Reading For Resting Time

A glance over the "Table of Contents" of August Canadian Home Journal assures one of many hours of most interesting reading. Under the heading "Fiction" are some excellent short stories. "At the Gate of Silence" is full of the atmosphere "O Visit to the Beaver Dam" not only contains excellent nature. "May Apples" is a bright sketches, and "Charlie Chipmonk's Career" an animal story especially attractive to children. "The Serials" A Honeymoon in Hiding" and "The House of Windows" grow more interesting every month. "A Woman Rancher in Alberta" by Gertrude E. Seton Thompson is the history one woman's success and a sketch of farm life in the West. "The Slim Disease and its Cure" is a subject that may not vitally effect any but large city residents, but is worth reading as a study of life which will interest every one. In the special women's Department, the Journal is especially strong for a summer number. There's an excellent assortment of summer gowns, house dresses, underwear, children's clothes. For the housekeeper, there are excellent recipes; menus for special luncheons; most attractively illustrated; canning, spicing, preserving; and many suggestions on all departments of housekeeping. A regular feature that is full of value is the article on "Home Decoration". The woman who desires to make her home more attractive with better selection of furnishings, better taste in selection and arrangement of pictures and flowers, will appreciate this article each month. The children are not forgotten and have their page: "Around the Heart" is an intimate talk on all home affairs by a very interesting woman; there are many fine papers from the Women's Institute proceedings.

Buy it now. Now is the time to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. This remedy has no superior. For sale by all dealers.

Thin Hair on Top

If Parisian Sage, the hair grower that T. E. Morrow guarantees, will not cause hair to grow where the hair is thinning out, nothing on earth will.

And we say to everybody, you can have your money back if Parisian Sage isn't the best hair grower, hair saver, hair beautifier and dandruff cure on the market to-day.

It stops itching scalp and falling hair and makes hair grow thick and abundantly, or money back, 50 cents for a large bottle. Parisian Sage makes the hair soft and brilliant and promotes growth.

(In Memoriam)

In loving memory of Wm. Keith only child of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mason who died Aug. 15th, 1910, aged 6 months, 15 days.

The Gardner walked into His Garden
It was very fair to see
And His Lord walked slowly beside him

Examining shrub and tree.
I think said the Gardener clasping
The plant with a gentle hand
This flower is much too tender
For the winds of this lower land
The Gardener loosened the soil
Raised the plant for the Lord to see
Then the gracious Master said with a smile

Give the little flower to Me.
And into the gates that are golden
And beyond the fadeless plain
Close by the wonder River of Life
He planted the flower again.
