Reciprocity Controversy in Full Swing.

A Masonic Disavowal—Declining Railway Earnings—Rumors Here Mergers—Sending of Canadian Abroad Criticized.

(From our own Correspondent)

Montreal, Feb. 20th.—The reciprocity controversy is now in full swing through the land. From the Atlantic to the Pacific it is the chief topic of discussion, not only to the north but to the south of the international border, and the question has even invaded the legislative halls of Great Britain. No doubt the storm will continue to rage around this bone of contention for some weeks yet, and not until the matter is decided by the Canadian Parliament and the American Congress one way or the other will it let up. Deputations are heading for Ottawa to oppose the agreement while those who agree are very little heard from.

One of the weightiest pronouncements against the agreement was made by the Montreal Board of Trade, an organization which generally gives the cue to similar bodies, at least in Eastern Canada. Yet this pronouncement was by no means unanimous. While Montreal is the king pin of the protected interests and shouts the loudest when vested interests are in danger there are yet many able men who do not see eye to eye with their business brethren and do not hesitate to say so.

STEEL INTEREST ANXIOUS

A great deal of interest centres around the action of the government in connection with the steel industry. The rods are placed on the free list by the agreement and the bounty, which was given to help create it, expired in June. The Dominion Steel Corporation which is the chief industry affected, claims that with this class of their product exposed to American and other foreign competition, and no bounty, it will be wiped out completely. They want the bounty extended to enable them to get on a better footing. It was thought pretty sure that with the eastern political pressure which was brought to bear Mr. Fielding would agree to the proposal but the matter has been decidedly complicated by the sheet steel people at Morrisburg who went to Ottawa with a big deputation, and practically demanded that if the Dominion Steel people will give a continuance of the bounty, they wanted a bounty too. Mr. Fielding's reply was not a very cheering one, but the matter is still under advisement.

NOT WORRIED BY POOR CROPS

The farmers of Canada are not worried because the crops in certain sections of the Northwest were not up to the mark last year, if the extent of their purchases of farming implements can be taken as a guide. For instance, the Sawyer Massey Company of Hamilton, Ont., shows net profits for the year of $184,721, an increase of $29,502 over the previous year, making the common stock, after an allowance for the preferred, a 5.3 per cent issue. Even at that, the output was curtailed because of delays incidental to the formation of the new company. So favorable has been the showing of this company, by the way, that arrangements have been made to list the stocks on the Toronto exchange. The preferred selling at 87, returns 8.04 per cent and has a particularly bright future as there are no bonds ahead of it and the assets amount to more than $150 for every $100 of preferred stock. The common stock has a book value of $60, but apparently it will be selling soon at a higher level. There is every reason to believe that 1911 will be a very favorable year for the makers of farming utilities and that the holders of industrial stocks generally will profit accordingly.

A MASONIC DISAVOWAL

The Masonic Grand Lodge of the Province of Quebec is holding its annual session here and the opportunity has been seized to make a formal disavowal of any connection with the Grand Lodge of the Orient, the French organization, whose members in this city, members of Emancipation Lodge, are just getting settled down after a great stir which commenced last summer prior to the Eucharistic Congress and lasted for several months. Antagonism to the Roman Catholic Church is a specialty of the French organization while quite the reverse is the case with the English Free Masonry. They do not want to be mixed up with such a crowd and do not hesitate to say so. In the meantime the Roman Catholic Church authorities make no distinction.

EARNINGS DOWN, STAGY UP

The rather unusual spectacle has been presented of a rather sharp decline in the approximate earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway during January, due doubtless to the smaller crop last season while the price of the stock in the market is going up, and everyone seems bullish. The rise is also the more remarkable in face of the prophecies of dire disaster if the Reciprocity agreement goes through, one of these to be hardest hit being the Canadian Pacific. The newspapers favoring Reciprocity naturally ask how this can be in view of the fact that much has been said of searing British capital away by the agreement while it is well known that the price of Canadian Pacific stock is practically fixed and controlled by the London market. If the business of the company was likely to be utterly destroyed as suggested they think the stock would not advance in the face of such a prospect. The heaviest decline in earnings shown yet this year was for the first week in February, the decrease being $278,000 compared with a year ago. The maximum earning capacity of the company is reached in October and the minimum comes in February. It has to be remembered that this year's records are being compared with a banner year and some further expansion will have to take place before the records created in 1910 can be beaten. In the meantime the company announces its intention of invading a new field by running steamships to the West Indies and creating a link of hotels.

MERGERS IN RUM MAD

There seems to be no limit to the number of mergers of a commercial character and apparently the thing will only stop when the supply of business concerns to be merged is exhausted. Ambitious promoters have been in very great evidence for months and apparently the stock buying public is pretty well loaded with their wares and may have considerable difficulty in absorbing any more. In the meantime a fresh crop of millionaires is being created, for the business pays very well and those who make the greatest success in this line of business are in great demand and are making money fast. D. Lorne McGibbon, one of the younger and most recent acquisitions to the ranks of those who have to count their fortunes not lower than in seven figures, only a few days ago bought two of the biggest boot and shoe plants in the country for the purpose of running them under one management and speculating in the production of the factories. He is said to put up a matter of four millions in connection with the deal. There are also rumors of a deal which will bring the River St. Lawrence and Great Lakes steamboat companies under one title but nothing definite appears to have been arrived at yet. Still another merger talked about is a combination of the big wholesale hardware companies in Montreal but the head of one of the firms involved states that this has been talked about periodically for three years but has never come to anything yet. Bank mergers and pulp mills also figure in the merger proposals.

CANADIAN CAPITAL ABROAD

While Canada is seeking fresh capital abroad and is getting it in large quantities from England and France, Canadian banks and financiers are backing heavily traction, power and other enterprises in foreign countries, more particularly Mexico and South American Republics to say nothing of the concerns in the United States which is using a lot of Canadian capital. Mr. Rudolph Forget, M.P., thinks this is all wrong and voices his sentiments in the course of reasons why another bank would be a good in Canada. He thinks there are lots of good propositions at home and that Canadians should have faith enough in their own country to put their money in them instead of expecting outsiders to do it while they go off to some other place with their capital. The bank Mr. Forget is organizing is the Banque Generale du Canada but the word "Generale" will be dropped if a charter can be secured for one designated the Bank of Canada. Its capital will be $10,000,000 and of this amount the promoter states that French capitalists are willing to put up $7,500,000 and Canadians the balance. Mr. Forget leads the public to believe that his new bank will set the other banks a good example and that as a result there will not be such an outcry about the tight money market in future.
