Garnet.

Hamilton.—"Although" the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hilton, was, on Wednesday, Jan. 4, 1911, at high noon, the scene of a happy event, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Harriet Adella, to John Francis Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Wilson. The decorations of the home, including the bridal arch, were of evergreen and holly. While the wedding march from Lonsgrin was being played by Mrs. Harvey Clark of Toronto, sister of the groom, the bridal party entered the drawing room. Mr. Watson Boulton, cousin of the groom, and Miss Mary Bilton, sister of the bride as bridesmaid, Mary Harrop, cousin of the bride, having assumed the duties of ring-bearer. The bride was given away by her father. The Rev. Arthur Clark Eddy performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk, trimmed with embroidered silk insertion and silk net and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden-hair ferns. The bridesmaid was dressed in cream Gloria, trimmed with lace insertion and silk net, her bouquet being of pink roses and maiden hair ferns. After the congratulations had been offered a sumptuous repast was served in the dining room, after which the toast to the bride was offered. The groom made an appropriate reply. A number of others made addresses also, expressing congratulations and good wishes. The many presents to the bride, including, furniture, china, silverware and linen expressed the high esteem in which she is held, the groom's favor to her being a crown and sceptre brooch, to the bridesmaid a brooch also, to the ring bearer a pin with pearl setting and to the groomsmen a gold stick pin. The happy couple left on an evening train for Hamilton, Toronto and other points east, the bride's travelling suit being of navy blue satin duchess with hat to match. On their return they will reside at "The Elms," the well-known Wilson homestead, enjoying the goodwill of the members and adherents of Garnet church, with which both bride and groom are closely associated, and the good wishes of the whole community.
