When sin shall be no more,
When men shall meet

When evil passion
In each heart is stilled;
Then shall the Christmas message
Be fulfilled.

The man who works hard enough boosting his own business will have no time left knocking his competitor.

Don't make the mistake of thinking the man believes what you say simply because he does not call you a liar.

"Rot" says the man who thinks advertising don't pay. "Dry rot" says the Receiver at the post-mortem.

We carry a full line of paste. It is pure white of smooth consistency and free from lumps; adapted equally to house and office use.—The Record.

Gain may be temporary and uncertain; but ever while you live expense is constant and certain; and it is easier to build two chimneys than to keep one in fuel.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases.

B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me. For sale by all dealers.

The winter is sure to come before the ploughing is all done, and the tax collector before the pocket is full enough to meet his demands. Delays in summer that might have been avoided give the carpenter and mason cold fingers when the snows begin to fall. So the story runs through the whole volume from the chapter on farming to the final page. Indeed, it may, that if humanity were more provident the stresses of life would fall less heavily, but men and women might "miss a heap of fun."

The delivery clerk in the post-office has much to annoy him. There is a drummer who wants any letter that may come for him during the next ten days forwarded to him at London or Toronto; the man who wants to know if a letter is posted now will go before the 3 o'clock train, the boss mailed a letter without a stamp and wants it back, six men who forgot their box keys and want their mail out to them; the woman who knows there must be a letter for her, and asks the clerk to "look again please"; the man who gets angry and wants the postmaster to "come out on the sidewalk just two minutes"; and the school boy at girl who goes in regularly every day to ask for mail when they do not get a letter or a paper in a week.

Only 40 sacks of onions left at Allen's.

If you are salting pork go to Burwash for your salt.

MARRIED—On Wednesday, Dec. 6, 1911, at the Methodist parsonage, Tyrrell, by Rev. J. W. Kitching, Mr. Cecil C. Snively, of Waterford, and Miss Ada Misner, of Townsend.

It would save a lot of running around and the clerks a lot of useless work if the Christmas buyers could consult the merchants' ads as to where to go to get just what they want.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Andrew Rodgers she being confined to her bed and under the doctor's care. That she may soon recover is the wish of her many friends.

Lots of Christmas presents at the Simcoe Bazaar that are not displayed such as Fountain Pens, Pocket Pencils, Combs, Mirrors, Purses, Mouth Organs, Watches for Boys, Beads for Girls, etc.

It is right to appear always at our best. Give to the world your brightest thoughts, your most courteous speech, the outcome of your kindest impulses and purest motives, so shall the world be made glad because you have lived.

To complain that life has no joys while there is a single creature whom we can relieve by our bounty assist by our counsels, or enliven by our presence, is to lament the loss of that which we possess, and is just as rational as to die of thirst with the cup in our hand.

Which is the most pathetic figure—the girl peering into the window of the gent's furnishing store for a Xmas present for her fellow or a young chap at a jeweller's window debating within himself whether to buy a locket or bracelet for his best girl.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

Big boom in Christmas business at the Simcoe Bazaar last week. Thousands of people appreciated the piles of seasonal goods, plainly priced marked. We fear too many people and not enough goods the last week. Don't put off until the last week. Come in the forenoon if you can.

"My, I did not think I should be so pleased with that Housekeepers' Waxed Paper, why its a pleasure to do my baking now, I just feel like baking every day. I never have my cakes sticking to the tins or breaking since I commenced using it. It is worth twice the price. You can get a package for 10c. at the Record office." The above are remarks we hear every day.

See our Crepe Paper. The high grade decorating paper for ball rooms, booths, store windows, paper novelties, including lamp and candle shades, table cloths, flower pots covers, etc., and many other decorative purposes. These rolls nominally contain seven feet, but as the paper is finely creped and very elastic, they easily stretch twelve feet. The Record.

Thoughtfulness of others is the keynote of Christmas. "As ye do it unto the least of these," said the Founder of the day. Have you thought of the tired clerks. As you treat them you are treating Him. Let that sink home. The greatest kindness you can do these clerks is to shop early. If the majority of people would do that the clerks could enjoy their Christmas, too, for they would not be tired to death by working at a killing pace till midnight on Christmas eve.

This week we are pleased to announce the marriage of another former young man of Jarvis, in the person of Cecil Scott, son of Mrs. Roxa Scott, of Reesor, Man. The young lady of his choice was Miss Ida, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Corbett, and the happy event occurred on Wednesday, Dec. 6, 1911. Rev. Scott of Winnipeg performing the ceremony. The Record joins the many friends in wishing the happy couple a pleasant voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Fred Stallwood, who has been engaged with F. Swing for the past three years, sails to-day on the "Royal George" for Highwycombe Bank, Eng., where he intends visiting his parents and other friends. We wish him bon voyage.

We are certainly having some remarkable weather. Several days last week were quite balmy and spring-like. This week, however, although quite showery, is quite mild. It must be Indian Summer we are enjoying. May it continue are the sentiments of all.

On the death of an advertising man at St. Louis recently, doctors made an examination of the dead man's stomach and found a button hook, a hatpin, three keys, a lead-pencil, a belt-buckle, a toy pistol, three nails, a needle and a themometer. He probably had been working for those magazines which insist on knowing the genuineness of an article before permitting its advertising in their columns.

On Sunday last Rev. Johnson occupied the pulpit in Knox church. His sermons were powerful, interesting and full of thought. He is a very fluent speaker and his hearers were very much impressed. At the morning and evening services the congregations were favored with three solos. Miss Myrtle Currie of Hamilton rendering "Calvary" and "Face to Face" and Mr. Moore that beautiful solo entitled "Penitent." Miss Currie is the happy possessor of a magnificent voice to which, at times, there seems no limit, while correspondingly sweet and sympathetic in the most delicate passages. Mr. Moore has a pure rich, powerful voice and puts his soul into his singing, feels the sentiments of his song and delights his hearers with his splendid expression and sweet tones.

