Sandwich

Donald Graydon and wife of Hamilton spent the 24th under the parental roof.

Mrs. Robert Booth spent a few days last week at Clabramail.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew of Vernon visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Booth last week.

Quite a number from this burg took in the celebration at Jarvis on May 24th.

Mrs. R. Pond and Miss Tillie of Jarvis are visiting at "Fair View."

Wesley Brown of Buffalo spent a few days last week in this vicinity.

Geo. Beasdale and wife visited Chestnut Knoll on Wednesday of last week.

The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Byron Pond on Friday, June 2nd. All members kindly bear this in mind.

Renton

Mr. and Mrs. Lowden of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kitching.

Charles Duncan was a visitor at Walsh on Sunday.

J. J. McCawell spent from Saturday night until Monday with his daughter at St. Thomas.

Nearly all of our citizens celebrated the 24th in Jarvis.

Dick Peaking spent Sunday with Chappy at Rolling Valley Farm.

Garnet

"Our Empire" was the topic in the Methodist church on Thursday evening, May 25th. The program included a reading by Mr. Eddy, a paper by Miss Green (read in her absence by Miss Ada Rindill) patriotic music and an address by Mr. Charles Walker. Miss Olive Parkinson also assisted by reciting a patriotic selection. A thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent.

The preaching service on Sunday, June 4 (Conference Sunday) will be withdrawn. The Sunday School will be held as usual. On Sunday, June 11th, the preaching service will be held at 7.30 instead of 2.30 on account of the special service for the Workmen Lodge in Jarvis at 3 p.m.

Several farmers are planting ensilage corn and are contemplating the erection of silos this fall. This form of succulence combined with alfalfa, which is extensively grown here, should practically solve the problem of a balanced ration for dairy cows.

Reckford

Jimmie Fryaet is getting along fine.

Rev. J. W. Kitching preached a splendid sermon on "Peace" on Sunday evening, from Matt. 6-10, "Thy Kingdom Come."

A meeting of the Trustee Board was held in the church Monday evening.

Our pastor is away attending Conference at Galt this week and will not be back for Sunday, but Wm. Howard has kindly consented to take the work of the circuit. We are looking for our pastor to come back to us again for another year. He is certainly a fine man and a good preacher and the different congregations of the circuit have expressed a desire to have him remain with us for another year although his three year term is up.

J. A. Marlett, our merchant, attended a family reunion at the home of his brother in Port Huron on May 24th.

Mrs. Hawkins and son George left last week to join her other sons Arthur and Charlie in their new home in Iola, Alta. We wish them every success.

Squire Smith of Simcoe is visiting at the home of his son Arthur here.

Several from here took in the sports at Jarvis on the 24th and report a good time.

John Gilbert purchased two good Holstein cows last week.

Bobbie Sampson of Tyrrell visited at his old home at Jas. Priest's on Sunday.

Brooklyn

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilcox spent Sunday at Joe Steele's.

Mrs. Pierson and children have returned to their home in Grimsby, after spending a few days at Albert Hare's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoover of Selkirk called at Wm. Brown's on 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Beek spent Sunday at D. Macdonald's.

Boak.—On May 24th, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gillis, a daughter (Florence Maude).

Dissolve 10 cents worth of gum camphor in one tescup of ammonia or alcohol and shake well, then add half a pint of pure olive oil and 10 cents' worth of glycerin; shake well before using. The liniment will cure sciatic rheumatism by rubbing the parts in pain from six to eight weeks and will not return. It will take the swelling from a sore throat.

John McFarry and family of Hensville, have moved to their farm near Hamilton, and J. Cole will occupy the house vacated by Mr. McGarry.

$20,000 Worth of Table Cloths, Napkins, Towels and Sheetings Join the June White Sales

SHEETINGS AND PILLOW COTTONS HEMMED FREE ALL MONTH

THERE are just four things we wish particularly to impress upon you in connection with this immense sale of Linens, Sheetings, Pillow Cottons Towels, Etc.

ONE—This is the largest event of its kind ever held by The Right House—quantities sufficient for a whole month's heavy selling.

TWO—Because of the scarcity of flax and the raising of spinners' and weavers' wages, Linen prices have advanced since we bought this great stock.

THREE—The prices we have marked on the great consignments that crossed the sea to come to us, are 25% lower than usual.

FOUR—The imperfect items are weavers' slight mistakes that can scarcely be noticed even on close examination.
