Those fine showers we had last week makes the farmers look better natured.

Road working is the go these days. The Townline fellows certainly deserve credit for the way they fixed the hills at Black Creek.

D. Secord and wife spent Sunday in Simcoe with Mr. and Mrs. Thos.
Acornb.

We are sorry to chronicle the death of Bramah Yeager, who so long has been a resident and a good neighbor in this vicinity. The sorrowing friends have the heartfelt sympathy of this community in their sad bereavement.

ers; a good program and a good supper may be assured.

Our football team went to Hartford on Tuesday evening week, to play a match with that team, which resulted in a tie, neither team scoring. A return match will be played in the near future.

The Sunday School picnic held in Mr. Howard's flats on Saturday last was a great success. The day was an ideal one for a picnic. There was a good crowd, the Salem people turning out well. Races and games were indulged in and every body seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves. A football match was played between the football team and the married men, which resulted in a score of 1-0 in favor of our team.

Death of James Elmer

Owing to the errors which appeared in this item last week we republish it:

On Saturday, June 3rd, occurred the death of James Elmer, at his late residence, No. 153 South Division St., Buffalo, N.Y. Deceased was born in Suffolk, England, in 1831, and came to this country twenty years later. Mr. Elmer was a loving and devoted husband and father.
Services were conducted at his late residence, Monday afternoon, the 5th, by Rev. E. G. Piper, pastor of Grace M. E. church, of which Mr.
Elmer was a faithful and devoted member; and at the grave by Washington Lodge, No. 240, F. & A. M., of which he was an honored member. Interment took place in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo. A wife and six children are left to mourn their loss. They are: Mrs.

T. W. Ivey, Chairman; Mrs. H.
V. Patton, Mrs. J. W. Albertson, Mrs. Geo. Miller and Miss Lottie E.
Elmer, of Buffalo, and William J.
Elmer of Otago, Ohio.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
