RUSH FOR THE LAKE

Chicago Captains Almost Lose Ship's Insurance.

Had to be Out in the Lake by Midnight.

Chicago despatch: Forfeiture of $125,000 insurance, loss of their commissions and disgrace loomed up in front of four lake captains last night for three hours. Their boats were held fast in the Chicago River, the base of all lake seamen, and they had until midnight to pass out into Lake Michigan beyond the two-mile crib, for at that hour navigation for the season closed. They won by two minutes.

At about 8 o'clock the Jupiter, a big freighter, was steaming up the south branch of the river, when she went fast on the old Washington street tunnel. She swung into such a position that the Lehigh, Arthur Orr and Mohawk, also large freighters, were blocked. A fleet of tugs to pull her off the tunnel, while minutes ran into hours, and the captains became frantic. When it seemed that all hope of clearing the river harbor before the allotted time had gone, the captain of the Lehigh decided on a desperate plan. He ordered his crew to push the Jupiter over with his own vessel. Slowly the Lehigh moved until her prow came against the Jupiter, and then with puffing and splashing the big liners creaked and the Jupiter slid over.

The race for the lake began with the captains holding their watches and blowing whistles for bridges. At exactly 11:58 the Orr, the last of the steamers passed the two-mile crib, and all had complied with the lakes insurance law.

THE VESSEL SEEN IN THE BREAKERS

Particulars of the Wreck of the Steamer Raleigh.

No Life Seen on Board the Vessel This Morning.

Efforts of Crew to Reach the Shore.

Buffalo despatch: At 8 a.m. this morning the steamer Raleigh, blown upon the rocks off Sherston, Ont., yesterday, could still be seen among the breakers a quarter of a mile off shore, but there was no sign of life on the wreck to indicate that Engineer Wm. Pritchard was still alive. The body of the other victims of the wreck: Fred Wise, a sailor, and his wife, Mrs. Wise, the steamer's cook, were washed ashore last night and it was reported that a third body had been tossed up on the beach two miles below the scene of the wreck. Members of the crew have started down the beach to ascertain if the third body is that of Engineer Pritchard. The storm is still raging, and it seems likely the Raleigh may break up at any time.

The third victim was picked up later last night half a mile east of the wreck, according to G. B. Snyder, of Ridgeway. Dr. Snyder said last night that the man had not been identified, but that it was believed he was one of the crew of the Raleigh.

At 5 o'clock the crew, with the exception of Pritchard, decided that it would be safer to start for shore in the small boats than to risk being washed away when the vessel began breaking up. The first boat which left the ship contained seven of the crew and was in charge of the second mate. They were badly buffeted during the short trip to the beach, and just as they were nearing safety the little craft was boarded by a high sea and swamped.

Meanwhile the beach was patrolled by men watching the outcome of the attempt to reach shore, and these, wading into the surf, lent willing hands in pulling the half-drowned survivors to the beach.

The second boat, containing Captain Beauvais, the mate, and the cook and stewardess, who were drowned, left the vessel half an hour afterward only to be swamped in the whirl of surf which edged the beach. It was here that Cook Wise and his wife were lost. The rescuers started into the surf, but the two were carried under before help arrived.

About twenty minutes after the captain's boat had left the vessel the steamer's stern broke off.

Men were standing by on the beach when the first sight all night watching for a favorable opportunity to get Pritchard off.

At midnight marine men said they were powerless to go to the mate's assistance because the seas were so high that the boat could not tug. It is said that there is only one tug, the Frank W., owned by the Great Lakes Towing Co., of Cleveland, which is seaworthy enough to put out, and it was not expected that an attempt would be made to reach him before morning unless the wind abated. The cargo of pulpwood on the steamer was considerably damaged. Captain Beauvais, the mate and the seven men in the first boat are being cared for at Abraham Bear's farm house near Sherston's Point.

All were exhausted, but are gradually recovering.

WEALTHY GREEK

And His Egyptian Wife Held at Boston.

Boston, Dec. 4.—George Rusky, a wealthy Greek, who has traveled all over the world and amassed a fortune by speculation during his wanderings, together with his Egyptian wife, whom he married a short time ago in Cairo, is being detained here to-day by the immigration officers. The wife is thought to be suffering from an eye disease, which will compel her exclusion, and the man is held pending investigation as to his citizenship. He claims to be an American citizen, having been naturalized in San Francisco some years ago.

Rusky was one of the first to reach the Klondike when the search for gold began. He has prospected for gold and silver in all parts of North America, as well as in Asia, Africa, Australia and South America. He is now on his way to the Amazon. ## GARBAGE MEN

Poisoning Food of New York Strike Breakers.

New York, Dec. 4.—Rumors that striking garbage men from the New York street cleaning department are attempting to poison the food served to strike breakers by the city, started a panic among men employed in one of the uptown stations to-day. The rumors found some foundation in the sudden death at Bellevue Hospital of one of the strike breakers. The cause of death was given by the hospital physicians as "unknown," but it was announced that the symptoms were suspicious and an autopsy will be held.

Several other strike breakers are said to be suffering from stomach troubles of unusual character and an investigation was ordered by the Board of Health to-day.

DID LITTLE HARM

Bombardment by Italians at Mocha Seaport.

Perim, Dec. 4.—The bombardment of the fortified seaport of Mocha, on the coast of Arabia, caused considerable damage, but only three Turks are reported to have been killed. The Turkish gunners in the fort replied to the firing from the Italian warships with fifteen shells, all of which, however, fell short of the last one, which passed over an Italian cruiser, causing it to withdraw.

It is reported that the bombardment will probably be continued on the 5th by a more powerful Italian warship.

RASH SURGERY GAVE NEAR DYING

Head Broke Out. Spread to Arms, Legs and Entire Body. Richard So He Would Scratch Until Blood Ran. One Box of Cuticura Ointment and Nearly One Cake of Cuticura Soap Cured Him. Has Had No Return.

"When my boy was about three months old, his head broke out with a rash which very itchy and ran a weedy fluid. We tried everything we could but he got worse all the time, till it spread to his arms, legs and then to his entire body. He got so bad that he came near dying. The rash would itch so that he would scratch till the blood ran, and a thin yellowish stuff would be all over his pillow in the morning. I had to put ointment on his hands to prevent him tearing his skin. He was so weak and run down that he took fainting spells as if he were dying. He was almost a skeleton and his little hands were thin like claws."

"He was here about eight months when we tried Cuticura Remedies. I had not had him down in his cradle in the daytime for a long while. I washed him with Cuticura Soap and put on one application of Cuticura Ointment and he was so much better that he could sleep. You don't know how glad I was to be better. It took one box of Cuticura Ointment and nearly one cake of Cuticura Soap to cure him. I think our boy would have died had he not used Cuticura Remedies and I shall always remain a firm friend of them. He was cured more than twenty years ago, and there has been no return of the trouble. I shall be glad to have you publish this true statement of his cure." (Signed) Mrs. M. C.
