The Little Christ

The stable roof was dim and mean, The embers on the floor spread thin; There was no fire to warm him by When the little Christ came in. There was no fire to warm him by, The humble, witless oxen saw How helpless he did lie.

So helpless, and the stall so dim! And yet so near the darkness riven Of an exchanged chanting him, With Cherubin and Seraphim: "Glory to God in Heaven!"

His tiny whimper broke above The patient sound of Mary's sigh; The drowsy cattle stirred to hear The little Christ's low cry. The silent cattle heard him weep, And waked and lifted gentle heads; Careless, near by, on dreamful beds, The inn-folk were asleep.

While to their rooking camels bent, Three dazed the desert from afar, One clear light in their firmament, One cry among them as they went: "The Star! The Star! The Star!"

The very inclement weather of Saturday and the bad state of our roads, made business dull. In fact our merchants have felt a slump in business during December, owing to so much wet weather.

The Misses Margaret and Ruby Smith, Gladys Hewitt, Grace Lewis who have been attending the Normal School at Hamilton, returned home last week to spend the Christmas and New Year holidays.

Mrs. Schuyler and her niece, Miss Hens Porter attended the Guelph Fair last week for a few days. While in Guelph Mrs. Schuyler visited her children, Roy and Miss Violet who are attending the Agriculture School at that place.

Have you ever used Argum. It is an artificial rubber. It contains no acid or other chemical which can in any way injure the skin or fabric. It can be used for cleaning soiled gloves, hats, white kid, tan or canvas shoes, wall paper, or removing grease or other stains from dress goods. It is indispensable in the house, if the dirt has hardened, it may be necessary to scratch it with a finger nail, in order to loosen it. Do not wet the dirty spot or the Argum. Only use a cake at the Record office.

The man who makes a success of an important venture never waits for the crowd. He strikes out for himself. It takes nerve, it takes a great lot of grit; but the man that succeeds has both. Any one can fail. The public opinion of the man who has enough confidence in himself to take a chance. These chances are the main things, after all. The man who tries to succeed must expect to be criticised. Nothing important was ever done but the doubting member considered progress by doubting the possibility. Success is the accomplishment of that which most people think can't be done.

The situation in the wheat region of the Canadian West is said to be the worst ever known, due to the shortage of cars and inability of the railroads to handle the crop promptly. The movement has been so slow that considerable wheat has rotted on route.

Visitor in a printing-office: "What is your rule for punctuating?" The "Apprentice" (lately promoted to the case): "I set as long as I can hold my breath and then put in a comma; when I yawn I put in a semi-colon, and when I want a chew of tobacco I make a paragraph."

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

To all the many readers of this paper we wish a Merry Xmas. May St. Nicholas fill their stockings with their heart's desire and may they enhance and ensure their own happiness by making others happy. Most of us wait too long to revive the true Christmas spirit and in place of having a Merry Christmas we have a Worry Christmas.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

My, I did not think I should be so pleased with that Housekeepers' Waxed Paper, why it's a pleasure to do my baking now. I just feel like baking every day. I never have my cakes sticking to the tins or breaking since I commenced using it. It is worth twice the price. You can get a package for 10c. at the Record office." The above are remarks we hear every day.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me. For sale by all dealers."

A Spokane school-girl was required to write an essay of 250 words about an automobile. She submitted the following: "My uncle bought an automobile. He was riding out in the country when it started going up a long hill. I guess this is about 25 words. The other 225 are what my uncle said while he was walking back to town, but they are not fit for publication."

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thomas E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

Men apparently do not appreciate the honor that is conferred on them when they are selected as Jurymen. Usually they regard their empanelment as a nuisance to be avoided if possible, but they may change their opinion when they learn that the Toronto Legal Council of Women is urging that women be eligible to serve on juries.

The first public meeting of the Union Literary Society will be held in the Sunday School rooms of the Methodist Church on Friday evening (22nd) of this week at 8 o'clock. Among the interesting features of the program will be a debate "Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished." J. J. Parsons has kindly consented to occupy the chair. The public are cordially invited.

It will prove welcome news indeed if the statement is well founded that an effective vaccine has been discovered against dread typhoid. Wonderfully successful tests in an U. S. army station by two well known medical authorities, furnish details that such is in all probability the case. Thus, slowly but surely, is scientific research relegating once human scourges to the realms of preventable diseases, or, at least, minimizing their effects to the non-danger point.

Xmas Fair

The third annual Xmas Fair was held on Tuesday, Dec. 19, and despite the very bad weather the fair was a great success, financially and otherwise. The hall was packed to its utmost capacity and a grand display of turkey, geese, ducks, apples, butter and eggs were quite in evidence, and although not quite up to the average of last year it was a success nevertheless. The class of turkey shows were all and the entries in each class were not less than seven. Geese and ducks also were an excellent quality and eight entries were made in each class. Chickens were the best ever exhibited. As to the butter display, the entries were also well filled, as might also be said of the egg exhibit. In the special prize of Wm. Thompson, the judge was at the fair and the prize was awarded to the exhibitor who had the best turkey and city butter, and the prize was awarded to the exhibitor who had the best turkey and city butter, and the prize was awarded to the exhibitor who had the best turkey and city butter.

Dougherty-Curwase.

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Curwase, was on Wednesday, Dec. 20, 1911, the scene of a very pretty event, it being the marriage of their only daughter, Beth Agnes Lillian, to Arthur Dougherty. At one o'clock, p. m., the guests, to the number of thirty, assembled in the parlor, and as the sweet strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Delois Downing, London, floated through the house, the winsome bride, gowned in a beautiful creation of white embroidered net, entered, leaning on the arm of her father, where the groom awaited her. Miss Gladys Dougherty, who was best woman, escorted the bride, while Bruce Curwase supported the groom through the trying ordeal. Rev. A. C. Eddy, B. A., B. D., of Methodist Church, Jarvis, pronounced the mystic words that made two happy souls as one. At the conclusion of the ceremony and after the bride had been duly saluted and the happy couple heartily congratulated the guests, headed by the bridal party adjourned to the dining room, where a most tempting and appetizing repast was partaken. In an inner room the wedding gifts were placed and a great deal of time was spent by the fair sex in viewing them, but space will not allow us to comment there, suffice to say they were numerous, costly and beautiful, as well as useful and ornamental, and if these tokens are an emblem of well wishes we predict for Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty a long, happy and prosperous wedded life. The home throughout was very artistically decorated for the occasion. The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Brantford and other points. On their return they will settle down to the sterner realities of life on the Scotch Line, three miles from Jarvis. The Record joins the well wishes.
