TO THE CIVIC FATHERS.—Several years ago I called the attention to the necessity of suitable shades on the lamps at the outskirts of the village, to prevent possible accident to vehicles coming and going to town after dark. The glare of the lamp makes it impossible to see an approaching rig for nearly a mile out of town. Several serious accidents have been narrowly averted but sooner or later something will occur that will make you sit up and take notice.—RATEPAYER.

Delhi Reporter—The Rhone Valley Creamery did their initial churning this week. The amount of cream brought in, was more than was expected for the first days. The "Reporter" was presented with a pound of creamery from their first churning. We never expect to see the quality of Rhone Valley butter any better, as there is absolutely no way in which they could improve on it. Chas. Parkinson of Jarvis, is the gentleman in charge of the manufacturing, and as he is a proficient creamery man of much experience, the outlook for the modern equipped plant is very bright.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Lundy.
On Wednesday, May 3rd, 1911, death claimed another old and highly respected resident of Woodhouse, in the person of Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Lundy, relict of the late Thomas D. W. Lundy, who predeceased her some two years ago. Deceased was born in the township of Pelham, Welland County, on July 2nd, 1837, and was married to Mr. Lundy in 1855. They moved to Woodhouse in 1873, and settled on a farm near Marburg where they resided until Mr. Lundy's death, when she went to live with her son Mr. B. Lundy near Varenay. She leaves to mourn her loss one son, Mr. B. Lundy, her daughter having died 28 years ago. As a kind neighbor Mrs. Lundy will be much missed, as by her quiet and unassuming manner she won many friends. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. A. C. pastor of the Methodist church, Jarvis, at the residence of her son, on Friday, May 5th, and interment took place at the Port Dover cemetery, and was very largely attended. The genuine sympathy of the neighborhood is extended to Mr. B. Lundy.

Bishop-Elect Clark
Hamilton Times
The choice of Ven. Archbishop Clark of this city, to succeed the late Dr. Dumoulin as Bishop of Niagara, is the highest honor that could be paid by the clergy and laity of the diocese to one who has successfully labored for many years among them. From the first it was well known that few men in the church were as favorably considered for the office as Archbishop Clark, and with the assembling of the Synod the impression grew that he would be its choice. The first vote gave him 28 clerical, and 14 lay supporters his only serious rival being Rev. Patterson Smyk, with 19 clerical and 13 lay votes; the number necessary to elect being 38 clerical and 32 lay votes. Archbishop Clark continued to gain on each ballot, and on the fifth it stood: Clergy 48, laity 35; a surplus of 3 lay and 10 clerical votes. Immediately upon Rev. Dean Hamilton's declaration of Archbishop Clark's election, his choice was made unanimous, and he was warmly congratulated by the members of the Synod. The election was conducted in the most decorous manner, and was untainted by any feeling or expression of bitterness or improper rivalry, and the bishop-elect most appreciate that he owes his high honor to the free and unthought esteem of the clergy and the churchmen of the diocese over which he has been called to preside.
Bishop-elect Clark is an untried man. Thirty-five years ago he was ordained deacon and since that he has labored diligently and successfully in several fields. He spent some years as incumbent and rector in Burlington, Burton and Glenford, and was for 21 years rector at Auster. He has for the past seven years occupied the responsible position of Archdeacon of Niagara and secretary (treasurer) of the General Synod of Canada. The experience which he has gained in his long career in the church, in his discharge of the duty of the import of which he has filled in the Synod, and his general familiarity with the administration of church affairs, will prove valuable assets to him in his new and high position. Personally the bishop-elect is an exceedingly pleasant gentleman to meet; genial, gracious and companionable, a man of intelligence, education and warm heart. It goes without saying that in him the church has a strong champion, and a friend ever willing to make much sacrifice for its prosperity. Nor is it alone among the supporters of the Anglican Church that he is held in high regard; he has the respect and esteem of our citizens generally. He is admitted as not only a churchman but a man—one whom all are glad to honor. On his choice the Synod and our Anglican friends generally are heartily to be congratulated. Under Bishop Clark's direction the church in the diocese of Niagara will continue to prosper and become a steadily increasing power for good.
