STRAW - HATS

Your Straw Hat is Ready at Miller, McFarlane & Co.

And its the correct thing too, because we go to the very best makers for our hats. Most straws look alike at first, but a week of hot sun, or a sudden thunder storm will work wonders with them—the sort you don't like. Our's always looks well, hold their shape and prices lower than those of exclusive hat stores

Rockford.

Rev. J. W. Kitching spoke on the subject on "Conversion and Sanctification" Sunday evening from the text, Acts 3-6, to which all listened very attentively.

A reception service was held in connection with the League on Wednesday night.

The Sunday evening services during the summer months will begin at 8 o'clock p.m., instead of 7.30 as formerly.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid and ladies of the congregation was held in the church on Tuesday afternoon to make arrangements for the Strawberry Festival. The Sunday school has decided to hold a picnic on Coronation Day.

Hartford football team came up on Saturday night to play a friendly game with our boys. They had been playing scarcely five minutes when a very sad accident happened. Jimmie Fryett and two other boys got in a tussle with the ball and in some manner Jimmie's right leg was broken. This sad affair at once put a damper on the game. He was at once conveyed to his home and Dr. Newell of Jarvis phoned for who arrived in a short time and set the fractured limb and we are pleased to state that he is getting along as well as can be expected. He not only has the sympathy of the team but everybody young and old in the community seems to feel and express their sympathy for him. It is not expected that our boys will take part in the football tournament at Jarvis on May 24th now.

Frank Smith of Brantford was visiting at his uncle's Arthur Smith over Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. Andrew Edington visited the latter's parents below Cayuga on Sunday.

Robt. McCarter and family of Jarvis visited at Geo. Irwin's on Thursday last.

Boat—On May 13th to Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Irvine, a daughter.

Nanticoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Husband of Hamilton, formerly of Wallaceburg, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Evans.

Mrs. J. Lamb of Toronto is visiting relatives here.

John F. Ross of Toronto is spending a few days at his home here.

John Meade had a bee drawing gravel on Thursday. He intends building a new barn this summer.

R. J. Evans has purchased a new buggy.

Boat—On Monday, May 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. John Doughty, a daughter.

The young people of Nanticoke and surrounding country intend holding a ball in the Town Hall on Wednesday evening, May 24th. This promises to be the event of the season. Music furnished by L. Kindry.

Sandusk

Misses Florence and Maud Evans spent Thursday in Simcoe.

Mrs. Amelia McBurney and Mrs. Joseph Peacock spent Friday in Dover.

Miss Annie Thompson spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at York.

Mrs. Fannie Forsythe of Hagersville visited friends in this burg last week.

Nathan and Albert Bartlett of Buffalo spent a few days of last week with friends in this burg.

Miss Hazel Atkinson spent Sunday at "East View."

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Evans of Hagersville visited Mr. and Wm. Werner on Sunday.

Wedding bells at Sandusk.

Garnet.

Holden Barker had a sawing bee on Saturday.

Chas. Walkin made a business trip to Cayuga on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Short spent Sunday at S. Graham's.

S. Graham had the misfortune to get struck in the head with a colt, cutting a nasty gash which required three stitches. Dr. Minnie McDonald dressed the wound.

The stone masons have commenced the foundation of W. Anguish's new barn.

The Thursday night meeting this week will be a patriotic one, the topic being "Our Empire." C. A. Walker will take the topic. A suitable program will be given.

The farmers have finished their second spraying in this vicinity. The prospects for an apple crop are not too good. Many orchards promise not a quarter crop; spys, especially being a failure if bloom counts for ought.

Graham Phibes is leaving this week for the Northwest, after a few months' visit here with his mother. W. Mellis is preparing to build a new barn.

Sick headache results from a disordered condition of the stomach, and can be cured by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Try it. For sale by all dealers.

In your cleaning up don't forget the cellar. Dank foul air rising from a cellar is a menace to health, while a dry light cellar with a current of air passing through makes a fine place for keeping various food stuffs in warm weather.