We congratulate Frank Rodgers on his appointment to the teller's box in the Bank of Hamilton at Chesley. During his short term in the Bank here he has won the admiration and respect of not only the bank staff but the general public. He was always painstaking and ever thoughtful of the welfare of others, hence he made himself worthy of his promotion. Before leaving town he was presented with a beautiful volume of Scott's poetical works by J. A. Campbell, manager of the bank here, in appreciation of work faithfully done. The choir of the Methodist church, of which he was a member, gave him a pair of ebony military brushes in a leather case as a reminder of their good-will and best wishes. Not only in the home will his absence be felt but also in church and social circles. "Frank" has the confidence of all and the whole community wishes him every success and recommends him to the people of Chesley. His successor in the bank here is Arthur McAlpin of Hamilton and we cordially welcome him to our town. Layton Holmes, son of I. W. Holmes of town has accepted a position in the bank as a Junior.

Mud! Mud! Mud!!!

Homer Smithson of Brantford is in town to-day.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the congregation of Knox church on Friday afternoon, Dec. 22, 1911, at 2 o'clock, p.m.

Perfumes in Fancy Xmas packages, Manicure and Toilet sets, Hand Mirrors, Hair Brushes, Cloth Brushes, Shaving Mirrors and Brushes, Safety Razors, etc., at Jarvis Drug Store.

"Madam," said the tramp, you gave me three doughnuts a while back. Would you mind adding another to make it four? "Gladly," said the lady, all smiles, and she wrapped a big doughnut in a newspaper and handed it to him. "So you like my doughnuts, do you?" "No, madam, it ain't that," said the tramp. "We and some friends down in the holler wants to play quito."

The following taken from the Exceter Advocate of last week refers to a brother of Miss Anne Saunders of The Record staff: "C. H. Saunders editor of the Advocate, while running a Gordon press on Tuesday morning met with an unfortunate accident by which he had the last three fingers of his left hand badly smashed. A printed sheet had fallen from the grippers and in reaching for it his Masonic ring became caught in the machine and held his hand until the press closed, thus squeezing the three fingers, breaking the bones and bruising the flesh greatly. The accident will prevent the hand being used for a considerable time." The injured fingers, fortunately, will not be amputated, but they will be stiff for a time.

The "Bachelor Club" of Jarvis have every reason to feel elated over the grand success which attended their "At Home" given on Friday evening in the Music Hall. The hall was very tastefully decorated for the occasion with bunting, evergreens and flowers. It was a difficult task to single out "The Belle of the Ball," so daintily and prettily were all the costumes and so bewitching and captivating were the fair sex that it behooves the reporter to be mum. During the evening a dainty dejeuner was served. The merry-makers claimed the floor and music and happiness reigned supreme until the wee sma' hours of the morn, when the happy gathering came to end, everybody feeling that an enjoyable time had been spent. The London Harpers furnished excellent music.

Don't Forget us

We carry one of the swellest lines of Christmas novelties ever shown. Tags, seals and token cards. Come in and see them. The Record.

Christmas Bells

Call and see our choice variety of Christmas Bells. They are just the thing you need to complete your decorations.

A Millinery Bargain Unusual

Saturday morning The H. S. Falls Co. of Simcoe will place on sale 27 trimmed Hats worth up to $3.50, your $1.25. Also 19 trimmed Hats worth up to $4.50, your choice $1.75. It's the millinery bargain of the year.

Doing up the Packages

To send a package that isn't "Christmas looking" is bound to detract from the gift. There are stickers of all sizes and shapes, with Santa Claus, holly sprays, red and gold seals, "Merry Christmas" and gayly bedecked trees upon them. These stickers not only make a parcel more attractive, but they are a great help in tying up, especially a bulky parcel like a sofa pillow, which requires several sheets of tissue paper. Red, bright green or holly baby ribbon is used for doing up most parcels that are not to go through the mail. The adhesive red and green paper ribbon is often substituted for the other kinds, or sometimes the outer wrapper has the pasted ribbon, while the inner tissue paper is tied. Inside, instead of using a regular calling card, the name of the sender is written on one of the bright Christmas cards that come in packages.

To Advertisers

Owing to the heavy rush of work at this time of the year we request our advertisers to send in their copy on Monday. Copy that comes in on Tuesday takes its chance of being set. We must have time to arrange our matter so let us have your copy not later than Monday noon.

Why do You Farm

Is it just to put in the time or for profit. No doubt you will say for profit. In that case you should take a weekly paper that looks after the business end of the farm. That paper is The Weekly Sun. Its market reports are without equal. They have made many dollars for Sun readers. They say so. When renewing your subscription do not forget The Sun, the farmer's business paper.

Ads are Good Reading

A waiter at Versailles, France, named Goldschmidt, employed in a small cafe was reading a newspaper recently over a customer's shoulder, in a manner peculiar to garçons, when he noticed the advertisement of a Lyons lawyer who was seeking a person of his name. The astonished waiter wrote to the lawyer and learned that since 1891 a fortune of $200,000 had been awaiting him.

Wanted to know her Name.

A minister of Fulton, Kansas, was moved by the grief of a husband whose wife was to be buried and sought to commiserate him in the following manner: "My brother I know that this is a great grief that has overtaken you, and though you are compelled to mourn the loss of this one who was your companion and partner in life, I would console you with the assurance that their is Another who sympathizes with you and longs to embrace you in the arms of unfeeling love." To this the bereaved man replied by asking, as he gazed through tears into the minister's face, "What's her name?" —Exchange.
