There will be a meeting of the Jarvis Improvement Committee in G. L. Miller's office Friday evening. A full attendance is requested.

The W. A. and A. Y. P. A., of St. Paul's church, intend having a booth with ice cream for sale on Victoria Day, and are also arranging to sell on Saturday evenings during the summer.

Wanda seems to be the order of the day. Miss Irene Kinschuler, who is learning the millinery at J. A. Burwash's, was obliged to return to her home in Varenay Monday, owing to an attack of them.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's Liniment wonderfully effective. One application will convince you of its merits. Try it. For sale by all dealers.

Nathan Bartlet of Buffalo, N. Y., who advertised his Walpole farm for sale in The Record a short time ago has sold the farm and is in the village to-day settling up his business. If you have a farm or anything to sell advertise in The Record.

At a meeting of the creditors of J. Y. Murdoch at Cayuga on Friday last, Dr. O. J. Newell was appointed assignee in place of Sheriff McConnell, who was appointed by J. Y. Murdoch, and I. W. Homes and Wm. Chambers were appointed Inspectors.

R. O. Morrow, who has been managing his father's business for the past five or six weeks, is now taking his holidays with his brother Ernest in Corry, Pa. After spending a short time there he will take a trip to the West to visit his brothers Will and Fred.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wendland and son and Mr. and Mrs. Dee Boyd attended the wedding of Miss Minnie Davis, (neice of Mrs. Wendland) to Mr. Herman Ellison at Rostock, on Thursday. They returned home Friday evening and report having spent a good time.

The press everywhere speaks in highest praise of the entertainer we are to have on the evening of May 24th. Hear the comment of the Dundas Banner: "Mr. Walter Edwards of Toronto, a Humorist was well received, his selections being clean and rendered in a first-class style."

Andrew Ostrander has purchased a house and two lots in Simcoe and he and his wife removed there last week. Mr. Ostrander has only been a resident of our burgh for a few months but his wife has resided in our midst for many years, hence she will be much missed. We wish them every happiness in their new home.

I have just one of those handsome extension top carriages left, I have also a few buggies of the latest styles, all are fitted with brass and rubber washers, which I guarantee to last from 3 to 5 years, which makes your buggy noiseless. W. E. Sowter.

Albert Weaver, aged 11 years, a son of Albert Weaver who resides near Cayuga, accidentally shot and killed himself with a 22-calibre rifle in his father's barn on Saturday morning. He had been shooting sparrows and it was while climbing in the mow that the rifle caught in something and was discharged. The bullet entered his heart and killed him almost instantly.

J. M. Howell, a popular druggist of Greensburg, Ky., says, "We use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our own household and know it is excellent. For sale by all dealers."

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Newman were called to St. Williams last Thursday, where the funeral took place of the late Mrs. Matthew Newman, who died in Belle Plain, Sask. The deceased, with her husband, visited in this neighborhood only a few weeks ago and has just been home a few days when she died. Mrs. Newman is still visiting at St. Williams but Mr. Newman returned home Monday.

Every body will be at the Music Hall, Jarvis, on 24th May night to hear that clever young elocutionist. She appeared in Port Perry and this is what the Star had to say: "Miss Evelyn Davis, the elocutionist, did well. She has a good voice and is able to control it and her selections were well chosen and well rendered. She is a young lady for whom we predict a brilliant career as a reader."

The Garnet Women's Institute will hold their regular monthly meeting on Saturday, May 20th at 2 o'clock p.m. Papers will be given on "The Value of Sunshine" and "The Care of the Sleeping Room." The members are requested to bring suggestions for next year's program, also in answer to the roll call to give something about the life of our late Queen Victoria.

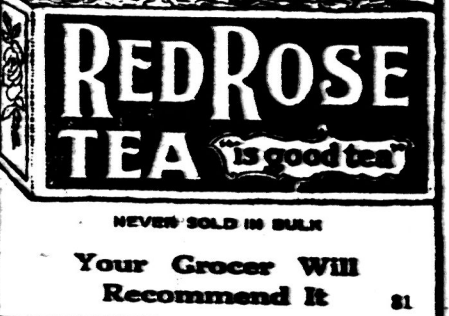

For soreness of the muscles whether induced by violent exercise or injury, Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent. This liniment is also highly esteemed for the relief it affords in cases of rheumatism. Sold by all dealers.

T. E. Morrow returned home from the West on Thursday evening last after spending nearly six weeks with his sons and other friends. He reports prospects very bright there for this year and is very much pleased with the country. He met a lot of Jarvis and Walpole old boys and girls and spent a very enjoyable time while away. Ada Belle, eldest daughter of W. E. Morrow, returned with him and will remain for some time. Ada Belle looks as though that country had agreed well with her.

The Southland Serenaders will appear in the Music Hall, Jarvis, on Thursday evening, May 18th, under the auspices of the Public Library. The following item was taken from a Portland, (N. Y.) paper of recent date. "The Southland Serenaders gave one of the best jubilee concerts in the School Hall, Saturday night ever listened to by a Portland audience and the expectations of the committee having it in charge were fully realized in quality as well as financially. The company should be welcomed by a full house whenever they ever come this way again. They are a company of refined ladies and gentlemen and it was the privilege of many Portland people to become personally acquainted with them. The company stayed in Portland over Sunday and sang in the M. E. church in Brocton in the evening."

in tea may mean to you flavor or strength or fragrant richness. Red Rose Tea is blended with such nicety that it is the combination of all three points of merit. Will you try a package.

Some towns are shutting off the use of children's express wagons on the sidewalks when propelled by the one limb method, while the operator is a passenger. It is looked upon as a menace to horses on the street and fraught with dangerous consequences.—How about Jarvis?

Thos. Watson of Springvale, while on his way to visit his daughter, Mrs. Edwin Gowen, met with an accident when in front of Walter Ions's, on the 8th concession. Mr. Watson was driving a colt and it took fright and ran away, throwing him out and bruising him considerably, which will confine him to the house for some time. Martin Anderson happened to come along and placed him in his wagon and took him to his home.

District Meeting of the Methodist Church

The annual meeting of the Simcoe District of the Hamilton Conference is being held in Jarvis. The ministerial session was held yesterday (Tuesday) by Rev. A. L. Gee, Ph. D., Chairman of the District being the presiding officer. Rev. S. J. Kelly of Hagersville occupies the position of Financial Secretary and Rev. J. W. Kitching of the Townsend circuit that of Sunday School Secretary. Rev. Henry Mousinger of Chesapeake was appointed General Secretary. The laymen's missionary movement and Epworth League work, the report from Victoria College concerning the academic and moral standing of the probationers connected with the district and the annual inquiry regarding the character of the ministerial session, were features of the ministerial session. The Secretary has in every case a favorable report to present to conference.

To-day the laymen from the circuits of the districts are also present.

Following are the names of circuits of Simcoe District with their pastors:

Those who have a supernatural relation with Revs. Thomas S. Howard and Charles Stringfellow of Hagersville and Robert Carson of Rockford.

The probationers for the ministry associated with this district are J. W. Stanley Vanderberg and William E. Sloan, both of whom have been attending Victoria College during the college year just closing. Mr. Vanderberg is attending the District meeting.

The report of to-day's session will be published next week.

Selecting the Cloth

It is a special part of our business. It must be styled in the first place. It must be made up in the second. It must be reasonably priced in the third. When you order a

Suit From Us

You get all the benefit of our expert knowledge. We do not charge you a cent for it. What we do charge you for is the expert workmanship and materials used. Come in and see how nice a suit we can make you. We will talk about the price afterward. It will be considerably less than you may have been led to expect.
