. Mr. Cutting was born in Suffolk County, England, 18th October, 1825, and had consequently almost achieved a life of 85 years. He was very fond of telling that as a boy he witnessed the coronation procession of Queen Victoria. He lived long enough to say that he had been a subject of five different British Sovereigns. In early life he learned the trade of printing, but when he came a youth of eighteen to Canada, he abandoned this for the lumber business which remained his life's occupation. For a long period he was actively engaged in shipping all kinds of lumber from Port Ryerse.

Deceased removed to Simcoe some thirty-two years ago and was prominent in town affairs until laid aside through advancing years.

He was married at Waterford to Sophia Chart, sixty-two years ago and she survives him as his widow. There also remains to inherit the memory of a good name six children—two sons and four daughters:—Messrs James H. and William R. Cutting, of Simcoe; Mrs. G. W. W. Brown, of Marquette; Mrs. Jas. L. Owen, of Cleveland; Mrs. K. J. McKie and Mrs. Jonathan Porter, of Simcoe.—Reformer.

Big Merger Under Way.

U. S. Company After Cheese Factories and Creameries.

For some weeks past a man who claimed to represent a large American concern, with a capital $1,000,000, has been circulating among the creameries and cheese factories in this section of the province, and, wherever possible, has been closing bargains for their purchase or lease. His project, as he explains it, contemplates the shipment of the cream or the major portion of it to the other side, and the utilization from the whey of a product known as caseine, used largely in the manufacture of celluloid. What would be left of the whey to be returned to the milk producers would be so denuded of all its valuable elements as to be of scarcely any use to them.

The importation of cream into the United States just now is rendered easier owing to the slight slip made in one of the schedules of the Payne-Altreich tariff now in force, by which the duty is fixed at so much per gallon instead of per quart, and therefore is just one-fourth of what was intended. There is, of course, no certainty that this favorable rate of duty will continue for any length of time. It is not for the hesitancy among the leaders of both parties in the United States to reopen the tariff question, the error of which it would probably be corrected at the earliest opportunity.

The uncertainty on this tariff question is one of the matters that is giving some concern to the farmers who are now sending their dairy produce to the factories in the merger. If the success of the project is dependent in any way on the maintenance of the United States duty on cream as it is at present, a four-fold increase in that duty may cause it to collapse, and the milk producers would like to know just where the contingency would leave them.

All those who have been approached have not consented to sell or lease their plants to the United States capitalists. Mr. J. M. Phillips of the Dunville creamery, has had a couple of visits from their representative, but no bargain was struck between them. Among the factories that are willing to sell, and which the agent of the merger has agreed to buy are those at Attercliffe, Bismarck and Hagersville. In each case a small deposit has been paid on the bargain, and the size and varying amount of this is one of the features of the deal that has caused much comment. For instance on the Attercliffe deal it is said only $10 was paid, and at Bismarck $20, while on the Hagersville factory, the bargain for which was closed last week, $50 was paid.

Whether it is desirable to have our cheese factories and creameries thus pass into the possession or control of United States capitalists is a matter which is giving the farmers interested some concern, and the majority of them are afraid it will not work out to their benefit. Just what the outcome may be no one seems to be sure, but, as one milk producer expressed it in discussing the project, "it looks as if the best we can get out of it will be the worst of it."—Dunville Gazette.

Self Taxation.

People in general seem to enjoy growling about the taxes. This subject makes a theme for conversation in the family. It inspires the loungers in the corner grocery, and its puts life into many a political campaign. Why, say, if you want to see a "hot" town meeting in a back-country township, just propose an extra tax for some new road and a bridge.

And yet there is one sort of tax that is not grumbled at. That is to say, the taxpayers themselves rarely denounce it or dispute it. They keep on paying it serenely all their lives unless they happen to tumble into the poor house. Their friends and relatives often scold about it, but they, while they feel its pressure, go right on paying out. Even the poor men keep these payments up when all others are cut off.

We refer to the tax which men pay to passion and appetite. The sums thus expended every year—say for tobacco and liquors only—are stupendous. This sort of tax paying begins early in life, when the youngster gets into the habit of treating himself to cider, beer, ale, port, whiskey, a cigarette or a cigar. After a bit he "can't get along without it," and so he binds himself to pay taxes to it all his life. He growls about his road tax when he grows up, his school tax, and his church tax, but his self-indulgence tax he passes out without a murmur even though it may have made him a poor man. Sometimes he is conscious of it, but he has become a slave to his habits and cannot free himself. The socialists do a great deal of growling about the burdens put by capital upon the poor. The worst burden poverty has to bear is the tax which it voluntarily pays to appetite and passion.
