Rev. J. W. Kitching preached an excellent sermon Sunday morning from the last verse of the 15th chapter of I. Corinthians, "Be ye steadfast unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." Service will be held next Sunday morning at 11 a.m., Sunday School at 10 o'clock. The revival services will continue at Mt. Zion this week. A goodly number of here attended these meetings last week. Jas. Priests and Mrs. Wm. Lemon visited in Jarvis on Tuesday week. Mr. Wilson of Tyrell, the assessor, was making his annual calls on Monday. Some from here took in the Forester's supper and entertainment at Villa Nova on Friday night last. Robbie Sampson, who has been stopping at Jas. Priests' for the past year, returned to the children's Home in Hamilton on Saturday last. The Bell Ringers concert held in the church on Tuesday evening was not a very successful affair. The music was not too bad but when Mr. Squire began to preach Dr. Russell's theory, it didn't suit a right thinking audience. One good brother had pluck enough to get up and ston Mr. Squire and tell him he was a fraud in advertising a musical program in order to preach Dr. Russell. The meeting dispersed and we all went home.

Gibson of Blyth arrived in town on Tuesday to take charge of the Millinery Department of J. F. Hager's store. Her many friends and customers will be pleased to have her with them again. Wm. Stewart has purchased the Emil Teitz farm in Walpole and will take possession in April. John Graham and L. R. Shoup's condition is very unsatisfactory. Harry Reid of Regina is here on a visit. Miss M. Jones of Jarvis spent Sunday with her friend Miss Reta Lindsay.

Wedded at Church

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's church on Saturday afternoon, when Miss Beatrice Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Jacques, became the happy bride of Percy L. Buck of Hamilton, son of Mrs. Nellie Buck of this place. The bride and groom were unattended and left immediately for Hamilton where they intend residing. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Belt, M. A. The bride is among our most popular young ladies, hence she received many handsome and useful presents. Her going-away gown was neat and becoming, it being of navy blue with hat to match. The Record, along with the host of friends, are fervent in their wishes that the young couple may be endowed with many blessings, coupled with happiness and prosperity.

Bilton-Porter

A very pleasant event took place on Wednesday, Feb. 22nd, at "Maple View" the residence of James and Mrs. Porter. Eric, when their only daughter, Minnie E. was united in marriage to John W. Bilton, second son of Thomas and Mrs. Bilton of Hagersville. The interesting ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Monsinger, of Chesapeake, in the presence of the contracting parties and friends of the wedding party. Promptly at 12 o'clock, to the beautiful strains of the wedding march from Loehring, ably rendered by Mrs. Wilber B. ynolds of Jarvis, cousin of the bride, the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away, and took her place under a large white liberty bell, with pink and white carnations and smilax, where the groom awaited her. Her only attendant was her little two-year-old nephew, Harold Porter, daintily gowned in white, who very prettily performed the part of ring bearer and who was presented by the groom with a pearl stick pin. The bride looked charming in a semi-princess gown of white all-over embroidery, trimmed with insertion and having a panel of embroidered insertion. She wore a wreath of smilax and lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her only ornament was a pearl cross, the gift of the groom. After hearty congratulations and best wishes had been tendered and while the Bridal Chorus was being played, the guests repaired to the dining room and partook of a sumptuous wedding dinner. The home was very tastefully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. E. A. Harrop of Garnet, aunt of the bride, the color scheme throughout being pink and white, the flowers used were roses, carnations. The many beautiful gifts testify to the high esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Bilton left in the afternoon amid showers of rice and confetti, to take the 4:30 train from Hagersville for Toledo, Ohio, the bride traveling in a tailored suit of navy blue satin-striped broadcloth with hat to match.

Obituary

The late Mr. Samuel Hunter passed to his eternal rest at an early hour on Friday morning. The deceased had been confined to bed for the past two years through the increasing infirmities of age. When he died he was in his ninety-second year, having been born May 1st, 1819, at Large Airly, Monaghan County, Ireland. On the 2nd of January, 1844, he was married to Miss Jane Lennon of the same county and together they immigrated to this country in the following May. After two years residence near Caledonia, they settled on the Blind Line, Townsend, where he resided until a few years ago, he gave up farming and came to reside with his daughter, Mrs. D. M. Allen. There were born to them twelve children four of whom are deceased, two in infancy and Esther (Mrs. Glass) and George. The following are the members of the family that are still living: Hugh, Mrs. H. T. Glass and Miss S. E. Hunter of Hamilton, Mrs. D. M. Allen of Jarvis, Wm. John of Detroit, Mrs. A. B. Clark and Robert James of Hamilton and Samuel of San Francisco. Mr. Hunter was a fine type of citizen and a noble example of Christian manhood. He was one of the original members of Knox church, Jarvis, having united with that church at its organization over fifty-four years ago and remained continuously a faithful and honored member until his death. A few years after the induction of the first pastor Mr. Hunter was ordained an elder and for about fifty years served the congregation in that capacity. For many years he was superintendent and teacher in the Sunday school, which work he loved—and was deeply interested in until the frailties of old age forced him to retire. The funeral was held on Monday and was largely attended. The funeral services were conducted in the church by the pastor, Rev. D. M. Buchanan, who referred to the long life and faithful service of Mr. Hunter during his connection with the church. The hymns used were favorites with the deceased "Jesus Lover of my Soul" and "A few more years shall roll" (largely sung). "Face to Face shall behold Him." Mr. Hunter has left behind him the record of a faithful and consistent Christian life, honored and loved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

CHURCH NOTES.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH
This is Ash Wednesday, the first day of the Lenten Season, and services are being held at 10:30 a.m. and 8 p.m. Throughout the Season of Lent special services are to be held. The list of sermon topics was distributed in the church last Sunday. Canon Belt leaves to-morrow to take part in the Anglican Churches of Toronto and its suburbs from March 2nd to Sunday 12. These services were arranged for months ago and are to be of an evangelistic character for the quickening and deepening of the spiritual life.

METHODIST CHURCH

The members of the Adult Bible Class spent a very enjoyable evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters on Monday of this week.

"Abraham" is the topic of the Epworth League and prayer meeting topic to-night. Everyone invited.

LECTURE ON INDIAN CHILDREN'S HOME IN THE NORTHWEST

A good meeting of the members of St. Paul's W. A. was held last Thursday afternoon at Mrs. T. E. Morrings' to hear an address on the work of the Indian Homes. Miss Bennett, who came to tell about the work, is the Lady Superintendent of St. Peter's Home, at Lesser Slave Lake, Alberta, about 35 miles north of Edmonton. She gave a most interesting description especially of St. Peter's Home and its work amongst the Indian children. There are twenty-seven boarders, ranging in age from four to fifteen years. These come from different Indian families living within a radius of 100 miles. There are also some day pupils. The two departments, boys and girls, are under the charge of Archdeacon Scott. The children are taught how to care for their homes, how to cook and other useful arts. Miss Bennett had with her some samples of Indian bead work which was splendidly done. Early in the afternoon Miss Bennett paid a short visit to the public school where under the kind arrangement of the Principal, Miss Geisler, the pupils were gathered into one of the rooms and were interested in listening to the account given of the Indian children's education. A letter from a girl of 9, who had been two and a half years in the school, was read. The handwriting was excellent.
