Allen-Smith

On Monday, June 26th, the marriage of Miss Mary Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Smith, to Cameron R. Allen of Osgo, Sask., was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, at Jarvis, the Rev. D. M. Buchanan, officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony and the wedding breakfast which followed. Mr. and Mrs. Allen left on the early morning train for their future home in Osgo, Sask., the bride travelling in a neat and becoming dark blue costume, with a large leghorn hat trimmed with lace and pink roses. The bride is one of Jarvis' most popular young ladies and she will be much missed. The Record voices the sentiments of the bride and groom's friends, when we wish them bon voyage over the matrimonial sea, and may they ever enjoy health, peace and plenty in the years that are to come.

Mehlenbacher-Reichheld

The spacious home of Mrs. Katherine Reichheld, Nelles Corners, was, on Wednesday, June 21st, 1911, the scene of one of those events which cause a flutter of excitement among the fair sex; the occasion being the marriage of her daughter Miss Ida Katherine Reichheld and Ernest George Mehlenbacher. The home was thrown open to one hundred and twenty-five guests and at 2 o'clock they were all attracted to the parlor, where the sweet strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. James Pollock, of Thamesville, heralded the coming of the wedding party. In this room an elaborate arch, decorated with evergreen and maple leaves, had been erected, which afforded an inviting retreat for the happy pair. The winsome bride was the centre of attraction and was attired in a beautiful costume of grey silk Foulard, trimmed with self-colored satin braiding and all-over lace and carrying a handsome bouquet of white carnations, roses and lily-of-the-valley. Her only ornament was a pendant, set with pearls, a token from the groom. The bride was given away by her brother, William, and was attended by Miss Nellie Foreman, of Dunville, who wore a handsome dress of recede-green Foulard, trimmed with satin, and carried a pretty bouquet of pink carnations and lily-of-the-valley. The groom was ably supported by J. W. Cameron of Jarvis. Added to these were a little flower girl and page, the former being little Grace Mehlenbacher, niece of the groom, who looked sweet in a frock of white silk trimmed with lace and insertion. In the basket filled with roses and orange blossoms, which she bore, contained the ring, Earl Hewson, nephew of the bride, made a smart little page and acted his part well. The interesting yet solemn ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Eir. After the bride had been saluted and congratulation extended the company adjourned to the dining room where a sumptuous and tempting repast was partaken of, after which an inspection of gifts were made and it was here that much time was spent, but space will not permit us to enumerate them, suffice to say that they were numerous and costly as well as useful and ornamental, and is a fitting tribute to the esteem and popularity of the bride and groom. The groom's gifts were: to the bridesmaid, crescent set with pearls; groomsmen, stick pin set with pearls; flower girl, jewel case; page, gold ring set with rubies. Mr. and Mrs. Mehlenbacher left in a taxi for a honeymoon trip to Buffalo, Providence and Rhode Island, and on their return will settle down to the stern realities of life in Fisherville where the groom is a prosperous business man. That their future may be as their honeymoon, full of happiness and sunshine, coupled with health and prosperity, is the sentiment of their host of well-wishers.

The entrance examinations commenced on Monday and will be completed this evening. A large number from the rural schools in this vicinity are in attendance.

Successful Garden Party

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church are to be congratulated upon the success of their Lawn Party and Strawberry Festival, which was held on the church lawn on the evening of Coronation Day, Thursday, June 22nd. The large concourse of happy people, the well-laden tables and the refreshment booth and program platform, appropriately decorated, presented a very fine appearance. At the commencement of the program, which proved to be a very interesting one, the audience joined heartily in singing the doxology. Mrs. Jas. Pollock acting as pianist. The pastor of the church, Rev. A. C. Eddy, then offered the invocation. The program itself consisted of vocal and instrumental music, readings and addresses. Miss Ethel Snyder, who sang the coronation song, Misses Shirley Rodgers and Lillian Allen well sustained their good reputation as vocalists and the Miell orchestra from Garnet their for instrumental music. Rev. D. B. Buchanan and Canon Belt gave addresses appropriate for the occasion. A number from outside points also rendered splendid service. Mr. Cyril Dyson of Hamilton, who sang and gave an interesting address, Mrs. Charles A. Wilson of Caledonia and Mr. Charles Keeser of Hagersville, soloists, and Miss Velma Johnson of Springfield, elocutionist. Mr. Dyson and Mrs. Wilson also favored the audience with a duet. The appearance of the sky which threatened an immediate down-pour of rain made it necessary to cancel a few numbers of the program, which was closed by the singing of the National anthem. The financial part of the evening's exercises was most encouraging the proceeds being about $140.

Letter of Sympathy

At a special meeting of St. Paul's branch of the W. A. J., held at the rectory on Monday afternoon, June 26th, the following resolution was carried by a standing vote:

That the members of St. Paul's church Parish Guild and Auxiliary to Missions unite in sending the most heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Frank Barwell and his daughter, under the very heavy blow they have suffered in the death of the wife and mother.

The faithful work of our dear sister, Mrs. Nora E. Hartwell, has ever been a spur and incentive to us all to give more earnest and self-sacrificing service to the church of God. For twenty-one years as Treasurer of our Parish Guild her constant fidelity and never-wearying interest helped us all more than we can say in freeing our church from debt, and so one rejoiced more than she when, by solemn service of consecration, it was publicly set apart for God's worship. For the past two years also, with a widening interest in the missionary work of the church as Treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary, her earnest work for Parish and Missions field never flagged. When we consider her constant and often acute suffering during the past eight years—and her almost total disability during the latter half of this period—we marvel at her cheerful and willing service. And we thank God for the noble example she has given us in placing the church's interests first in her thoughts and efforts. "She being dead yet speaketh" and we feel that the memory of her good work will follow her and ever be an inspiration to us all in future years. And "being made perfect through suffering" her faithful service on earth has been fitting her for still further service in the Paradise of God where, with the saints who have gone before, she awaits her loved ones and her fellow workers in that day when all who have had witness borne to them, through their faith shall enter into the "Promise of Eternal inheritance."

The Toronto News came out on Wednesday, June 21st as a eighty-page edition and is called "The National Issue." It is widely illustrated and describes the growth of Canada from Confederation, its population, in Commerce, Manufactures, Agriculture, Transportation, Natural Vigor and Self Dependence, and in Political and Commercial Affiliation with the Mother Country and other British Dominions. This surely seems to be an opportune time to show the tremendous advance which Canada has made during the last quarter of a century. The progress made seems all the more remarkable when the growth of Canadian Industries, of Canadian Railway mileage, of settlement and of agricultural development are considered in detail. In order to give a comprehensive statement of what has been accomplished in these various directions The News takes the lead in broadening the minds of its many readers by the publication of this wonderful edition.
