Varency

There was moisture to spare. The potato question is looking better.

The rain was too late to save the raspberry crop.

Mr. W. Laird of the Bank of Commerce staff, Winnipeg, who has been spending a few days with relatives here left for home on Monday.

Mrs. W. Hliffe and family arrived here last week from Hinkley, England. They will occupy the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. W. Secord.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Laird of Kingston are spending a few weeks with relatives here.

Renton

Hello Jarvis; Hello; give me Record Office please; Hello Mr. Editor is that you; that me; Who is this talking; your Renton correspondent; Where have you been for the last 3 or 4 weeks. Mr. Editor I have been down on the corner of Buck-saw and Aze-handle Street until it got so confounded hot I would not stand it any longer so I asked the weather man to change things and he certainly did for he pelted me with hail stones the other day till I nearly looked like some of the corn fields, then he wound up with a nice warm rain that revived me up again, so I will tell you what has happened for a while back.

The most of the farmers have their haying done, and wheat cut and part of it in their barns.

Mr. John and Pearl Butler of Simcoe and Miss E. Thompson of Toronto were guests Mr. and Mrs. D. Secord on Sunday.

A rather painful accident happened to Mr. N. J. Campbell the other day while drawing in hay on the Rolling Valley Farm, the horses got frightened and threw Mr. Campbell off the back end of the load, which dislocated hip, and will lay him up for a few weeks but is doing nicely under the care of the doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Highwood of Varency spent Sunday on the Rolling Valley Farm.

Mr. Herb Teeple had the misfortune to have a run-a-way the other day with the milk-wagon which damaged his harness and wagon and some of the cans but was fortunate to escape injury himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walker of Port Dover were visiting the latter's brother, Mr. N. J. Campbell who recently got hurt at D. Secord's.

The hail storm on Friday last did considerable damage to the Oats and Barley crop in our burg.

Miss Mabel Campbell of Port Dover is at the Rolling Valley Farm taking care of her father.

Mrs. P. Mitchell had her Alsike Seed threshed last week with Mr. John Watson's new machine.

Mr. Henry Mianer was calling on friends in our burg on Sunday evening last.

Marburg

Our much needed rain arrived, with a good lot of hail, which we did not need.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rodgers of Jarvis visited at Robert Marr's on Sunday.

Our Literary Society held a picnic at Port Dover one afternoon recently.

The lightning killed a horse for Mr. Shand on Friday. It also struck Hamilton Buttler's barn but did not set fire to it.

Sidney McBride and wife and Willis Hewson went to Woodstock on the twelfth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rose of Simcoe called on friends in this neighborhood on Thursday last.

We see the rain kept Milton out rather late on Sunday. It's the best way to wait till daylight—you can see where you are driving better.

Mrs. Beckon of Brantford has been visiting at Will McBride's for a few days.

Alvah Pow and children of Dean's Hallow were at Rodger Gundry's on Sunday. Millie Mitchell has been visiting Ileen Gundry for a few days.

Arlot McCarter of Port Dover spent a day or two last week with relatives here.

For summer diarrhoea in children always give Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, and a speedy cure is certain. For sale by all dealers.

Sandwich

Mrs. Wm. Evans and Mrs. Thos. Jackson visited Cherry Grove last week.

Miss Maggie Lawson of Chatham is visiting "Cheesnut Knolls."

Mrs. Leith is visiting Mrs. James Hewitt.

Mrs. Hemming of Nanticoke is spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Chas. Brown.

Right in the busiest season when you have the least time to spare you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days' time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by all dealers.
