January weather this year has been the most unpleasant we have experienced in years, owing to the frequent changes in the temperature. Nearly every day sees a thaw with fog and rain followed with cold and frost. The result is heavy colds and sickness for many of the people.

It is not a bit too early to talk about and to lay plans for building operations during the coming spring and summer. As everybody knows, we need more modern dwellings at a reasonable rent. An honest and an economical man does not fancy the idea of giving half of his monthly wages for house rent. Our local capitalists ought to encourage such honest and industrious men by building houses that can be rented cheaply and yet be reasonably profitable for the investor.

The Haldimand Municipal Association will hold its third annual meeting in the Court House, Cayuga, on Tuesday, Feb. 7, 1911, at 10 a.m. Membership comprises all municipal clerks, treasurers and assessors of each municipality in the county. The two chief subjects up for discussion are "The Vital Statistics Act," and matters pertaining to public health, by Dr. John W. McCullough, chief health officer of Ontario, and "Local Option Contests and By-Laws Thereof," and general procedure, by an experienced speaker. There are several other interesting features on the program.

A local newspaper is absolutely necessary to any community. It is the home paper that keeps the people of the community in touch with each other by giving them all the news of their own neighborhood and county. For that alone they are of value and worth far more than the small subscription price. They keep the local pride and progressive spirit aroused and in various ways are worth far more to a community than community ever spend on them. The daily paper, with its large news service and quicker facilities, may, in some instances overshadow the weekly, but the weekly home paper fills a place in the hearts of the people that a daily cannot fill. It comes to your home as an old tried friend, while the daily enters as a stranger.

Haldimand's Warden

Henry Pyle, Esq., Reeve of Dunnville

Mrs. John Ivey is confined to the house owing to illness.

There will be a meeting of the Ruri-decanal Chapter of Haldimand in St. John's Church, Cayuga, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 7th and 8th.

Mr. Hutchison and bride of Sombra Township have been spending part of their honeymoon at the home of Thomas Phibbs, uncle of the bride.

The License Commissioners for Haldimand held their first meeting for the year at Hagersville on Tuesday. No business of importance was transacted.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in Knox's church next Sunday. The preparatory services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Wm. Bosfield received a telephone message on Monday morning that her brother, James Cowan of Hagersville, was seriously ill and immediately left for that place to visit him.

Mrs. Henry Jackson, who has been seriously ill the past three weeks, is at present resting much easier. The wish of her many friends is that she many soon regain her wonted health.

Rev. Dr. Gedy of Toronto preached in Knox church last Sunday. Dr. Gedy was formerly pastor of St. Andrew's church, Windsor, but is now collecting funds for the building of a new Knox church in Toronto.

To speak the truth, the whole and nothing but the truth may be all right and essential in a court of law, but would create havoc and disaster for a newspaper. Events are transpiring every week in our town and elsewhere, we suppose, that we dare not for the sake of domestic peace even mention, much less obey the law's mandate.

Every line of printed matter in a newspaper costs its publisher something. One would not go into a grocery store to ask the proprietor to hand out ten pounds of sugar for nothing, even though the gift may not be a large one. If the beneficiary of advertising does not pay for it the proprietor must shoulder the cost. People do not seem to understand that a newspaper pays its expenses by renting space, and that it is just as much entitled to collect rent for every day that space is occupied as a landlord is for the house he rents to a tenant.

The Sabbath services are to be followed by a congregational tea and program on Monday evening, Feb. 13th. Friends of Mr. Wass and friends of the Methodist church will please feel at liberty to come with their baskets and enjoy the social evening.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The members of the congregation enjoyed the annual reunion in the school room on the evening of St. Paul's Day, Jan. 25th. Some who, on account of illness or of the dark and threatening evening, were unable to come, were greatly missed but the majority of the congregation was present and spent a very pleasant evening together. Tea was served from 6 to 8 o'clock, after which a short programme was presented consisting of songs by Mrs. Murdoch, the Misses Guyot, and Miss Ethel Snyder, and recitations by Misses Lizzie Cade and Laura Belt. Short addresses by the rector and church wardens and the singing of a hymn brought the evening to a close.

McSorley Gets Five Years

The trial of John McSorley which was held at Cayuga came to a termination on Tuesday and the verdict passed by Judge Douglas was a sentence of five years in Kingston penitentiary. The particulars of the case are all too well known. On Dec. 21st, a shipper in the Montreal storage warehouse on opening a barrel supposed to contain poultry was horrified at finding the body of an aged man, which afterwards proved to be that of Matthew Johnston, caretaker of Presbyterian church, Jarvis. The barrel had first been shipped to Toronto, then redressed and sent to Bishop's Medical College, an institution long before affiliated with McGill. It was at this College where McSorley studied in his younger days. He admitted disinterring the body of Mr. Johnston, and shipping it on Nov. 26th as poultry, then reshipping it to Montreal on Nov. 28. He was shortly after arrested and taken to Cayuga, and where on Tuesday he received the above sentence as a penalty for his crime.
