

Joshua's Devotion to God... 28: 1-13.

Commentary.—I. Joshua's devotion to God... II. Destroying idolatry... III. Repairing the altar...

Reflections of a Bachelor... A man can be much prouder of his good reputation than pleased with what he gets out of it...

The War on the Rat... Gibson County, with its anti-rat day, which it is trying to extend to all the state, is fully abreast of the times...

Looks Like a Slander... Hull is the most wicked city in Canada, in proportion to population...

Washday Troubles... Will vanish, like mist before sunshine, if you use one of EDDY'S WASHBOARDS...

Strong Solid, Durable and Well-Finished EDDY'S WASHBOARDS will ease your washday burdens as no others will.

NA-DU-RO-LAXATIVES... They contain the latest discovered and best evacuant known, which cleanses the bowels without the slightest discomfort and without disturbing the rest of the system.

YOUR HORSE IN HOT WEATHER... Drive your horses slowly. Cut down the size of the loads. Keep a hat containing a wet sponge on the horse's head.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria... An Irish physician, while enjoying a holiday in this country, says the Belfast Times, took the opportunity along with a friend to go fishing.

DICKENS FOREVER! Still, the creed is a good one to teach. It can never be taught too often. Better than all laws against vice and crime and folly is an impulse toward self-reform.

NEVER FORGET THIS! When packing for the country cottage don't forget your box of Zam-Buk and your Zam-Buk Soap.

TAKING NO RISKS. Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, says, according to the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph, that his party didn't wish to take any risks in the last election.

MARVELLOUS RELIEF FOR CORNS, BUNIONS, SORE FOOT LUMPS. Five corns on five toes for five years. Was he lame? You bet. That man was a chump—sure he was.

A PITT-ANCE. "Mary," said the sick man to his wife, after the doctor had pronounced it a case of smallpox, "if any of my creditors call, tell them that I am at last in a condition to give them something."

Washday Troubles... Will vanish, like mist before sunshine, if you use one of EDDY'S WASHBOARDS... The E. R. EDDY Company, Hull, Canada

THE BEST WAY... To make an excellent poultry powder take two and a half pounds of slacked lime, five pounds of ground oyster shells, one-quarter of a pound of cayenne pepper, one-quarter of a pound of anacardium, one pound of Venetian red and a quarter of a pound of red pepper.

SHIFTING THE BLAME. (Success Magazine) An Indiana assessor had trouble getting people to list dogs for taxes. "Got a dawg?" he asked. "No," was the reply. "Well, I'll 'less you one anyway—not my fault if you ain't got any—plenty of dawgs."

BABY'S OWN TABLETS CURE SUMMER COMPLAINT... Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in every home where there are babies or young children. At no time of the year is baby in such danger as in summer.

HEADING CATTLE BY AEROPLANE... The uses of the aeroplane are becoming more numerous every day, but novel indeed is the use to which his Blériot monoplane was put by M. Remie Simon at Houston, Texas, on the 27th ultimo.

ALL AGAINST IT. "The harvest skirt, or jupe-culotte, won't go into this country. The arguments against it are insuperable."

ST. LAWRENCE CRYSTAL DIAMONDS... The finest lump sugar ever produced. These sparkling Tablets of the purest Sugar, are dainty and tempting in appearance and are sold in attractive cartons and by the pound.

FROZEN STIFF. (M. A. P.) Lord Rosebery is noted for his tact and for his ability to say the right thing at the right time. On one occasion, when he was giving a dinner to some of his friends, an old man who sat next to him exclaimed much impressed with the magnificence of the menu, the like of which he had never seen before.

ICE IN PERSIA. The fact that ice is plentiful and cheap makes living in Persia more pleasant than it would otherwise be, and the fact that it can be obtained at all is indicative of the ingenuity of the people of the country.

ICE IN PERSIA. The fact that ice is plentiful and cheap makes living in Persia more pleasant than it would otherwise be, and the fact that it can be obtained at all is indicative of the ingenuity of the people of the country.

Lost 16 Lbs. in Weight... Was Kept Down by Bilious Indigestion, and When in Despair Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cured... In the following interesting letter Mrs. E. R. Plunkett, well known in her home town of Haverhill, tells how she conquered bilious indigestion.

SCIENCE NOTES. Spain contains 11,597,048 acres of unproductive land. A semi-automatic telephone system is being tried out in Amsterdam.

BETTER THAN SPANKING... Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W., Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions.

DOWN TO THE RIND. (From Success Magazine) A grocery salesman entering a store found a man in charge of the delivery boy. Upon being asked where the proprietor was, the boy replied: "The traveling man departed leaving a note for the proprietor, which the boy promptly gave me to suggest," it read, "that you use nearly out of cheese."

TO HELEN. Helen, thy beauty is to me Like those Nemean barks of yore, That gently, o'er a perfumed sea, The weary, war-worn wanderer bore To his own native shore.

OWNING A HOME. (Duluth Herald) We have advocated home owning for people on salaries and wages because it is only going into debt for something of this sort that the average owner of moderate pay can ever hope to get anything ahead.

OWNING A HOME. (Duluth Herald) We have advocated home owning for people on salaries and wages because it is only going into debt for something of this sort that the average owner of moderate pay can ever hope to get anything ahead.

OWNING A HOME. (Duluth Herald) We have advocated home owning for people on salaries and wages because it is only going into debt for something of this sort that the average owner of moderate pay can ever hope to get anything ahead.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS... 23 THE P... Small Boy—If you please, sir, may we have an extra half-holiday this afternoon? Headmaster—Why? Small Boy—Well, sir—we thought you might feel like it, sir—so you were singing in your bath this morning!

DAYS OF ROMANCE... Richard Le Gallienne Says They Are Far From Over... Richard Le Gallienne, tiring of the eternal wail of those who deary the present as a dull, prosaic, all-business age and bewail the passing of the "good old days of poetry and romance," has written for the August number of The Smart Set a strong argument against this theory.

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS... 23 THE P... Small Boy—If you please, sir, may we have an extra half-holiday this afternoon? Headmaster—Why? Small Boy—Well, sir—we thought you might feel like it, sir—so you were singing in your bath this morning!

LOST HIS VOICE... A Case Which Proves How Deadly a Disease is Catarrh... After reading this experience it will be easy to see why every person with the catarrhal taint should use Catarrh-cure.

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

SENTENCE SERMONS. What the sages have said of man: Man has been defined by Aristotle as "a reasoning animal," by Plato as "a political animal," by Varro as "a ridiculous animal," by Valerius as "a creature of no account," and by Boetius as "a mud worked up by the hand of God."

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS... 23 THE P... Small Boy—If you please, sir, may we have an extra half-holiday this afternoon? Headmaster—Why? Small Boy—Well, sir—we thought you might feel like it, sir—so you were singing in your bath this morning!